ONLY NICK FOR GIRLS FROM HERE

Bridegroom Is Attraction in Congress for Pittsburgh Teachers.

DALZELL IGNORED

Cannon, Williams and Other Notables Relegated to Back Seats and of No interest.

LONGWORTH IS WORTH WHILE

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM
L. W. STRAYER, Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—A party of 60 Pittsburgh school teachers sat in the gallery of the house of representatives, with Representative Graham of Allegheny acting as guide.

"Which is Mr. Longworth?" eagerly inquired a blonde girl with glasses.

"He is not in his seat at present," replied Mr. Graham, after surveying the floor of the house. "Now, that gentleman in the chair is Speaker Cannon—Uncle Joe, you hear him called. And that portly gentleman over in the first aisle is Mr. Payne, the floor leader."

"Pardon me," interrupted a teacher, leaning over from the rear row, "which one did you say was Mr. Longworth?"

"I said he is not in the house just at present," said Mr. Graham. "And right back of Mr. Payne is Mr. Dalzell, our own congressman who has such an important part in the affairs of congress, while that shaggy-headed man on the opposite side of the chamber is——"

"Do you think Mr. Longworth will come in pretty soon?" asked the girl with the glasses.

"Why, yes," said Mr. Graham, "he is probably in the cloakroom and will be out shortly. As I was saying, that shaggy-headed man is John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader. He——"

"Say, Mr. Graham," piped up a little girl in a brown walking suit, "is Mr. Longworth as handsome as his pictures in the papers?"

"Well, really," replied the congressman, "that is a question that you ladies will have to decide for yourselves. And I guess I had better go and see if I can drag Nick out for you to look at."

"Oh, if you only would," came in a chorus from the teachers.

Hurrying down to the cloakroom, Mr. Graham found the object of all that solicitude and curiosity snugly ensconsed in a leather chair, smoking. By some excuse, Mr. Graham induced him to walk out on to the floor and kept him standing there conversing for a few minutes unconscious of the fact that he was on exhibition. Eight school teachers balanced themselves on the gallery railing and leaned far over to get a good view of the man who was fortunate enough to capture Miss Alice Roosevelt, the daughter of the President. When he went back to resume his smoke there was subdued discussion of his fine points by the school ma'ams. It was agreed that he was worth while and that Alice had made no mistake.

"Oh, I don't know," chimed in the little girl in the brown walking suit. "It doesn't strike me that Alice drew such a prize package. Now, I know a young principal out at——" But at this point Mr. Graham reappeared and led the party over to the senate. Tomorrow afternoon they will be received in the East room of the White House by the President.

SEEKS TO REGAIN WIFE AND IS MADE PRISONER

Attempting to Effect Reconciliation F. H. Davis Has Encounter With Alleged Co-Respondent.

As the result of an effort to effect a reconciliation with his wife, against whom he recently brought action for divorce, Frank H. Davis of Smithfield street was placed under arrest last night on charges of disorderly conduct and assault, preferred by William J. Jordon, who is alleged to be corespondent in the divorce case.

It is said that a Mrs. McGill, an aunt of Jordon's, called upon Davis yesterday and informed him that his wife was in Wilkinsburg and that a reconciliation was possible. Both went to Wilkinsburg and Davis remained in the railroad station while Mrs. McGill went to interview Mrs. Davis. Meanwhile a train arrived bearing Jordon, and as the two met a scuffle is said to have ensued before many excited spectators. Davis claims Jordon was the aggressor. Jordon entered information before Alderman Kirby last night, and Davis was released for a hearing this morning.

HIS SOUL SPEEDS ON AT THE CLOSE OF PRAYER

HALCYONDALE, GA., April 4.—(Special.)—Just as he was rising from his knees after leading in prayer at Black Creek church last night, George R. Lee, one of the most prominent planters of Screven county, dropped dead. A peculiar coincidence is that Mrs. Lee died in a similar manner several years ago, dropping dead while making preparation to attend services in the church where her husband died.

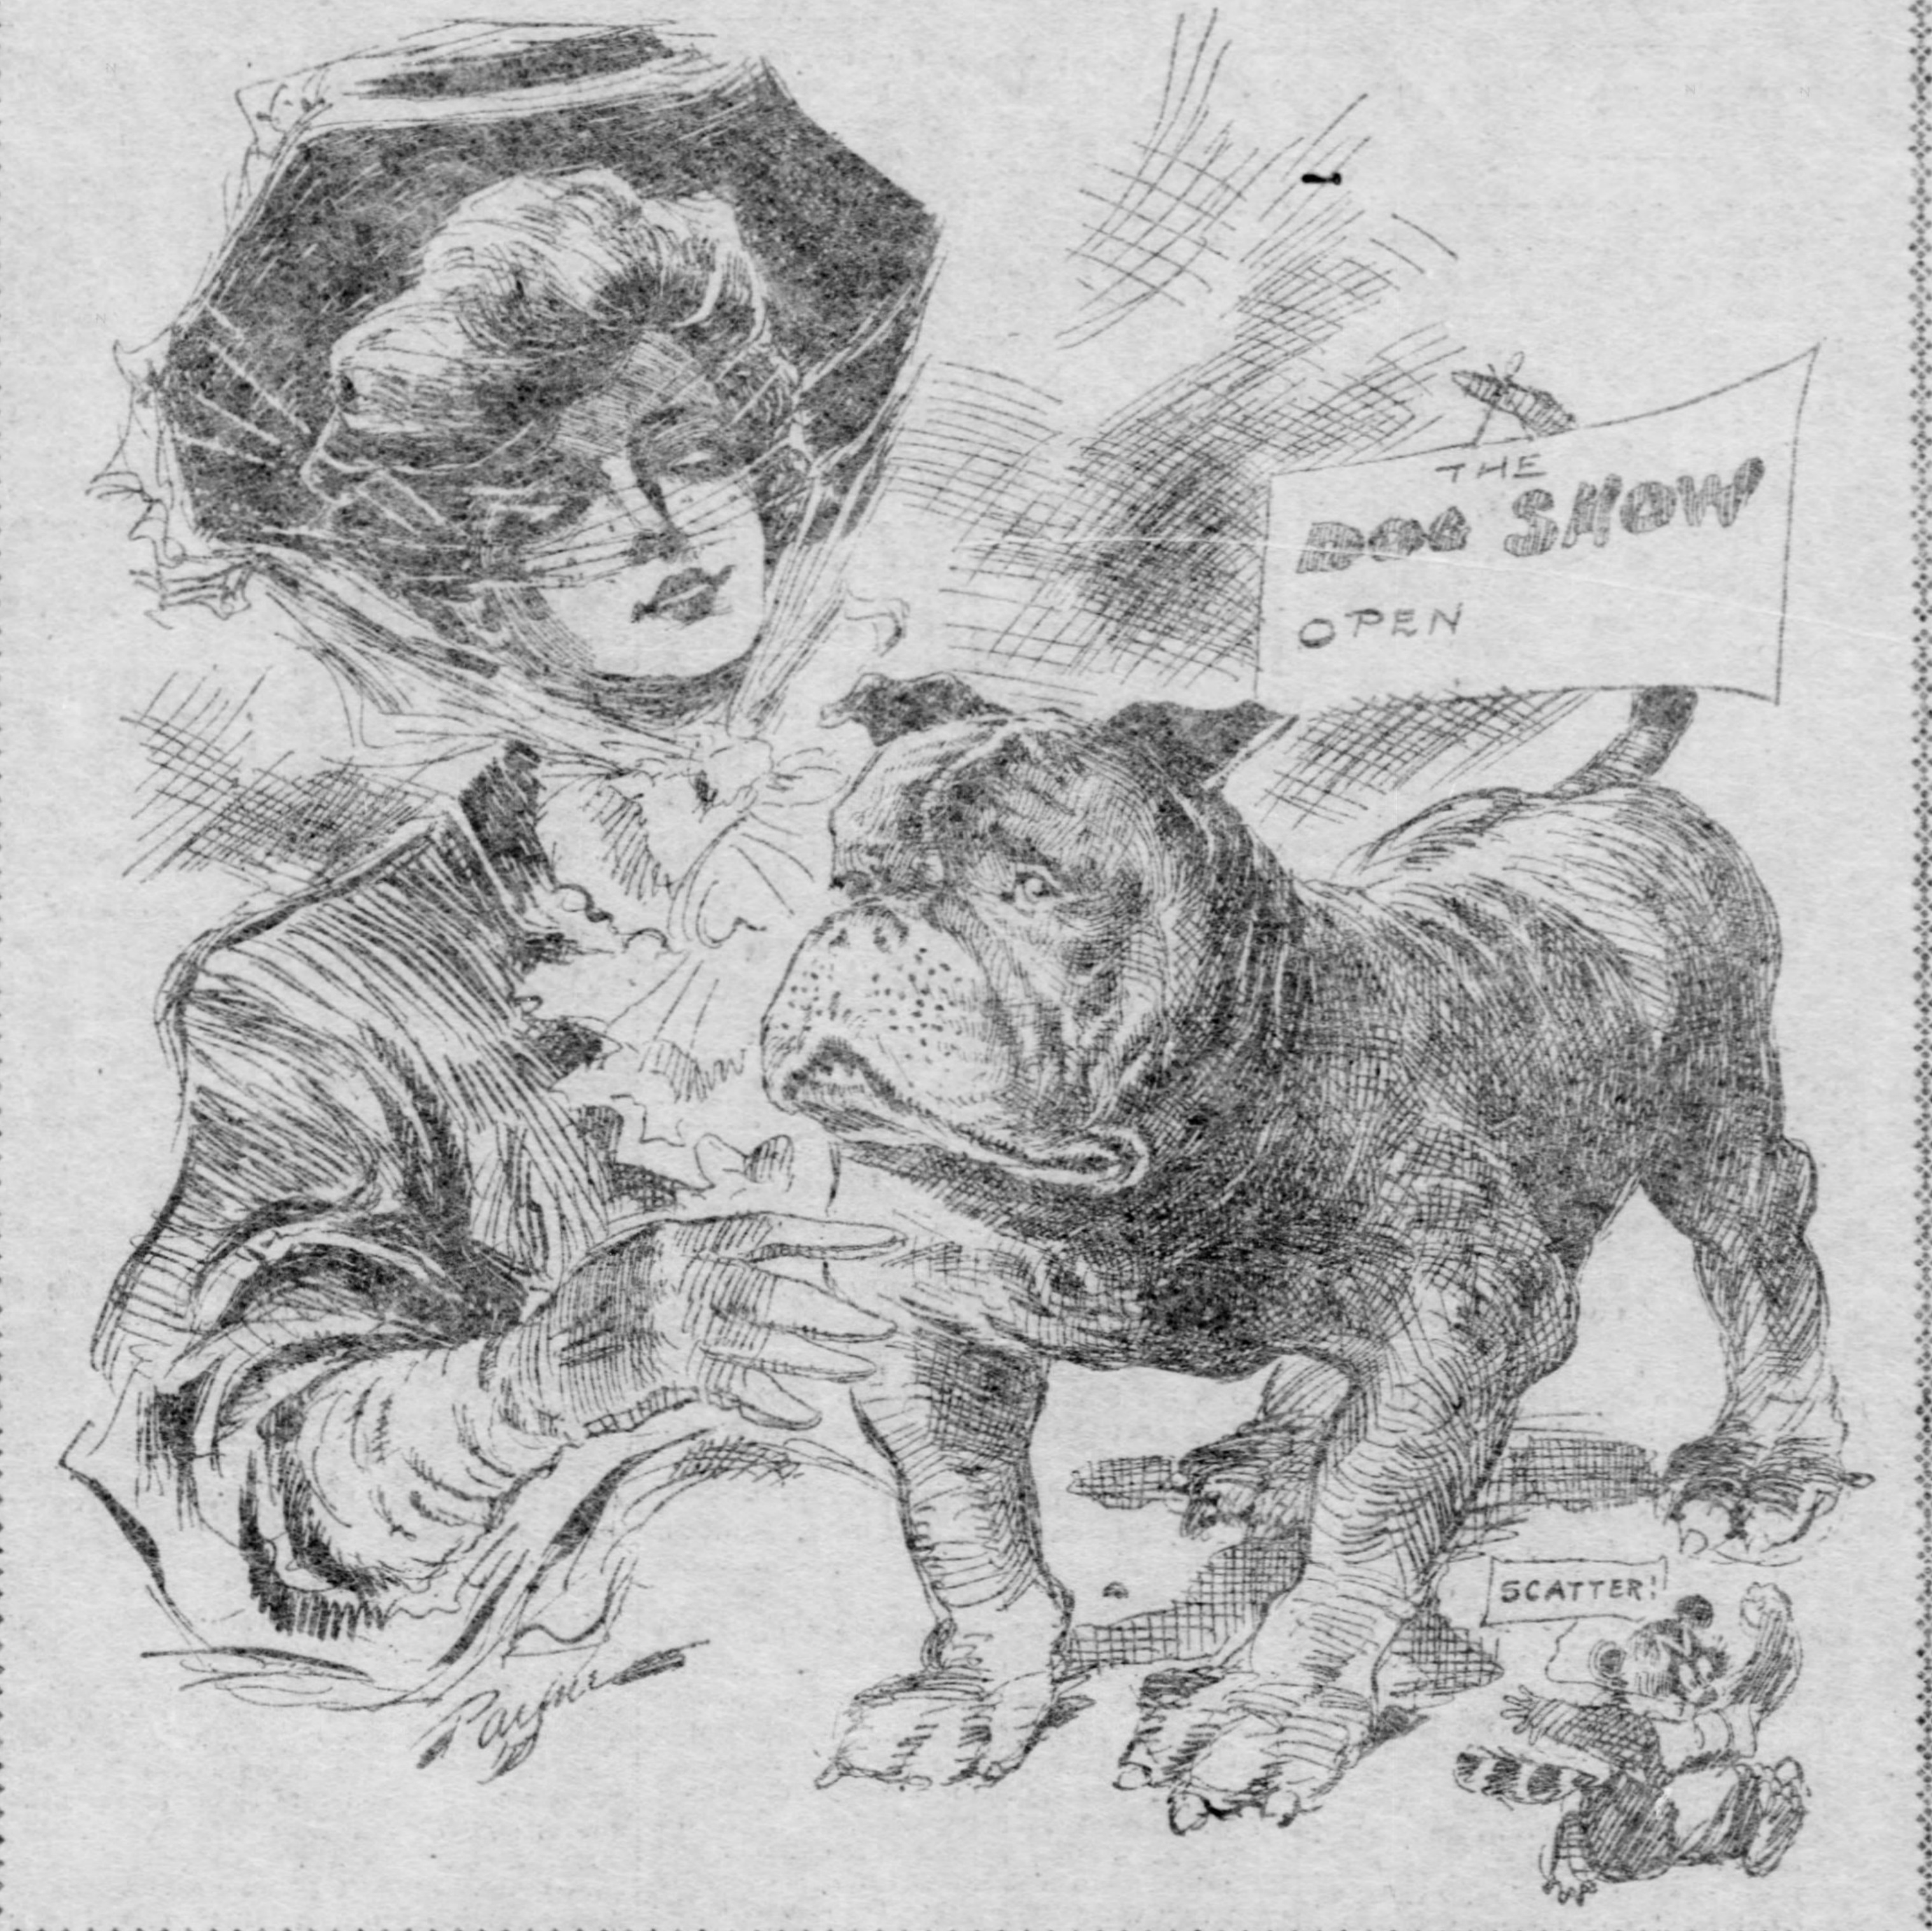
THE DAY OF THE DOG



ALL RECORDS FOR TYPHOID CASES ARE SHATTERED

Alarming Total of 68 Cases in 24 Hours Is Reported to the Bureau of Health.

Pittsburgh is in the grasp of the worst typhoid fever epidemic in the history of the health bureau. In the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock last night 68 new cases had been reported. With the possible exception of the South Side wards no part of the city seems immune from the spread of the disease. In the Twenty-third ward, where dwell thousands of railroaders, the disease is particularly prevalent. An even score of new cases developed there yesterday.

On April 12, 1903, 51 new cases of typhoid were reported to the bureau of health in 24 hours, the record up to that time. It was then the cry went up for the rapid completion of the filtration plant, work on which had not been started. Since then the work, which is expected to go far toward curtailing contagion within the city, has progressed, the filtration plant being now about one-third completed. Yesterday's records in the health bureau tend to show the necessity for speed with the work.

Alarming as are the figures of yesterday there is the possibility that they do not make public the actual conditions. Superintendent Moore of the bureau of health says there is a tendency on the part of some physicians to keep secret their typhoid cases. This, he says, is the result of neglect, the physicians not realizing the offense. Several instances of this kind were developed yesterday, and the health officials say there is a possibility that if all of the returns were in the day's record would be swelled considerably. The number of cases reported from the various wards yesterday were as follows:

Firth, two; Sixth, four; Eighth, two; Eleventh, five; Thirteenth, one; Fourteenth, three; Sixteenth, two; Seventeenth, one; Eighteenth, four; Nineteenth, five; Twentieth, six; Twenty-first, eight; Twenty-second, one; Twenty-third, 20; Twenty-seventh, two; Twenty-ninth, one; Thirty-seventh, one.

WAS HE PICKLED IN ALCOHOL?

Important Question Regarding John Paul Jones Answered by Secretary Bonaparte.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(Special.)—Secretary Bonaparte has received from an octogenarian in Oneota, N. Y., an anxious query as to whether John Paul Jones was pickled in alcohol, and if so, did he keep well. The letter has been answered to the effect that Jones kept well, considering the lapse of years, but that the department cannot go into a discussion upon the relative merits of cremation and pickling in alcohol, the question which the writer is really worried about. The letter reads as follows:

"Please tell me, was Paul Jones found in a lead casket filled with alcohol, and was the body in a good state of preservation? I am 80 years old and favor cremation, but my children prefer the lead casket and alcohol."

STERN PARENT SOON ENDS LOVERS' YOUNG DREAM

LATROBE, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—Because his pretty 17-year-old daughter, Emily, and Charles Decker attempted to elope, Riley Harrold, the father of the girl, and a well-known resident of Derry, followed the pair to Latrobe where both were captured after a running fight in which Constable Neale and young Decker exchanged several shots. The girl was taken to Morganza by her father this evening while Decker was committed to jail.

STORE CLERKS' THEFT LEAGUE KEEPS MEMBERS WELL SUPPLIED

Furnishes Theater Tickets, Shoes, Apparel and Jewelry—Woman Returns $7,000 Clock. Recovery of $500 Diamond Collar.

Two more arrests were made yesterday in the wholesale robbery of a downtown department store. These later arrests indicate the existence of a league of Pittsburgh store clerks, and even of employes of theaters, to rob for the mutual benefit of the members of the gang. William J. Nunn, aged 23, of 40 Miller street, was one of the men arrested yesterday. He is a clerk in Cannon's shoe store in Smithfield street. He says he stole shoes from his employers and exchanged them with Edward Mallen, Samuel G. Brown and J. H. Harrison, arrested Tuesday, and with U. S. Gray, John Craft, Ida Washington and Annie Beasley, negroes arrested last Saturday. A quantity of valuable articles stolen from the department store were found at Nunn's home.

Walter T. Maher of 3 Elm street was also arrested yesterday. He was formerly a clerk in the department store. His part was to furnish overcoats, raincoats and suits in exchange for jewelry and costly underwear. He was discharged two weeks ago for selling a suit far below the marked price.

Detectives Eagan and Cole, who unearthed the plot, found still another member of the gang. He is a theater employe and he kept the other members of the league in theater tickets in exchange for costly apparel and jewelry. He will probably be arrested today.

The estimate that $20,000 worth of goods had been stolen from the department store within two years is probably far too low. The detectives yesterday recovered a $7,000 gold and diamond-studded clock Mallen had given a woman living outside the city. She saw the announcement of Mallen's arrest in yesterday's Gazette, and at once returned the clock, then suspecting, and correctly, that it had been stolen, but not realizing its great value.

Among other things recovered yesterday by Detectives Eagan and Cole was a $500 diamond-studded collar presented by Mallen to a woman, who had taken it to a jewelry store to be shortened. In a sewer drop at Stevenson and Locust streets they found half a dozen pairs of valuable silk hose, hidden there when the gang became scared by the arrest of the negroes, and in a downtown barber shop was recovered a large package of costly silk waists.

Harrison was released yesterday on $2,000 bail for the hearing. The other prisoners were unable to secure bail.

TRAMP KEEPS KEEP'S MONEY.

Winsted Hotel Manager Is Looking for His Erstwhile Porter Who Has a Glass Eye.

WINSTED, CONN., April 4.—(Special.)—Charles Shirley, a rusty-looking tramp with an oily tongue and a glass ball in his right eye socket, hired out to Manager William Keep of the Park hotel two weeks ago as night porter. Mr. Keep provided him with a new suit of clothes and told him to keep clean, to which the tramp porter replied "keep the change," but Mr. Keep could not.

Late last night Shirley opened the safe in the office and the strong box within and escaped with $90. As a result the police are looking for a man with a glass eye.

EX-PRESIDENT HOOKS BIG FISH

Grover Cleveland Is Preparing to Leave Florida After Making Magnificent Catch.

STUART, FLA., April 4.—(Special.)—After catching one of the finest specimens of tarpon ever taken in the waters of this state, Grover Cleveland is preparing to leave for home in the morning, and the former president has had great sport ever since he came here, accompanied by Dr. Joseph Bryant and Prof. Howard McClenehan of Princeton.

The ex-president hooked the fish soon after going out on Monday morning, but it was several hours before he overcame the big fellow, and several times it seemed that the game fish would get away, but this was prevented by Mr. Cleveland's skillful handling.

Depew has formally notified the Yale university officials that he desires his name to be withdrawn from the canvas for nominees to succeed himself as Fellow of the Corporation. WINSTED, CONN., April 4.—(Special.)—Mrs. Albert W. Adams horsewhipped Frederick Bragg last evening. Dogs belonging to Mr. Adams and Mr. Bragg became involved in a fight, and when Mrs. Adams asked Bragg to separate them he replied: "Let 'em have the argument out, they have been snapping at one another for a long time."

Mrs. Adams secured a whip then she began to whip the fighting dogs. As Bragg stepped up to protest against her beating his dog she turned and placed the lash on him with stinging effect; but Bragg's Boston bull got the best of the dog fight.

The contract calls for 30,000 tons of structural steel which will be used in Korea. The first lot will go forward early next month. All the steel will be fabricated at the new Ambridge shops of the American Bridge Company. The Ambridge plant is now turning out 17,000 tons of bridge material called for in a recent Japanese contract.

DOOMED TO SPINSTERHOOD.

Girl Sues Her Brother Claiming He Has Ruined Her Matrimonial Prospects.

DETROIT, MICH., April 4.—(Special.)—Miss Ida Goss, aged 18, today brought suit for $10,000 damages against her brother Jacob and his wife, charging them with telling stories about her, which drove her betrothed away and doomed her to a life of spinsterhood. The brother is also charged with assault and battery.

"My matrimonial prospects are forever ruined," said Miss Goss, "my brother and his wife told the young men I was a wicked girl."

BALLOONIST FINDS DEATH IN A STREAM

Paul Nocquet Drowns in a Small Creek After Landing Safely.

CROSSES MEADOWS

Covers a Stretch of Land During the Night Few Would Attempt in Daylight.

SEARCHERS WORK ALL DAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—Death in the waters of Bass creek, a small stream winding through the meadows along the south shore of Lang Island, between Jones Beach and Amityville, ended the daring balloon ascent yesterday afternoon of Paul Nocquet, a French sculptor of note and an enthusiastic aeronaut. The body was found tonight on the muddy shore of the creek, where the tide had left it, and not a great distance from where Nocquet's collapsed balloon was discovered late last night by the life savers of Jones Beach.

Nocquet apparently landed safely with his car and in fighting his way out of the meadows in the darkness had traversed several miles when he died. He had crossed 13 or 14 different islands and had swum or waded through the runlets between them.

That Nocquet traveled as far as he did is considered wonderful. He essayed a trip that few men could possibly complete in daylight. The valve controlling ropes of the balloon when found indicated that the descent had been started by Nocquet's action and that it must have been gradual.

The ballon in its flight passed over Jamaica, Garden City, Westbury, Jericho and Chicold Spring Harbor; then darkness came and shut it from view. What its course was after passing over Huntington at about 8:15 p. m., there is no means of knowing. Nothing further was heard of it until its discovery on Jones Beach was announced today.

Capt. Austin of the Jones Beach life saving station, who found the balloon, reported this morning that it apparently had been dragged along some distance in the sand. Tracks about the balloon seemed to indicate that the aeronaut had survived his flight. This fact gave the searchers courage throughout the day.

Capt. George Smith of Amityville, who had joined in the search early in the day, located the body tonight on the muddy bank of Bass creek and made it fast to a stake. It will be taken to Amityville tomorrow after having been viewed by the coroner.

At about the time the balloon was first discovered by the beach patrol, cries were heard out on the bay in the direction of the islands by Henry Purdy, who lives in a houseboat. He supposed the calls were those of night shooters or fishermen shouting to each other, and paid no great attention to them.

Son of Western Judge Blows in $5,000 in a Week and Ends in Jail for Theft.

Overcome by temptations, he is alleged to have stolen a dress suit case from a Sixth avenue dealer and landed in the court of special sessions today and he is now detained until his father can be heard from. On Friday the young man must plead to a charge of petty larceny.

Some one threw a lighted firecracker, which alighted on the bride's hat and exploded, setting fire to her hat. The hat was torn off, preventing the flames from reaching her hair. Just before the ceremony William Smalley, the father of the bride was stricken by paralysis.

MEANS DEATH IF THEY WORK IN THE MINES

First Violence and Threats in Miners' Strike Are in Anthracite Fields.

ITALIANS ATTACK

Roosevelt Refuses to Take a Hand in Difference Between Miners and Operators.

SITUATION IN ALL FIELDS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WILKES-BARRE, April 4.—There was considerable disorder at the Fernwood mine of the Erie Coal Company at Yatesville today. A number of Italian miners tried to prevent the pumpmen from going to work, but a detail of the state constabulary was sent to the scene and soon dispersed the crowd.

Unemployed Italians also prevented the operation of the washery of the West End Coal Company at Mocanoqua. Pickets held up the employes and told them it would be better if they did not go to work, and the men returned to their homes.

The pickets were armed with guns and clubs. It is said that they told the employes that if they continued to work it meant death. All hands quit work at once. A number of men and boys who were picking coal on the culm banks were also driven off by pickets.

IRWIN, PA., April 4.—There was a clash this evening between the guards sent from Pittsburgh and a number of citizens of Penn station, backed up by a mob of about 150. The guards have been patroling the railroad to keep the strikers from molesting the men at work. They were doing their duty this evening when three men, alleged to represent the railroad company, and the burgess of the town ordered the guards away. They held their ground until the crowd begun firing stones. No one was injured except Lieut. Rhoades of the guards, who was struck on the head by a stone fired by a woman. The Penn Gas Coal Company has had about a dozen more men sworn in to assist in keeping order. The company is said to be considering the question of applying for an injunction, the same as was granted in Somerset county.

President Will Not Interfere.

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—John H. Winder, president of the Ohio Operators' association, gave out part of a letter he received from President Roosevelt today, in which the President, replying to the request that a commission be appointed by him to settle the miners' strike, says:

"To appoint a committee to meet with the miners and operators, as you request, would necessitate action on the part of congress. As yet I am not prepared to say what action I personally will, or can, take in the matter."

WASHINGTON, April 4.—It is stated at the White House that the President has made a reply to the telegram received from the coal operators, and while the text will not be made public, there is authority for the statement that the President has decided not to interfere as long as conditions remain as they now are.

NEW YORK, April 4.—It was the general belief tonight of those who are closely watching the situation about the anthracite miners' headquarters in this city that the miners have definitely decided to modify their demands, and will present them to the operators probably tomorrow. Some of the members of the committee privately admitted before coming to New York for the present negotiations that the original demands of the union were greater than the miners really expected to get and that the leaders could afford to trim them down and still leave the workers enough to be satisfied.

It is believed that if the operators will meet the men half way on some of the demands they have made, such as a reconstruction in pay for some classes of labor, the miners would seriously consider the proposition of renewing the strike commission award for not more than one year. The miners have all along asserted they would not bind themselves to any agreement for three years.

Mitchell's Silence Significant.

When the reports that the miners would modify their demands and other rumors that they would suggest that the differences between themselves and their employers be arbitrated and that the convention of anthracite miners would be called within a few days were called to the attention of the members of the committee, they referred the inquirers to President Mitchell, who, when approached, shook his head and said: "There is nothing I can say at this time."

Preparations for another meeting tomorrow between the sub-committee representing the anthracite operators and miners kept the Shamokin scale committee of the miners busy today. Two long sessions were held, but no information was given out beyond a statement by President Mitchell.

President Mitchell's statement was:

"The committee appointed by the Shamokin convention met at the Ashland house today and had under consideration the communication from the governor of Pennsylvania and the offer of the anthracite coal operators to renew and continue for three years the award of the anthracite coal strike commission. It was decided that the matter of further negotiations and the propositions of the anthracite miners be referred to the sub-committee appointed by the general committee and that a further meeting of the general committee be held tomorrow at 8 a. m."

President Mitchell tonight made public a copy of the letter he sent to Gov. Pennypacker of Pennsylvania, who had asked the miners and operators to make every reasonable effort to end the present labor troubles without resort to a strike. The letter, which is signed by Mitchell, reads:

"Replying to your note of March 31, which was forwarded to me at New York, I beg to assure you that every reasonable effort will be made by the mine workers to secure a settlement of their differences with the anthracite operators without recourse to a strike."

Union Men Are Satisfied.

All the district leaders received reports from the anthracite fields during the day and evening, and notwithstanding reports that more coal was mined today than yesterday or Monday, they declared the situation was entirely satisfactory to them.

President Mitchell is devoting almost as much time to the situation in the bituminous fields as he is to the hard coal regions. He is hourly in receipt of telegrams from his lieutenants and from coal operators in the west. When asked tonight how matters stood in the soft coal fields, he said:

"Entirely satisfactory to me. Everything is turning out as I expected, and I believe the situation in the west will soon be cleared up."

When President Mitchell was informed that President Roosevelt had declined to interfere with the soft coal troubles, he showed great interest and inquired if the text of the President's communication had been made public. He refused to comment on the President's action, but he plainly showed he was much gratified at the stand the President has taken.

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—Anticipating that a satisfactory arrangement will be made by the operators and miners representatives when they again meet in conference tomorrow in New York prevails throughout the anthracite region. Unlike the years 1900 and 1902 when both strikes were preceded by pronounced agitation the mineworkers appear to believe that when the conferees finish their deliberations they will have adopted a plan which if it does not comply with all the demands of the mine workers will at least grant concessions resulting in a resumption of mining operations.

Both Are Councilliatory.

This feeling is due in part to reported conciliatory attitude of both parties to the conference and also to the reassuring statements made by the returned delegates to the Indianapolis convention.

While hopeful of peace, however, the miners are preparing for war as is evidenced by the fact that picketing has become general throughout the region. In many cases men on their way to the mines were stopped by these pickets today and compelled to prove that they were exempted in President Mitchell's order suspending work. At Yatesville, near Wilkes-Barre, a number of pump men employed at the Fernwood colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal Company were attacked by foreigners which resulted in a call for the state police. No arrests were made.

In the upper region the companies are exerting every effort to operate their washeries. Some progress has been made in the vicinity of Scranton where a number of washeries were worked. At Mocanoqua a crowd of Italian mine laborers prevented the operation of the washery of the West End Coal Company.

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company today received at its office in this city the first reports dealing with disturbances in the Schuylkill region where the company's collieries are located. These reports contained information that a miners' train at Minersville had been partly destroyed by fire during the night, that the Burnside breaker at Shamokin had been stoned by breaker boys and that a stick of dynamite was found beneath the wheel of a cabin car which stood on a siding at an ash pit. The company is investigating the occurrences.

During the day President Baer held several conferences with officials of the coal company. He declined to discuss the New York conference.

Arbitration Is Offered.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 4.—The State Board of Arbitration offered its services today to the miners and operators of Illinois. The board submitted the following two propositions:

First, That the operators and miners hold a conference in the presence of the State Board of Arbitration and endeavor to settle differences; second, that both sides submit the matter to the State Board of Arbitration to adjudicate the differences.

President Perry of the United Mine Workers of Illinois said the miners were willing to accept the offer to meet the operators in conference in the presence of the State Board of Arbitration, and that he would send a reply to that effect to the board. He stated that no less than four members of the Illinois Coal Operators' association had signed the scale so far, and that ten operators not connected with the association signed today.

CHICAGO, April 4.—Secretary Bent of the Illinois Coal Operators' association, when informed of the offer of the State Board of Arbitration, and the reply of President Perry of the United Mine Workers, said:

"This is the first we have heard of the proposition, and I cannot say just now what the operators will do in regard to it. We offered to submit the differences between the operators and the miners to a commission to be appointed by the President of the United States, but the miners ignored that proposition."

COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—No coal will be mined in Ohio this week, according to the statement of Secretary Savage of the Ohio miners today. "Next Monday," he said, "the miners and operators will hold a conference at Athens and upon the result of this conference will depend largely the situation in Ohio. The independents in the Hocking field are anxious to sign the 1903 scale."

MASSILLON, O., April 4.—Delegates from every local union of the miners' association in the Massillon district, in convention today, by a unanimous vote, decided to uphold State President Green and State Vice President Sullivan in their efforts to have the Ohio operators sign wage scale agreements that shall end at the same time; to first meet the operators of the Hocking district and if a settlement be obtained to make that settlement a basis for scales of other Ohio districts; to insist that all concessions made miners since the 1903 scale was adopted shall be added to the 1903 scale, if signed this year, and to ask the state officers to be present when the scale is signed for any district. Miners to the number of 3,057 were represented and the delegates pledge their loyalty to the union, no matter what the result. No resumption of work is looked for in this district for 60 days. No operator has signed a new scale. Every mine and bank is idle.

Two Strikers Are Shot.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., April 4.—Two striking miners at the Berwind-White mine No. 37, near Windber, Pa., were shot at 7 o'clock this evening by guards while raising a disturbance near the mine. The men's names cannot be learned. Neither was seriously hurt.

Guards have been placed about the mine to protect all men who return to work and it was with these guards the trouble arose at mine No. 37. Sheriff Bentley of Somerset county, who was at the mines has gone home leaving his armed deputies in charge. Sheriff Samuel Lenhart and deputies from Cambria county are guarding the Cambria county mines of the company.

It is almost certain, according to information received here today that the officials of the United Mine Workers and possibly John Mitchell himself, will come here and preemptorily end the strike at the Berwind-White mines. Five thousand men are now out on a strike and the situation is serious. The strike was inaugurated Monday by the local union without the backing of the district organization. It is pointed out that the strike if not wholly contrary to the national bylaws is at least irregular and that the irregularity in itself is sufficient to meet the strong disapproval of the miners' union. After Joseph Genter organized the men, they presented no claims or grievances to the Berwind-White Company and that company, last Sunday, voluntarily posted notices announcing that they would pay the 1903 scale.

It is said that this scale was acceptable to the majority of the miners and if the union had any other demands to make, they should have made them in a formal way to the company. A committee should have been elected to present the demands of the miners to the company and then a conference should have been arranged. None of these steps were taken and it is claimed the strike cannot secure official sanction. It is freely predicted here tonight that practically every one of the 5,000 miners affected will be back to work in less than a week.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 4.—A conference of miners and operators of subdistrict No. 5, which includes 12,000 miners in Harrison, Belmont and Jefferson counties in Ohio, and Brooks, Marshall and Ohio in West Virginia has been called for Friday afternoon at the Stamm hotel, Wheeling. A. R. Watkins, sub-district president, says he has assurances that 75 per cent of the operators employing about one-third the miners will sign. No work will be done in this sub-district pending this meeting.

Vice President T. L. Lewis left today for Charleston where the Kanawha district operators have refused to sign the 1903 scale.

The American Sheet, Steel & Tin Plate Company will not sign until after the conference on Friday is held and the matter considered. The Koontz mine, in Benwood, will start tomorrow, on the promise of the advance, providing the other operators sign.

Nothing Was Accomplished.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., April 4.—The entire day was put in by the miners and operators in joint session in a discussion of their differences, without accomplishing anything. Should there be nothing accomplished before final adjournment there are said to be a number of operators who will grant an increase in order to keep their mines running and others would no doubt follow their lead. The joint scale committee consists of J. S. Wiseman, Ed Soulsby, P. M. Green, J. E. Coalgo, W. F. Hill and B. T. Hastings for the miners and J. H. Winder, D. T. Evans, J. B. Lewis, M. T. Roach and Edward Schonebaum for the operators.

ROSCOE, PA., April 4.—The Alice mine, of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, started work this morning with 300 men. The mines receiving orders to resume work this morning were: Alice, Champion, Eclipse, Washington Jones and Laughlin's Vesta mines No. 1, 2 and 3 and 4. The miners are apparently satisfied with the 1903 scale and propose to abide by the actions of their officers, of which John Sheehan is president. It is expected that the majority of the miners will return to work.

BROWNSVILLE, PA., April 4.—Albany mine of the river combine was the only mine in this section to operate today. The Frick Company's river mine No. 1 will probably not resume work for 30 days or more.

GLENN WIELDS HIS AX.

Chops Off Heads of Six Special Officers Who Have Been Watching Allegheny Houses.

The ax fell in the Allegheny police bureau last night, when Superintendent Glenn chopped off the heads of six special officers. They were Edward C. Andriest, Joseph H. Dean, Ed. Fischer, Charles C. Justice, James H. Rea and George Davis. The men have been on the payroll for some time, doing special work, such as watching vacant houses. There has been no provision made for filling their places.

City Treasurer Kopp appointed Frank Minnemeyer chief clerk in his office yesterday, to succeed John Witherow, who resigned. He is a brother of H. W. Minnemeyer, Jr., ex-city clerk of Pittsburgh, and had been in the employ of the Carnegie Steel Company for eight years.

Arrest the Moving Man.

James McGraw, employed by a moving company, was arrested in Allegheny. People whose furniture he was assisting to handle missed a diamond and a watch. Superintendent Glenn said they had no evidence against the prisoner.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

District Miners' Convention Finally Adjourns After Many Stormy Sessions.

MANY MINES ARE STILL IDLE

Following a series of strenuous sessions covering nearly two months, the Pittsburgh district anual convention of the United Mine Workers of America came to final adjournment last evening after formally installing Frank Feehan as president, and a complete corps of new officers to succeed those deposed by the earlier sessions of the convention.

The tellers' report, for which the convention had been clamoring for days, was finally made yesterday afternoon and the result of the special election was as announced in The Gazetae on Tuesday. Frank Feehan defeated Edward cKay for the presidency by a vote of 5,715 to 2,160. The vote on the other successful candidates was as follows: Vice president, James S. Clark, 3,211; secretary-treasurer, John Hurley, 2,288; national extcutive board member, William Little, 6,626; district executive board members, S. A. Wetzel, 3,990; A. J. Kwaterski, 3,059; A. L. Davis, 2,349; F. P. Hanaway, 2,712; William Booth, 2,618; James Watchorn, 2,561; Thomas Sheehan, 2,19; George Black, 1,842; Paul Flyn, 1,740.

M'Kay Made Formal Protest.

Following the announcement of Feehan's election McKay made formal protest that the former was not in good standing, but the convention unanimously overruled the objection. Feehan will call at the district headquarters this morning to take charge, and it is expected that he will meet with opposition from the Dolan forces who still maintain legal right to their offices.

Conditions in the Pittsburgh district did not show much material change yesterday. At the offices of the Pittsburgh Coal Company it was stated that 11 of the mines of the company were being operated, while the independent operators claim0ed that the day's tonnage would not exceed 100 cars.

During the morning session of the district conve0ntion Frank Feehan announced that officials of the Pittsburgh Coal Company had called upon him early in the morning and complained that the miners had refused to work in the folowig mines: Euclid, Painter, Darr, Banning Nos. 1 and 2, West Haven, Arnold Nos. 1 and 2, Mongah, Sunnyside, Rostraver, Freemont, Clipper, Fayette City, Apollo, Redstone, Champion, Eclipse, Vigiltnt, Chamouni and eBaumont.

Feehan asked, on behalf of the company, that a committee be appointed by the convention to visit these mines and induce the miners to work. William Little, of the national executive board, announced that some of the mine sueprintendents had informed the men that the Perry resolution did not include the concessions made two years ago, and that this was causing some of the miners to hold off.

The convention decided to leave the matter with the district scale committee to inform the men just what the provisions of the new scale are. During the discussion the delegate from the Ellsworth comptny's mines reported that the miners had refused to go to work at that place. The Pittsburgh and Southwestern Coal Company, Bulger Block Coal Company and Verner Coal and Coke Company signed tlhe new scale yesterday. Before the convention adjourned a resolution was unanimously passed condemning Dolan for his criticism of John Mitchell.

Dolan last night issued a statement repudiating the statement made by him the previous day to a representative of The Gazette and two other newspapermen. Dolan's statement is as follows:

> I desire to disclaim and repudiate emphatically statements attributed to me in the Pittsburgh morning papers of today. It was declared therein that I said that the miners were being gold-bricked and that I was issuing statements to the locals of our organization saying that the restoration of the 1903 scale practically meant nothing. This is an absolute and malicious falsehood. I contend that the operators, in signing this scale, pursuant to our miners' national convention agreement at Indianapolis, are doing all they can consistently be expected to do. I will state as my position that these scales should have been signed with myself as president of district No. 5 of the United Mine Workers of America, Uriah Bellingham as vice president, William Dodds as secretary-treasurer and William Little as district member of the national executive board.
>
> It has been shown in the books of our district organization that at the time Frank Feehan signed the scales that his local union was not in good standing, nor was he a member of our organization and he had no legal right to sign. However, I do not want this to influence the miners against going to work under the agreement authorized at Indianapolis. Despite what outcome these mixed affairs may have, I am for my constituents, the miners in this field, for all time as I always have been, and I advise that every man return to work where the scale has been agreed to.

Dolan's Talk on Tuesday.

The statement made by Dolan on Tuesday to The Gazette reporter assigned to cover the coal situation, and who is the writer of this report, was made in the presence of others and was to the effect that the agreement to sign the scale of 1903 as made by the operators, did not provide for concessions granted by the operators, such as the reduction of house rents, when the miners took a reduction two years ago, and was, therefore, not as valuable to the miners as the scale and condition which closed with the year ending April 1, 1906.

In the statement issued by Dolan last night it will be noted that he denies saying "the miners were being gold-bricked" and that "the restoration of the 1903 scale practically meant nothing." He was not quoted that way, but in his statement as issued last night he does say that the "operators are doing all they can consistently be expected to do." National Board Member William Little stated in the district convention yesterday that many of the miners in this district are construing the Perry resolution under which the new scale is being signed to imply that the concessions made two years ago are not included in the new scale, and are holding off to await definite instructions.

HE IS NOT FOR ROBBINS.

Patrick McBryde Declares That Selfish Interests Govern Pittsburgh Coal Company Man.

CLEVELAND, O., April 4.—(Special.)—Patrick McBryde, secretary of the Pittsburgh Vein Operators' association, today charger Francis L. Robbins of the Pittsburgh Coal Company with signing the miners' contract for gain at the expense of other coal companies.

"The attitude of President Robbins of the Pittsburgh Coal Company in signing the wage scale demanded by the union," said McBryde, "is prompted by a contract which the Pittsburgh Coal Company has with the Steel Corporation. By it the coal is bought on a sliding scale, a certain percentage over cost of mining. Half of the output of the company is taken in this way. Consequently it stands to make up on these profits what it loses on its other mine production. Robbins' mines are to a large extent in unorganized territory, so while seeming to be conciliatory toward the miners, he is in fact conceding little."

Burgess Objects to Smoking.

"Will you please stop smoking?" said Burgess Stewart of Wilkinsburg yesterday morning to a man in his court. "I won't allow smoking in this office any more." The chief executive of Wilkinsburg wants clear atmosphere when he is dealing out justice and in future those having business with him must leave their tobies and cigars on the outside.

CHINESE USE RELIGION AS CLOAK FOR GAMBLING

County Detectives Raid an Alleged Prayer Meeting. Players Try to Escape Through Holes, but Officers Catch Them by the Feet.

On complaint made by Christianized Chinamen to District Attorney Stewart that Chinese gamblers were conducting operations at 314 Grant street under a blind of selling religious literature in the front portion of a store and conducting weekly prayer-meetings, while gambling games were in progress in the rear, the county detectives last night raided the place. Four alleged proprietors were arrested and taken to jail. They gave their names as Joe Kukong, Lou Fong, Qua Him and Charlie Ging.

The complainants allege that Chinamen visiting here from surrounding towns are enticed into the place and separated from their savings. When the detectives entered last night the wildest confusion ensued, accompanied by a clatter resembling the fall of sheet tin. With almost united action, the Chinamen dived for three holes which had been broken through into an adjoining building, but were caught by the feet by the detectives while attempting this rather spectacular escape. Several of the visitors were discovered huddled together in a large box. The complainants identified the alleged proprietors and the visitors were permitted to take a hurried leave-taking.

FEARING DEATH, REVEALS SECRET

Pittsburgh Civil Engineer Tells of His Marriage to a Columbus Belle.

FAMILIES ARE SURPRISED

Fearing he might die, James Percy Hudson, a civil engineer, and son of Attorney William A. Hudson, of 5174 Woodworth street, revealed the romantic story of his secret marriage. The revelation was a surprise, although not unpleasant to the families of the bride and bridegroom. The post-nuptial announcement was made formally yesterday in Columbus, O., by the mother of Mrs. Hudson, who was, before her marriage, Miss Annie Berry Roof.

The wedding of the couple took place in Columbus on December 9, but it was kept secret by both the young people until a few days ago. Young Hudson was taken ill some time ago with appendicitis and removed to a hospital, where he underwent an operation. During his illness Miss Roof visited him often. After he started to convalesce he frequentiy called on the young lady. On one of these trips he was taken very ill with a relapse, and while there, fearing that he might die, he made a confession of his secret marriage. The family of the bride forgave the young couple.

The groom is a civil engineer employed by the Logan Nturai Gas and Fuel Company in Columbus, O., of which J. C. McDowell of Pittsburgh is president. He was a student at the Ohio State university for two years and there he met the young lady.

When the family of the young man was notified of the marriage last night by a reporter of The Gazette, they were all astonished except two brothers, whom he had taken into his confidence. The father was asleep last night and was unaware of the marriage of his son until he read it in The Gazette this morning. The bride is reported to be wealthy and on the death of an uncle she will inherit a small fortune.

CENTRAL FIELD MINERS AND OPERATORS MEET

Scale Is Proposed and Rejected on Ground It Will Advance Coal 17 Cents a Ton.

After an all-day session of the joint conference of the operators and mine workers of district No. 2 of the United Mine Workers of America, held in Clearfield yesterday, the conference adjourned without agreeing upon terms, and will meet again this morning. The district includes the counties of Clearfield, Cambria, Somerset, Bedford, Huntingdon, Jefferson, Cameron, Tiago and Clarion.

The miners submitted what represented the 1903 scale, and asked for 66 cents for pick mining with all differentials to remain the same, with an addition of 6 cents a ton for all coal under 5 feet and a further addition of 5 cents for coal under 3 feet and 6 inches, machine mining to call for a flat differential of 7 cents a ton. Among other demands was one for an eight-hour day at the mines, company to harness and unharness mules, drivers to be given clear road at quitting time or paid overtime, and that a check-off of 3 per cent on miners and 2 per cent on day men be made before any other reductions are made, check-off to apply to union and non-union men. The operators, after adjournment, issued the following statement:

> The scale proposed has no semblance to the scale of 1903 and if enforced would increase the price of coal to consumers, in the Central Pennsylvania fields, 17 cents a ton. Any increases that have been offered in any competitive field would not equal what the miners of this field have been getting during the past year. If the newly proposed scale should be enforced it would have the effect of closing every mine in this region or compel an absolute open-shop policy, which the operators are a unit in condemning.

The conference will be continued today.

PROMINENT PACKER DIES OF PNEUMONIA

E. C. Swift of the Well-Known Chicago Firm Passes Away at Boston.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, April 5.—E. C. Swift of Chicago, a member of the packing firm of Swift & Co., died early today at the Quincy house where he engaged rooms about two weeks ago. Pneumonia was the cause of death.

Mr. Swift was taken ill on March 27. He had come to this city from his country estate at Beverly Farms in order to be near his friend and business associate, N. E. Hollis of Boston, who was undergoing an operation. Mr. Swift grew rapidly worse and his daughter, Mrs. Clarence Moore of Chicago, was summoned. His physician, Dr. Johnson, also was called from Chicago, and watched by the sick man's bedside until he died, shortly after midnight. The crisis in the diseases was reached yesterday and alarming symptoms made their appearance. He became unconscious and remained in that condition until the end. Mr. Swift's wife was traveling in Europe when her husband was stricken and it is thought that she is now on her way to America.

Mr. Swift was a native of Sandwich, this state. He left home when but a lad and with his brother, Gustave, did much to develop the packing industry, one of the prominent features of his work being the perfecting of the system of refrigerator cars.

MINERS STILL LIVE.

Entombed for 25 Days, Those Rescued, Are Apparently in Good Physical Condition.

LENS, FRANCE, April 4.—The finding of 10 miners alive after 25 days' entombment caused intense excitement. The men were found in pit No. 4 of the Sallaumines vein. They were in good condition. As the news spread through the region it caused extreme exasperation against the engineers who have been directing the salvage work.

When the engineers came up from the Courrieres pits at noon today they were attacked by a crowd of women. They were rescued by a squadron of dragoons. The people are intensely excited. They believe that there are other men alive in the mine, and serious disorders are threatened.

In pursuance of Premier Sarriens' instructions, a judicial inquiry was begun this evening against the state engineers, who it is alleged took over the superintendence of the salve work from the companies' engineers. Should this examination establish a lack of celerity, neglect of duty or incapacity on the part of the state engineers, prosecution will ensue.

BOY OF 12 STEALS 17 CENTS AND IS IN JAIL

Seventeen cents on a card in a window of a store in Wilmerding was too much of a temptation for Michael McGuillogott, aged 12, who is now in jail charged with theft. The boy was passing a butter store in Wilmerding last night when he spied the money on a card in the window. The door was locked, but he wanted it, so broke the window and got the coins. He was arrested a little while later and lodged in jail. His case will be turned over to the juvenile court today.

Mrs. Roosevelt Starts for Home.

HAVANA, April 4.—Mrs. Roosevelt and her children, Ethel, Archie and Quentin, sailed today on board the government yacht Mayflower for the United States, having given up their intention to visit Porto Rico. The continued illness of President Palma caused a postponement of the cabinet meeting which was to have been held this afternoon. His illness is not regarded as serious.

Rigdway Makes Appointment.

Director Frank Ridgway yesterday appointed James Connelly as assistant fire chief in the first district, to succeed to the vacancy made by David Hunter, who retired March 1. Connelly has been acting as assistant chief since that time, and was formerly captain of No. 19 engine company.

CLARK MAY BE A SEAT-WARMER

There Is a Report That His Selection as Head of Public Works Is Temporary.

FIRST DEMOCRAT GETS IN

There seems to be some doubt about the length of time Director Clark is to remain at the head of the department of public works. According to a story in circulation yesterday he is keeping the place warm until the man Mayor Guthrie wants is available.

The Clark story is given some credence because of the source of its origin. It came from a man who is in close touch with the mayor. Clark has a warm supporter in James W. Brown, brother-in-law of the mayor, who would like to succeed Congressman Barchfeld. While the mayor has repeatedly denied that he intends using the city administration in politics, friends of Brown believe Guthrie wants to see his relative in congress. Clark is the one man in the cabinet who is a practical politician and he will be found in politics this fall. There is some talk about Brown going into the Republican primaries. If he should decide to do this, Clark will at least be sure of his job until the primaries are over.

The Democrats yesterday received their first plum from the Democratic city administration. Mayor Guthrie authorized Director Shaw of the department of charities to appoint M. F. Larkin, chairman of the Sixth ward Democratic committee, chief clerk of the charities department. This is the second time Larkin has been first. He was the first clerk discharged by the new county commissioners. He is not a relative of the city controller.

The city Republican committee will meet at headquarters Monday night to provide for holding the primaries for the election of county committeemen in the city, ward committeemen and the primary election boards for the city on the same date at which the state delegates are chosen. This will probably be May 26, the rate being determined finally by the county committee at its meeting Saturday. The ward committee elected at these primaries will in turn select the city committeemen at a meeting to be held the following Wednesday evening. On the second Friday evening after the election of the city committeemen they will convene to elect a city chairman and other officers. The men chosen do not have to be members of the committee.

R. H. Lindsay, secretary of the state League of Republican clubs, expects a big representation from the county at the annual convention to be held in Philadelphia in June. There will be delegates from at least 27 clubs.

STRIKING ICEMEN HOOT BUT DO NOT INTERFERE

Companies Are Having a Hard Time Delivering and Small Consumers Complain.

Probably scared by the temporary injunction granted by Judge Shafer Tuesday and by the police who protected the plants of several of the larger ice companies, the striking icemen were quiet yesterday. They confined their efforts to following the wagons and hooting at the inexperienced drivers as they made futile attempts to handle gracefully the 100-pound cakes.

The companies say they delivered ice as usual yesterday. They are having a hard time to get drivers, and in many instances have had to draft clerks and boys for the jobs. A number of the smaller restaurants and saloons are beginning to complain about the service, especially since the warm days of this week have boomed the iced beverages greatly.

Both the strikers and the Ice Dealers' league are awaiting with interest the decision of Judge Shafer on Friday afternoon in the injunction proceedings. They both declare they intend to remain firm.

John Hanley, a striker and a former driver for the Consolidated Ice Company, was fined $5 and costs or 10 days to jail at a hearing before Magistrate Kirby yesterday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. It was alleged he called one of the employes of the company a "scab," and swore at him.

Humane Society Elections.

Mrs. A. Starr Martin of Bellevue was elected a member of the Humane society yesterday. H. Lee Mason, Jr., was elected a vice president and Mrs. Ad. C. Groetzinger and Mrs. S. M. Hunnings, members of the board of managers. Edward Kenealy was appointed a special agent for Clairton, and James M. Stinson for Sewickley.

BEST SEATS IN SELECT TAKEN BY REPUBLICANS

Allotment Is Made by Committee—Administration Members Assigned to Rear.

Select council seats were allotted among the newly-elected and hold-over members yesterday by a special committee appointed for that purpose. The members of the committee were John Taylor, P. F. Toole and L. H. Frederick. Taylor was the only administration member of the committee, and he wrangled with the other two members for an hour over the distribution of the seats.

The 10 seats in the first row, except two, were given to Republicans who had supported the Republican organization of councils. The two exceptions were Lorenzo Hoffman of the Fifteenth ward, and John Howarth of the Thirty-second ward. They were given seats on the extreme left of the front row. The Republicans who will occupy the other eight seats in the front row, beginning at the right, are: J. A. McCarthy, Thirty-fifth ward; Charles Cavett, Thirty-sixth; Charles Stewart, Sixteenth; W. H. Weber, Twenty-ninth; L. H. Frederick, Twenty-seventh; Max Friedman, Seventh; Charles Zollinger, Thirty-seventh.

The entire lot of seats were bisected diagonally from the left to right, the administration members being placed on the left and in the rear of the Republicans in the front and on the right.

The arrangement of seats puts two administration members in the front row, four in the second row, six in the third row and seven in the fourth row. Dr. H. B. Burns was given his old seat in the third row and John Taylor was allotted the seat alongside Dr. Burns, which was formerly occupied by Dr. Walters. W. H. Stevenson was placed on the other side of Dr. Burns.

D. J. McGarey was given a seat in the second row because it was said his hearing was defective, although Taylor objected to this, insisting that McGarey, being a new member, should be relegated to the rear. Taylor also fought for more places for the administration members in the front row, but the other two members of the committee stood pat.

ASHLEY TO BE FORECASTER.

Was Formerly Stationed Here and Recommended by Director Ridgway.

The resignation of Frank Ridgway, who has been appointed director of public safety, has been received and accepted by the weather bureau in Washington, and his successor has been named. He is Alexander Ashley, who will take charge of the local office about May 1. Ashley is now stationed at Honolulu, but was formerly the assistant here. He is said by Chief Moore to be well informed on the river situation and for that reason especially qualified to take care of the Pittsburgh interests.

Ridgway recommended that Ashley be transferred to Pittsburgh. He is a brother of Attorney Charles W. Ashley.

WALKS TO HOSPITAL AFTER FIRING BULLET INTO HEAD

Alexander Cousins, 240 Jones avenue, shot himself through the head at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, and then walked to the West Penn hospital and asked for treatment. Though Cousins became unconscious immediately after telling his story, the physicians believe there is a possibility of his recovery. Failure to secure promotion in the offices of the Union lines, where he has been employed, is given as the cause of the attempted suicide. Cousins is 45 years of age and single.

ROBERT IS GETTING EVEN FOR BEING THROWN OUT

James and Susie Gleeves of the First ward, Allegheny, were committed to jail yesterday by Alderman Lynch, the former on charges of illegal liquor selling and assault and battery, and the latter for illegal liquor selling. The informations are made by Robert Aller, also of the First ward. He alleges the defendants run a speakeasy; that he purchased liquor from both of them and that the man beat him and kicked him out of the place.

Threaten Priest With Bodily Harm.

The Rev. Michael Tusek of St. Nicholas' Roman Catholic church, Millvale, who was acquitted of the charge of pointing firearms at the organist by Alderman Jacob Hartman yesterday, came near getting a sound beating right in the alderman's office after the hearing. "He is a bad man and a bad priest," said Janitor Joseph Ladisic as he, with other enemies of the priest, crowded around him endeavoring to make the weight of their fists felt on the priest's body. Father Tusek had no friends present and it was with difficulty that the alderman got him safely out of the office.

Child is Victim of Misfortune.

Misfortune seems to be the fate of John, a two-year-old son of Thomas McCormick, 2 Greenleaf street, Duquesne heights. Four weeks ago the physician put six stitches in the boy's head on account of injuries received by a fall over a 200-foot embankment. Two weeks ago he rolled down a flight of 100 steps and was picked up stunned and bruised. Last Sunday his brother Joseph, aged four years, accidentally chopped a finger from the unlucky boy's right hand. Tuesday the child fell from a high porch and sustained serious bruises.

DEATH FOLLOWS WARM CAMPAIGN

Former Councilman William B. Wolfe Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia.

CLOSE OF AN ACTIVE CAREER

William Barnett Wolfe, one of the best-known business men and politicians of this city, died at his home, Forbes street and Morewood avenue, at 9:15 o'clock last night. On Tuesday, March 27, he was stricken with pneumonia contracted during the campaign for mayor. Two days ago his family saw the end was approaching and his death was not unexpected.

Mr. Wolfe was born on the South Side in 1856. He began his education in the public schools on that side of the river and later entered Princeton university, a member of the class of 1878. During his college course he received an injury to his right knee, and leaving college before his graduation began to study medicine. After studying medicine for a time, he decided not to take up its profession, and entered the firm of Wolfe, Walker & Co., brush manufacturers, in Wood street, the firm afterward becoming the Wolfe Brush Company. He was the son of Dr. B. A. Wolfe and Elizabeth Blackmore Wolfe, his mother being a sister of ex-Mayor James Blackmore of Pittsburgh. His father, after practicing medicine on the South Side for many years, died in 1875. Mr. Wolfe was one of the most charitable men in Pittsburgh. His charities were not ostentatious, but there are many people who will mourn his death.

Mr. Wolfe was a member of Pittsburgh common council from the Twenty-second ward from 1902 to 1904. He was elected on the Citizens party ticket and maintained an independent attitude while in councils, being affiliated with the band of 14 orphan members. He was defeated for re-election to common council by John F. Steele, now city treasurer, and was a candidate last February for select council, being defeated by William Metcalf, Jr. Mr. Wolfe was vice president of the Western Insurance Company, president of the Lang Broom Company, a director in the Baird Machine Company, and a director of Passavant hospital. He took a great interest in the latter institution, and it was owing to his efforts that its debt was paid off. He is survived by his widow, one son and two daughters, William B., Louisa and Emily, besides one brother and two sisters, Charles A. Wolf, Mrs. Laura Watt and Mrs. W. P. Cockrill of this city. Arrangements for the funeral will be completed today.

TOUCHES TWO HOTEL MEN ON SHORT ACQUAINTANCE

Man Discovered by Newspaper Ho Claimed to Represent Gets $112.50 on Checks.

Fred. C. Ambrose, secretary of the Pittsburgh Hotel and Restaurant Keepers' association, would like to know the whereabouts of one C. H. Butler, who got $112 50 from two Pittsburgh hotels with alleged bogus checks.

The hotel men victimized are George Schmitt of the Nixon restaurant, and F. C. Smith of the Hotel Colonial. The Fort Pitt hotel was done out of a night's lodging.

Butler registered at the Fort Pitt early Monday evening, engaged a room, but did not go to it. About 6 p. m. he appeared at the Nixon restaurant with a man whom George Schmitt, the proprietor, has known for 20 years, and was introduced to Schmitt. Schmitt cashed a check for $62 50 for Butler. Shortly after or before this Butler was introduced at the Hotel Colonial by Schmitt's friend, also known to Manager Klooz. The Colonial cashed a $50 check for Butler. It was learned by telegraph from the Annapolis bank on which the checks were drawn that Butler has no account, and the New York newspaper wires he is not known there.

Mother and Son Badly Burned.

Dr. Guy Gamble was seriously burned about the feet and hands, and his mother received severe burns on her hands while extinguishing a fire in their home, 829 Huey street, McKeesport, early yesterday morning. The fire originated from a small gas stove placed too near some drying clothing. The damage to the house is about $200.

Street Car Fender Saves Boy.

Eight-year-old Orville Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brady, 4920 Penn avenue, was picked up by the fender of a West Wilkinsburg street car, near Penn and Friendship avenues, yesterday, and carried 30 feet before the car could be stopped. The child was badly frightened, but otherwise unhurt.

Trouble Leads to Disorderly Charge.

As the result of trouble at the congregational meeting of the Mt. Rise Colored Baptist church, West Homestead borough, Tuesday night, Miss Maggie Burgwin appeared before Justice of the Peace G. W. Giles, Munhall, yesterday, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Miss Sarah Dillon, charging her with disorderly conduct.

Thursday, April 5, 1906.

There is one thing to be said about the vacation of Church alley, between Federal and Anderson streets, for railroad uses. It should not be done without compensation equal, at least, to the value of that much private property abutting. As a thoroughfare this way may not be very valuable. As real estate, however, it is worth as much as the immediately adjoining property.

Mayor Guthrie's address to the Washington conference yesterday was a timely greeting. Pittsburgh is apt to note it has a chief executive who is capable of extending a dignified welcome to visiting delegations and public bodies that may choose this city as a place of meeting. This is one of the functions of the office and Mr. Guthrie performs it acceptably.

Pittsburgh will be represented at the Republican party semi-centennial in Philadelphia next June, of course. The first mass convention of the party was held here, in old Lafayette hall, February, 1856. It adjourned to Philadelphia June 6, 7, 8, where John C. Fremont was nominated for president. Thus a great party was born, founded on imperishable principles, and its semi-centennial will be a time for renewal of party enthusiasm.

Francis L. Robbins, in his final address before the joint conference at Indianapolis, rather anticipated the Chicago Tribune correspondent in indicating the probability of an attempted public seizure of coal mines. He did not say the President had proposed to use the army for such a purpose, but he did say he preferred paying an advance in wages to having an agitation started for government interference with coal mines.

In the postoffice bill now under consideration in the house of representatives is a provision for pneumatic tube service in Pittsburgh. It ought to pass. There is great usefulness for the tube service here, even granting the early establishment of a new postoffice. Tube service to Allegheny, the South Side and the East End would help greatly in expediting the mails. Sufficient appropriation is not now attainable, but a good beginning is half of any achievement.

Pennsylvania has reason to be proud of its capital, soon to be dedicated, because it is a fine edifice, admirably suited to its purpose, erected within the appropriation. For this latter most creditable feature the state is under large obligation to Gov. Pennypacker. Though not charged directly with responsibility in this matter, the governor has deemed it a duty of his office to see the capitol work has been done right. The previous appropriation for a legislative building, alone, should not have been made, though that fact does not justify the commission for having made it part of a future edifice.

In another column appears a communication from a correspondent who appeals against race hatred, run to physical violence. What he says is worth noting. He cites one instance. There are many other matters that parents appear to neglect. Children should be instructed to be merciful and considerate, to avoid even possible injuries to others. Once we called attention to a practice of young boys throwing stones at trains, ignorant of the injury that might be done, because the velocity of the train is greater than that of the missile. It is worth while for parents to give their children instruction in things not always taught in the schools.

Supt. G. W. Moore of the bureau of health is determined that physicians shall obey the law and make prompt report of contagious cases coming under their care. Daily reports are imperative if the true condition of the city's health is to be shown. One result of failure to report promptly was illustrated yesterday when 64 cases of typhoid were recorded at the bureau. But a small proportion of these were new cases, the others being contained in tardy reports. These figures, if published abroad, would convey an entirely erroneous idea of health conditions in Pittsburgh. The only danger under the new law is that reports of contagion will be made before proper diagnosis, for cases that will not develop.

Director Ridway's order to the inspector of explosives to take action against all persons violating the ordinance governing the use and storage of explosives within the city limits is wholly commendable. A recent fatality, the victim, a water carrier, will readily be recalled. Contractors engaged in blasting are prone to be careless, and a sharp corrective by the authorities will be beneficial. Moreover, the storage and transportation of explosives needs to be carefully regulated.

A School Problem.

Much public interest will follow the efforts of Supt. Morrow and the Allegheny school controllers to keep the "slow" pupils up to grade. Every school teacher and director knows the annoyance of having a class held back because a few cannot go faster, or of being compelled to drop the slowest into other classes. Many persons have given this matter thought, but it is probable the Moravia method is the best yet devised for assisting the slower students.

Of course the ideal in school work would be practicably each pupil in a class by himself. That is impossible. The next best thing is to keep the less apt as nearly as may be to the speed of the most apt pupils. This is the problem that is being considered in Allegheny. It is notable that home study enters as a large factor in the inequality reported. This is a modern development. Years ago "home study" was a negligible quality. Study and recitation were confined to the school room. The Moravia method avails itself of the old principle by having study in a special room, with a special teacher to help over the educational "riffles."

Allegheny schools are well forward in the front rank of public schools. The present discussion indicates the reason for their success. The board of control and the superintendent are always earnestly seeking the best methods.

Socialism.

From time to time The Gazette receives communications asking for "information" on the subject of socialism. On almost every occasion when the cult is mentioned in our columns there comes such a letter. Innocently as they are worded, usually, the obvious purpose is to start a controversy. One came the other day, frank enough to ask why we do not open a department "for the discussion of such questions."

To this inquiry the answer is easy. The discussion would be interminable and profitless. Our correspondent avers he is "seeking information." We will not contradict him. There are many others, however, who are seeking confirmation of the theories they have adopted and opportunity to exhibit their own doctrines. It would be waste of time to combat any particular socialist dogma, for there is no unity among devotees of the perverted theory of the brotherhood of man. They range from mild insistence upon the principle of the Golden Rule, to the verge of violent interference with all established order. Their apostles are as widely variant as Edward Bellamy, Karl Marx and the blood-stained leaders of the Paris commune.

For the average man it is enough to know that socialism has never found favor among men who have, by their own exertions, achieved conspicuous success. It has never been the doctrine of those who have given to the world great discoveries, great inventions, or great deeds. It is in high favor with the indolent who conceive it to be a means to the enjoyment of the fruits of the efforts of others—with those who interpret the Golden Rule to mean: "Have others do unto you that you would do to them if you had the substance."

This country has no room for socialism beyond that mild type which advocates the real Golden Rule to govern the conduct of men. It is a land of opportunity, a great fallow field for individual and collective effort. In it there is reward for every mortal who is willing to make himself useful, who is willing to work and to think, who will expend his energies in the work of creation instead of spending them in the effort to destroy that which has been created by others.

French Trade Relations.

The review of our trade with France, compiled jointly by Consul-General Mason of Paris, and Consul Skinner of Marseilles, develops many interesting facts. While the exports of the United States fell off $13,617,360 in 1904, nearly the whole of that amount was confined to raw cotton, yet we gained some important advances in other lines, while the cotton and other products we failed to sell to France were taken up by other countries at good prices. Our most marked increases were scored in machinery, footing up an advance of over $1,000,000 compared with 1903, and sales of copper were enhanced by more than $4,000,000. These are encouraging features, notwithstanding the balance of trade remains largely with France. In 1904 we bought $90,617,360 worth from her and only sold $48,995,559.

There are, however, products peculiar to France that we could not well purchase elsewhere, articles that go to the adornment of American women. This is seen in the one item of manufactured silk of which we imported in 1904 values amounting to $12,089,906, about one-fourth of our total purchases from that country. Of millinery we bought over $1,000,000 worth. Our wine purchases are very low, considering that the imported article is so widely exploited in this country. The official figures show that we bought but $1,637,926 worth.

The United States can well afford to rejoice in the prosperity of France, because its most rapid strides have been made under a republican form of government. And while it is true that trade relations between the two nations are pronounced of a satisfactory character, nevertheless American goods entering French markets are discriminated against and placed at great disadvantage by being taxed at the very highest rate of duty.

Rapid-Fire Immigration.

On Tuesday a private citizen of New York who is interested in the immigration question devoted a few hours to visiting Ellis island, where aliens are examined before admission to this country. In the record-breaking time of less than five hours he witnessed the examination of 5,100 immigrants by 21 inspectors. Before leaving the port of embarkation steamship companies ask the alien a list of 22 questions pertaining to his financial, moral, physical and mental condition. Favorable answers are invariably returned to these questions, as the result of careful preliminary coaching. These questions and the answers returned in each individual are in the hands of the inspectors, but at the rate of speed which prevails in the admission department at Ellis island on busy days, there is no time for the inspectors to ascertain whether the questions have been correctly answered or to supplement these formal inquiries by independent investigations of his own.

Some particularly undesirable looking persons were admitted after an examination that consumed exactly 45 seconds. Replying to an inquiry, the inspectors stated they had just so much time in which to dispose of the immigrants who had arrived on a particular steamer and it was necessary to "keep things moving." A visit to Ellis island on one of these busy days would impress any thoughtful citizen with the necessity for new legislation to restrict immigration. Present laws are not only entirely inadequate, but apparently are enforced in a merely perfunctory manner. A conscientious enforcement would mitigate some of the present evils of the tide of immigration, for example, holding the immigrant-laden steamers while each person is carefully investigated.

A Money-Saving Movement.

It is somewhat surprising to find women organizing a league for the purpose of encouraging economy in feminine dress, but women delegates from the European society which has branches in several countries have just arrived at New York to found a chapter in the United States. The "league for restraining extravagance in apparel," as the name reads in free translation, was founded in Sweden some three years ago, and receiving royal sanction and support is now working in Great Britain, Germany and Austria. It has met with little encouragement in France, where so many fashions are born. The primary object of the league, which will find few friends among dressmakers and milliners, is not so much to induce its members to cease buying expensive materials, as to oppose those frequent and alleged unnecessary changes in fashion which cause the discarding of finery long before it is worn out.

One is reminded of Queen Elizabeth's proclamation against "excess of apparel, gold chains and cloaks, the latter made so long that they reach down to the heels," and the earlier proclamation declaring that "a ridiculous custom having long prevailed of wearing shoes with toes of enormous length, for the future the beaks or toes of shoes shall not exceed two inches in length, on the penalty of the wearer being excommunicated and paying a fine of 20 shillings, to be equally divided between the king, the chamberlain and the company of Cordwainers." Rebellion against the so-called tyranny of fashion is generally too feeble-hearted to make much progress. The American woman is accused of spending more money on her clothes than do her sisters of other nations, but that she spends more in proportion to her income has never been demonstrated. There is need, however, for a return toward the simple life from the vainglorious extravagance of recent years.

The World's a Stage and We the Players

Gossip of Men and Things on Both Sides of the Asbestos Curtain.

By Charles M. Bregg.

The worm has turned.

Whether justly or not the theatrical publicity promoter from whom the following letter has been received assumes that several references in this column have unfairly stated the work and character of that department of public amusements. I shall not attempt explanations, but will give my correspondent ample opportunity to state his grievance. He writes: "Your roast of the press agent is defective. You are making comparisons and drawing conclusions within the profession itself. I believe as a whole that the theatrical press agents is far more accurate, much more industrious and a lot more serviceable than the seller of any other commodity. Take the salesmen in any other walk of life or any other business,and you won't, man for man, find the same courteous attention, the same desire to please and the same respect for your interests as the press agent displays."

My correspondent is speaking, I suppose, altogether as to the relations between the press agent and the representatives of the newspaper to whom he wants to sell or give away his wares—publicity news.

* * *

There is truth and reason in this defense. As a class, the men who trade in newspaper publicity are many degrees superior to the average salesmen of other commodities. He doesn't carry around a sign: "We strive to please," but he does more striving in this direction than nine out of ten people who sell you goods of all kinds under the shadow of that illuminated motto. A recent personal experience of wholly prosaic kind illustrates this point admirably, and I add it here to further strengthen the mild "roast" my correspondent gives me. Necessity in my wardrobe recently demanded the acquisition of a pair of shoes. Pittsburgh is abundantly stocked with shoe shops, and the process of filling my needs seemed of the easiest and simplest kind. I had only to go inside a shoe store, say I wanted a pair of shoes, intimating that I had sufficient money to pay for them, and the thing was done.

That was before I knew the ways of some salesmen other than those who peddle stage stories and theatrical reading matter.

* * *

In the present instance a green, raw looking boy was sent to me, though two stalwart young men with their hair parted in the middle were dawdling in the rear of the well furnished shoe "parlor." A few minutes conversation with the boy convinced him, seemingly, that I wanted shoes and not a rubber hose or cigarets. Then began an aimless search, several consultations with the aforesaid idle young men, and the rather discordant whistling of a few bars from a popular song. Results, about ten boxes of shoes of various sizes, styles and prices dumped at my feet, one of which, by the way, I had kindly disrobed down to the sock. Then ensued a rapid-fire conversation, mostly on my part, which ended in the emphatic request that a salesman who knew something about the stock be sent me.

My now thoroughly-bored clerk repaired to the rear of the room and after an animated conversation returned to the attack with the assurance that he would try again.

* * *

But patience had ceased to be a virtue, and donning my footgear I departed a wiser but madder man. If any promoter of publicity or any firm dealing in that commodity should display the stupidity of that shoe clerk and the indifference of that shoe firm, it would be driven out of business in short order. This is not intended as an essay on the inefficiency of salesmen as a class, for there are good and bad eggs in every crate, but it illustrates my offended press agent's defense of his tribe, and I am willing to come to his own broader view and say that, in contrast, my dealings with press agents and with shoe clerks, the advantage is so much on the former's side that to name them in the same breath is a reflection on the press agent.

Every man in every calling must be judged by the individual earnestness, efficiency and industry he brings to the discharge of his duties. The shoe store in question represents a standard of efficiency that ranks pretty near the bottom; but there are other shoe stores. The press agent is a useful factor, that usefulness to be determined by his individual honesty, intelligence and capability.

* * *

The entire subject is an interesting one, and affects more or less the personal comfort and welfare of mankind under present forms of organized society. The man or woman employed in serving the public in any capacity must be guided in his or her estimate of himself or herself solely by the efficiency they bring to their work. This is one of the dangers of what we call "going out to service." "I am better than the other fellow or as good as the best," is the slogan of what we free Americans call our independence. When a man is working for his living in any public way, depending for his existence upon the salary he draws, he is little short of a fool to arrogate the proud prerogative of allowing his personal whims and tastes to set the standard of his conduct. To do well the thing he has in hand is the sole guide line for him. The supercilious clerk in a store, the offensive and impudent street car conductor, the rough and brutal police officer, the impudent dray driver, the familiar and pert telephone girl, are all examples in the less exacting professions of this tendency to hide inefficiency behind the cloak of "a job."

It is the individual littleness shielded by the corporate and employing greatness.

* * *

We may all have been, according to the charter of our liberties, born free and equal, but we have by the display of utter lack of personal adaptability mixed things up woefully. The man who sweeps the streets carefully, conscientously, putting his manhood and individual conception of duty into his work, has slipped past the dawdling, supercilious clerk or public servant who serves his own whim rather than the public. The street sweeper may not part his hair in the middle, or assume ownership of the streets he sweeps, but he is a man and worthy the respect of those whom he serves. Those of us who are not rich have a habit of charging the more prosperous than ourselves with arrogancy, and exclaiming roundly on all occasions that we are as "good as any man." That depends. If we treat our several duties in life like those shoe clerks treated an honest trader we are not even as good as the humblest "white wing" who may do his work well and do it with respectful reference to the comfort and welfare of those for whom it is done.

Everybody in this world, except a few drones and parasites, is serving everybody else in some capacity. The highest standard by which we can be judged is the moral, physical and mental standard we set for ourselves in the performance of whatever service engages our time and earns us a livelihood.

* * *

This digression from the question in hand and the usual gossip of this column may seem like impertinence, but it is really germane to the subject. The stage of the world like the stage of the theater has many sorts of players. For the one as much as for the other doing the thing well that one assumes to be doing is the prime object of living. The player on the stage of the theater has his critics who oftimes help him to a better understanding of his part. We players on the stage of the world do not always enjoy this educative privilege, and sometimes when a critic assails us we fight back on the principle that our rights have been invaded. That may often be true, but no man has any rights if he is persistently and offensively failing to do his best in whatever calling he may be found.

The press agent, to go back to our starting point, has rights and is to be respected and commended equally with the President of the United States in the discharge of the public duties of that office, but only within the limits of the most efficient and honest performance of his duties as he sees and comprehends them.

But when the press agent or the president steps aside to indulge personal prejudices that destroy their efficiency as public servants, they both alike invite criticism and condemnation. Serve the public in the way that will best advance the public good is the standard that is highest.

Some Palatable Breakfast Food Served Hot

By PETER PRY SHEVLIN.

The Springtime Storm.

Breath of roses yet unborn,
Sighing in the air;
Glow that ushered in the morn
Golden everywhere.
Love a-lilted, honeyed, sweet;
Mart and mill and city street,
Happy hearts and hasty feet
Keep the cadence rare.

Hush! the symbol of the skies—
Joy's a thing for fools;
See the dust a-dancing rise
Golden molecules!
Red the sun—a signal light;
Dun clouds marshalling in might,
Read the moral, all, aright,
At the raindrop jewels!

Nature dark and drear is Love;
Sun is not the charm;
Dark clouds must array above,
Threaten, then disarm;
Rain that 'broiders faery gown
All for nature bare and brown,
Ere a summer sun can frown
Scorching harm!

Tersely Expressed.

Striker	The miner.
Strikee	The operator.
Stricken	Industries.
Struck and swatted	The consumer.

Peter Pry's Philosophy.

Merit is the banana peel that gives pride many a hard fall.

Some men think they have reformed their characters when they have merely renovated them.

Here's the alchemy of optimism: When the worst comes to the worst, make the best of it.

Ingratitude is hard to bear, but it does not do nearly as much harm as foolish and insincere praise.

Some men are so crooked on earth that they must die, regretting that they will be unable to personally cheat the undertaker, gravedigger and tombstone maker.

Spring Signs.

Little sprouts a-growing,
Baseball's now the game;
Lead us into knowing—
Spring's came!

Another Point Against Trusts.

"You seem to be very bitter against the trusts," remarked the man with shaggy, socialistic whiskers.

"I should say I am," snapped the citizen with the protuberent brisket.

"Because they rob the people, I suppose?"

"No, because I've discovered that they do far worse than that! They cause the people to rob themselves to the tune of $20,000,000 weekly."

"Gracious! How do you make that out?"

"You know that the trusts have been a continual source of empty discussion for years. There are over 80,000,000 persons in the United States and a slight estimate is that each person spends at least an hour every week inveighing against trusts."

"Yes?"

"Well, that works up into the great average of 10,000,000 working days expended every week at this useless labor. Figuring at $2 a day, the common people spend $20,000,000 weekly in this useless effort—or $1,040,000,000 yearly—for time is money!"

Quick Temper's Best.

Blinker—A man should be very slow to anger.

Clinker—Indeed? Well, how about the man who is insulted by an overbearing superior and never says a word, but waits until he can vent his anger on some luckless man under him.

We're Getting Wise.

In Zion 'Lijah Dowie
Has been deposed, we hear,
Like other frenzied financiers
No longer can be "steer."
Which proves the crop of suckers
Grows scarcer every year;

Spring Cleaning of the Heart.

In town street and those suburban
Note the windows opened wide;
Housewives in a dishrag turban
Pail and mop and broom beside
Chasing out the bad bacilli;
As the spring housecleanings start
Here's a moral that's not silly;
Man, clean out thy heart!

Nature sweetens shrines this season
O'er the world in every clime,
And we know for that same reason
That it's now housecleaning time!
Windows of the soul, O mortals,
Ope for sunshine's honest art,
Forcing sorrows o'er the portals;
Man, clean out thy heart!

Natural Gas.

Now we turn from the carpet beater to the baseball bat.

Seem to be April showers of political plums to Guthrie men.

The water wagon is still popular, but only for dampening down our dusty streets.

New city administration promises to be "clean" in one respect, for it has put the street cleaning department on the hustle.

Somerset judge forbids the cry of "scab" in the coal strike; but the unruly element will start breaking heads without that help.

What's Your Favorite Purp.

We're having dog days now, instead of in August, because the dog show opened up in Duquesne Garden yesterday and out in the woodlands we can hear the bark of the dogwood tree whenever a catbird alights on its branches. There is a kind of dog for every profession and sphere of life, so take your choice from this list:

For ring followers	Pugs
For tobacco chewers	Spitz dogs
For chicken raisers	Setters
For balloonists	Skye terriers
For humorists	Pointers
For stock brokers	Water dogs
For the religious	St. Bernards
For gourmands	Chow-chow
For our army and navy	Whippet
For colored people	Black and tan
For sausage makers	Dachshunds
For bachelors	Staghounds
For anarchists	Mad dogs
For knockers	The biting kinds
For "Hamlet" tragedians	The Great Dane

Quiet Observations on Timely Topics

Can You Hark Back to William Henry Harrison's Time?

By ERASMUS WILSON.

"Death! Death in the White House!
Ah! never before trod the skeleton it's floor.
He is looked for in hovel, and dreaded in hall,
The King in his closet keeps hatchment and pall."

Are these lines given correctly, and who can furnish the entire poem? It was written on the death of President Harrison, the first incumbent to die in the White House. It was printed in some of the school books a good while ago, so that it is possible that some of our readers have a copy of it.

The above lines were given from memory by one who learned the poem "by heart" when he was a school boy.

* * *

"I am sitting at my window,
Gazing on the autumn leaves;
Some are dead, and others dying—
Tumbling, falling, in the breeze."

Who will furnish the poem to which that stanza belongs. It, too, is from memory, and may not be word for word with the original, but it is near enough correct to enable you to recognize it if you have it, or have ever known it.

You may never have thought of it, but a poem that is committed to memory by you is likely to be commited by others, for you are not the only one in your class, nor the only one capable of seeing the peculiar beauties in any particular thing.

Many of us have doubles in mind and heart more striking than in body.

* * *

There is not nearly as much "getting by heart" now as in years past when books were not nearly so plently, nor not nearly as many things to distract the mind and engage the affections of the heart.

How many good poems can you repeat "off hand," or how many ballads do you know, or how many wise and worthy sayings have you at your tongue's end?

In all probability your grandparents, or your parents, can quote more Scripture, more poetry, and know more of ancient history than you with all your modern education.

There isn't much heart, nor much sentiment in modern education. Schools are graded now, and each grade has all it can possible hold of work, and very hard work for some, and with no pleasure for others.

Altogether there is hardly more pleasure and real enjoyment in attending school in fine modern buildings than in the old log or little red school house.

* * *

Some say that they know of a truth that people cannot, or do not, spell as well as before the war.

The old time speller learned each spelling lesson by heart, the same as rules of grammar and arithmetic, while pupils of the present day write theirs. This makes quite a difference in final results.

On account of rules of spelling being as arbitrary, and so irregular, it is very difficult to so learn them that they can be applied properly and promptly. Rules of grammar are far easier learned, and more readily applied.

Even the French poke fun at our irrational spelling. Theirs appears equally funny, awfully funny, to us. But their vowels are so marked that wherever one occurs you know whether it is soft or strong, long or short, thus enabling you to give to each letter its correct value.

* * *

It isn't reasonable to continue the irrational style of spelling now in vogue, nor will it be profitable to do so, at least not more so than it would have been to continue the old English, or middle English styles.

One of the evidences that spelling will be reformed sooner or later is the fact that references are attracting more serious attention year by year as times goes on.

You may be able to recall the old-time phonetic reformer who flourished before the war along with the phrenologist and mind-reader. He was usually the laughing stock of the schools where he lectured, or attempted to teach his new order of things.

His plans were impractical, but year by year reformers have appeared who have proposed to reform his reforms, so that now we seem to be arriving at something practical, something popular, something really worth while.

* * *

Dr. Wineship, editor of the Journal of Education, mingles with more practical educators than any other man in the country, has this to say on the subject in the last issue of his journal:

"Reformed spelling has passed away. Just when and where is not known except to its friends, but in private they have held the burial service, and announce a memorial of $150,000 by Mr. Carnegie, who names the monument "simplified" spelling. It is well. The reform by the new name will smell the sweeter.

"Seriously, this is a great advance in the movement—not the new name—but the $15,000 a year for 10 years. Every one must rejoice in such a sum of money to be expended in salaries of worthy men and women. It is a new industry open primarily to educators. There are no worthier men and women than those who are devoted to this filosofy biznes. Since the close of the first half of the last century many of the ablest scholars of England and America have been devoted to this cause, and so long as the English language is written there will be a noble band of men and women interested in this cause with its ever-shifting designations. So there will always be a few intense opponents of this slaughter of innocent but worthy words.

"Opposition is folly, whatever may be said of the simplifiers, who are honest, scholarly, devoted men and women. Now they have adequate money for the employment of experts to influence the public, and their work, good or bad, will go on. Now that they have money enough they do not need sympathy. They will be, more or less, ridiculed, and in this they rejoice, for nothing promotes reform so surely as ridicule. Both sides will enjoy it, and the simplifiers will profit by it. Let the fun proceed."

CASUAL GLIMPSES AROUND THE CITY

Glass Men Will Reconvene.

Arrangements were made by a committee at the Fort Pitt hotel last night to have the independent window glass manufacturers of the country reconvene at that hotel on April 19 to finish business left uncompleted at last week's conference in this city. At the last meeting a general increase in the price of window glass, ranging about 10 per cent, was decided upon, and the United States Window Glass Company, the million-dollar selling agency, was assured of solid support by the 75 independents present. The second conference will officially put these matters on record, and will be attended by manufacturers representing 18,000 pots. H. S. Hilton of Fort Allegheny is the president.

Temporary Change in Wheeling Route.

Because of extensive repairs being made along the Panhandle railroad route to Wheeling, for the next few days trains to the West Virginia town will go over the Panhandle to Mingo Junction, thence over the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division to Martins Ferry, opposite Wheeling, and over the Wabash railroad bridge into that city. Ordinarily the route is to Wheeling Junction and direct to Wheeling itself. This amended route will only be used for a few days.

* * *

Lobby Chatter.

The Allegheny Laundrymen's association held a meeting at the Hotel Henry last night with 25 members present. The meeting terminated with a luncheon.

S. W. Heath, vice president of the bank of Kershaw and president of the Excelsior Granite Company of Heath Springs, S. C., and A. B. Rox of Ironton, O., a Pennsylvania railroad official, are at the Henry.

Coal Situation Affects Trade.

"You would be surprised at the far-reaching effect the coal mixup has had on the routes of traveling men," said J. B. Smith, who represents one of the largest lumber companies in the world, at the Duquesne last night. "Everywhere in the bituminous region and in the radius affected by its business conditions drummers have been facing absolute lack of orders in every line. Merchants and wholesalers absolutely refuse to add to their stock and thereby face the possibility of being 'stuck.' Consequently, Pittsburgh is having twice its share of traveling men at the present time, business-getters who have changed their route from the unprofitable anthracite region to the more hopeful outlook in the bituminous section. Therefore, we are helping to fill your increasing number of hotels, and the competition for business is strenuous. Drummers are snooping around here waiting hopefully for a business chance in the east, if the situatio nthere clears up within the next 10 days."

Dental Convention Closes.

The Odontological society of Western Pennsylvania concluded its two days' meeting in this city with a final session at the Annex hotel last night. The society numbers 168 members, drawn from Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania towns and arrangements were made yesterday for the admittance of more than 20 new members. The closing program consisted of the following three papers by specialists, which were later discussed by association members: "The Color Problem in Dentistry," Dr. P. Q. Bryam, Indianapolis, later discussed by Doctors H. W. Arthur and W. L. Fickes; "X-Ray in Dentistry," (demonstrated by skiographs and lantern slides), Dr. Mihran K. Kassabian, Philadelphia; discussions by Doctors Russell H. Boggs and O. L. Hertig; "Practical Cement Information," Dr. W. V. B. Ames, Chicago; discussions by Doctors H. E. Friesell and M. S. Burns.

Youthful Brutality.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

There is a great evil among our American children, which should be checked in time, or else it will grow out as a great blot on the character of the American people. I refer to the Jew-baiting and abusing so commonly practiced by our school children, who, seeing no one admonishes them for it, think it is not wrong. While returning to Pittsburgh lately, from a lecture, I was surprised to see a crowd of youngsters attacking an old, helpless Jew with stones, and even when his face was already bleeding, they still continued their cowardly attack, and probably would have killed him, if it had not been for the interference of my companion and me. It would not have surprised me so much had they been small boys; but to see among them youths of about 18 and 19 years of age was more than I ever expected. The shame of it!

I appeal to every American parent to eradicate this brutal tendency from the heart of their children. Teach them th brotherhood of men and you will there prevent our next generation from gro ing up with brutal feelings, a la Russ ormer County Tax Collector Seeks Superintendency of Highways and Sewers.

MATTERN AFTER A $4,000 JOB

OTHER CANDIDATES IN FIELD

Robert G. Mattern, formerly county delinquent tax collector, is an applicant for the position of superintendent of the bureau of highways and sewers, which pays a salary of $4,000 a year. Mr. Mattern called upon Director Clark yesterday afternoon to press his candidacy. He was formerly a resident of the Twentieth ward, in which Director Clark now resides, but now lives in the Twenty-second ward.

The new administration will be called upon soon to settle the uncertainty regarding the bureau appointments in the public works department. The present uncertainty is demoralizing the service and preventing much work being done. The bureau chiefs and their subordinates are all in a state of anxiety. Each of the bureau superintendents has called upon Director Clark to learn his fate, but to each one the director has said he did not know what would take place, requesting him to continue with his work for the present.

John E. Gable, who was defeated for city clerk and assistant city clerk, is a candidate for the position of superintendent of light in Director Clark's department. In the fight for the control of councils Clark put Gable forward as the administration candidate for both clerkships, and failing to be elected, Gable's friends claim Clark should take care of him. The position of superintendent of light pays $1,800 a year, but there is comparatively little work attached to it. A few years ago, when a change occurred in the administration, the place was left vacant, the duties being performed by a clerk.

George Walsh, a paymaster in Controller Larkin's office, is a candidate for superintendent of the bureau of city property, now held by John A. Long. The fuss the controller has stirred up over the market leases is expected to work to the detriment of Long and may help Walsh.

It is reported that the position of director of public works was offered to Emil Swensson, the engineer, but Mr. Swensson could not afford to surrender his private business to accept an appointment paying $5,000 a year. It is stated that Mr. Swensson informed Mayor Guthrie that the diagrams showing the location of the water pipes, sewers and other conduits at the city hall were incomplete. One of the first things to be done by the public works department will be to correct the maps of all pipes, conduits and sewers.

Director Clark has the appointment of 14 water assessors. They are to be employed during April and May and receive $3 a day. So far these selections have been made: John L. Donaldson, Thirteenth ward; Harry Peterson, Thirty-sixth ward; P. B. Williams, Nineteenth ward; J. A. Taylor, Nineteenth ward; B. H. Shyrock, Seventh ward; Robert M. Watt, Twentieth ward; Robert M. Best, Nineteenth ward; Joseph E. Bendel, Twenty-first ward; William McClure, Twenty-first ward; James Gallagher, Seventh ward; Charles H. Marshall, Sixteenth ward; James C. Bondie, Twenty-first ward; Hays Smith, Twenty-first ward; Daniel K. Mull, Twenty-first ward.

WALLACE DOWN AND OUT.

Man Once in Absolute Control in Safety Building Discharged for "Betterment of Service."

Detective Alexander Wallace, who also for a time was superintendent of the bureau of police, was dismissed from the service by Director Ridgway yesterday. In his letter to Superintendent McQuaide relegating Wallace to private life, Director Ridgway intimated that his action was for the good of the service and a desire to fill the place with a competent man. Vinton F. Porter, a well-known newspaper man, was appointed to succeed Wallace. Detective Porter was sworn in by Director Ridgway and will assume the duties of office this morning.

Porter is a man of exceptional shrewdness and courage, and Director Ridgway and Superintendent McQuaide believe he will render excellent service to the bureau. Superintendent McQuaide summoned Wallace to his office and notified him of his dismissal. Wallace turned in his badge and keys and left the safety building, a place where he once was in absolute control.

HOTEL LINCOLN IS TO CHANGE HANDS IN JULY

A. B. Reese and Le Moyne Hoge of Waynesburg Will Pay $100,000 for Hostelry.

The Hotel Lincoln is booked to change hands about July 15, if present plans carry. Negotiations which have been on for several weeks, resulted in an agreement yesterday by which A. L. Richmond, Jr., the owner of the hotel, agrees to sell it to A. B. Reese and LeMoyne Hoge of Waynesburg for about $100,000. This sale includes only the hotel proper with its business and furnishings, and does not include any of the real estate. Several details are yet to be settled, but it looks now as if the deal would go through.

Mr. Richmond bought the property one year ago from the Lincoln Company and at once spent a good sum in remodeling the building, so that the real estate now stands him about $400,000. In addition, he refurnished the entire hostelry, making it one of the most attractive hotels in the city. It now contains 137 rooms, which of late have proved entirely too few for the rapidly-growing business of the Lincoln. Several deals have been on for a lease of the property, but Mr. Richmond has desired to dispose of the hotel and hold the real estate as an investment, owing to the steadily increasing value in that section.

Messrs. Reese and Hoge have secured a 10-years' lease on the building at a rate of $30,000 per year dating from the time they get possession. Both are experienced hotel men, who have been very successful also in the handling of coal and oil lands. It is understood that Col. Harry Sommers will be retained at the head of the executive force of the Lincoln, as under his management the hotel has taken on a new popularity and he is assured inent business men in the city.

POLICE BELIEVE THEY HAVE TRAIN WRECKERS

Italian Charged With Hatching Plot Is Armed and Makes Resistance When Taken.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

GREENSBURG, PA., April 4.—After trailing the man who attempted to wreck two Pennsylvania fast passenger trains near here, detectives tonight arrested John Delalo, an Italian, whom they charge with attempting to commit the crimes. The trains narrowly escaped being wrecked on two occasions recently at the tower just west of Greensburg. Confessions gained from two of Delalo's friends today seem to fasten the crime upon him.

After Delalo's arrest and commitment to the jail, James Starcia, a companion, also under arrest, told a full story of the plans of Delalo, whose object, Starcia says, was to wreck the trains for the purpose of having Isaac Shendowitch, division foreman, and Lewey Dangio, track walker, discharged by the railroad company. His grievance was that these men had discharged him and refused to reinstate him.

The informations against Delalo and Stacia were made before Justice of the Peace J. Frank Beatty of Greensburg. Delalo was armed at the time he was captured, and attempted to resist the officers. He lives at Ludwig, a small town near here.

FIX DATE FOR HEARING.

Test Suit of Representative Snyder on New Appointment Act Is Scheduled.

HARRISBURG, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—Judge Kunkel, in the Dauphin county court, today fixed April 26 for a hearing in the proceedings instituted by Representative Charles A. Snyder of Pottsville to test the constitutionality of the senatorial apportionment bill passed by the recent extra session of the legislature.

Snyder alleges that the act is unconstitutional because it tacks a portion of Lancaster county on to Lebanon to make a district. Should the courts decide the new law invalid the old law will again be in force. This will result in the breaking of several senatorial slates that are now being made.

Empire Company Is Sold.

CONNELLSVILLE GETS MONEY FOR NEW ARMORY

Board Acts on Distribution of Appropriation and Other Buildings Are Planned.

HARRISBURG, PA., April 4.—The state armory board today decided to erect an armory at Connellsville for Company D, Tenth regiment, out of the $250,000 appropriated by the last legislature for armories for the National guard of Pennsylvania. The board also decided to build an armory at Corry on one of three sites which have been offered by the people of that city. The site for both armories will be selected at a meeting of the board in this city on May 3.

The first of the armories to be built by the state will be at Pittston, the contract having been awarded today to a contractor of that city at his bid of $29,500.

PERIL PURSUES MEN WHO RACE WITH TRAIN

Leap from End of Bridge as Locomotive Thunders Along After Killing Dogs.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW CASTLE, PA., April 4.—A desperate race for life against a fast Baltimore & Ohio train was won by T. R. Brown, superintendent of the Ellwood City tube mill, and ex-Burgess R. C. Steifel of that town, late yesterday afternoon. The two men were crossing the railroad bridge that spans the Connoquenessing river near Ellwood. Suddenly they heard the train whistle, and realizing their danger, started to run.

Two fine bird dogs owned by Mr. Brown were accompanying their owner. The dogs could not run on the ties as fast as the men and were struck and killed. Mr. Steifel, who is somewhat advanced in years, had difficulty in running, so Brown aided him in the race for life. The two reached the end of the bridge just in time to escape death.

The Death Roll

William Hindman Jeffries.

William Hindman Jeffries, postmaster at Bellwood, Pa., and a veteran of the civil war, died at his residence Monday evening, after a long illness, on the 63d anniversary of his birth. Capt. Jeffries was born in Wilkinsburg, April 2, 1843, his family being among the pioneers of this county. At the outbreak of the civil war he was among the first to enlist in his country's defense, and although but 18 years of age, was elected second lieutenant of Company H, in the famous Sixty-third regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, under Gen. Alexander Hays, then colonel of that regiment. For gallantry in action he was promoted to a first lieutenancy within a short time after his enlistment, and within two years was again promoted to captain of his company. In the sanguinary battle of Fair Oaks Capt. Jeffries was wounded, carrying the ball until his death. On account of this wound he was disabled for further service, and was honorably discharged from the service May 21, 1863, but in 1864 again enlisted in the Second division of Sheridan's cavalry, serving until the end of the war. For 25 years Capt. Jeffries resided in Bellwood, where he was engaged in the lumber business, retiring three years ago to accept the postmastership of that place. He was an active member of the Loyal Legion of Altoona and attended the Presbyterian church. Surviving him are his widow and four children, Mrs. George H. McCracken, Derry, Pa.; Miss Lillian, living with mother; Lucian, Ben Avon, and Howard E., Pittsburgh.

The funeral services were held yesterday from the Presbyterian church, Bellwood, the interment being in the old family graveyard, Turtleville, Pa., near Irwin today. Brief services will be held at the Long Run Presbyterian church. An escort of Loyal Legion from Altoona will accompany the funeral party, acting as honorary pall bearers, and a delegation of his old regiment will meet the train at Irwin, and participate in the services at the grave, leaving Union station at 8 o'clock.

Edward Wilson.

Edward Wilson, assistant city gauger under John Ennis, died on Monday evening after a brief illness. Mr. Wilson was born in the First ward 45 years ago and was educated at the Duquesne public schools. He married Miss Hester Hillegrass of Bedford and after his marriage lived in the Sixth ward until the death of his wife, about three years ago. Subsequently he made his home with a sister, Mrs. John Maxwell of Allegheny. He leaves two children, William Wilson and Miss Florence Wilson. He is also survived by three brothers, George H. Wilson of Wilmerding and Harry E. Wilson and William G. Wilson of the East End, and by four sisters, Mrs. John Maxwell of Allegheny, Mrs. William P. JOE'S LUCK

Drew a Prize in Matrimonial Lottery.

"Before we were married my husband was a coffee drinker and subject to severe attacks of sick headache, which interfered with his duties as superintendent of a large factory," writes a young Massachusetts matron.

"I had made up my mind that coffee was at least partly to blame, and that I could cure him after marriage by the use of Postum Food Coffee.

"When I told my younger sister about it she laughed and said: 'Just wait and see! After you are married you'll find that Joe will have his coffee anyway.'

"I proceeded gradually, first eliminating by degrees the pastry and sweets from the daily menu, and as his meals were always daintily served and appetizing, he began to have faith in his wife's ability as a cook.

"Meantime his headaches became less frequent, but did not cease altogether. When the time was ripe and I proposed to use Postum Food Coffee he consented upon the promise that he should have the old kind of coffee at his Sunday breakfast. He grew fond of the new food drink, however, and noted that after drinking the old coffee on Sundays he suffered from unsteady nerves and a dull, heavy feeling that he never had on the days when he drank Postum. The result was that at last he said, 'I would rather have the Postum Food Coffee Sunday morning, too, if you don't mind, my dear. The old kind makes me feel like a fool all day.' You may imagine how ready I was to fall in with this sugestion. The old kind of coffee has been banished from our table for more than two years now, Joe's headaches are only a memory and he always has steady nerves and a clear brain to meet the exacting demands of his business. On hot summer days he relishes a glass of clear, cold Postum with a squeeze of lemon, at noon, finding it most refreshing.

"In the winter I make up a pot of Postum Coffee in the evening, boiling it 15 minutes, and let it set on the back of the range till morning, when it is heated and ready to serve in a few minutes." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The price of a thing is the ultimate measure of value.

It is not enough to get goods at a low price—they may have neither style nor merit.

Nor is it good trading to pay a high price because nothing but the choicest and best will suit you.

Sagacity with regard to purchases consists in knowing how and where to procure the most select at a fair price.

That is wherein this store we believe has demonstrated it's usefulness to thousands.

HOPES HELD OUT TO DULL PUPILS

Allegheny School Controllers Want Best Plan to Keep Them Abreast of Their Studies.

The Allegheny board of school controllers is considering the introduction of some method of bringing forward in their studies the so-called dull children of the public schools. The subject will be taken up at the next meeting of the school board. It was with a view of introducing a plan that Superintendent of Schools Morrow collected the statistics upon which he reported to the board on Tuesday evening.

From reports of all the ward principals Prof. Morrow learned that there were 1,045 pupils in the Allegheny schools who cannot do the required work without aid from the teacher, and that 41 of the pupils are feeble-minded.

"The fact that 1,045 pupils are behind in their studies does not mean that there is anything the matter with the minds of those pupils," said Prof. Morrow yesterday. "There are many things besides dullness of perception which tend to cause children to be behind in their school work. In many cases the homes and the conditions under which they live retard school children. Some parents do not require their children to study; in some homes the parents quarrel, or a parent is dissipated and the worried child cannot concentrate his mind upon his studies. Again, some pupils are slower in comprehension than others. They understand a thing when they have learned it, but they do not learn so fast as their schoolmates.

"There are three ways by which the slower pupils may be kept abreast of their classes, namely, by the Batavia (N. Y.) method, the special class plan and the 'floating' teacher plan. The Batavia plan is well known. I am opposed to the special class method, the placing of backward pupils in a special class room, with a special teacher, for thus you single out certain pupils, expose them to the ridicule of their schoolmates, put them at once into the 'dummy' class, as the other children, I fear, would soon phrase it.

"The 'floating teacher' plan would be somewhat expensive, but I can see how it would work much good. The floating teacher calls at the class rooms in turn and to her temporary care are committed the children who have been deficient in their lessons of the day. All the children of one grade are taken by the floating teacher to her school room, where each explains the difficulty encountered and is told how to master the lesson. Thus there is no invidious distinction, for while some children may make many trips to the floating teacher's room, even the brightest pupil will bring up there some time or other in the course of the school year. There is no segregation of so-called dull children; they recite in the same class room with the brighter ones and are kept abreast of these in their lessons.

"The board of controllers is desirous of helping the children if it can be done and will discuss the various plans. I have sent to each controller a copy of my report, including the local statistics and a tabulation of figures received from 41 public school centers. The matter probably will be brought up at the next meeting for discussion."

Prof. Morrow said concerning the figures he collected on backward, feeble-minded pupils and pupils with defective eyesight and hearing, that the percentages ascertained in Allegheny are about the same as percentages obtained from other cities.

TRAIN HITS SWITCH; SEVEN ARE INJURED

Flyer Speeding at 80 Miles an Hour Leaves Track and Ploughs Through Woods.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NORFOLK, VA., April 4.—A serious wreck occurred on the Norfolk & Western railroad between Suffolk and Norfolk today, when the "Cannonball" train, bound from Richmond to this city, ran through an open switch at Juniper siding.

Those injured are Engineer Mark Noble of Petersburg, Va., Mrs. L. E. Lear of Fulton, Ind., Florence Lear, aged 13, of Fulton, Ind.; Frank E. Wood of Norfolk, express messenger on the train; William Davis, colored, fireman; Conductor H. J. Hawks of Richmond, Va., R. F. Bell of Iver, Va., Expressman Wood and Engineer Noble are the most seriously injured.

The switch, which caused the wreck, was wide open and no one has yet accounted for the cause. Though Engineer Noble was looking for danger, he had orders giving him a free road from Suffolk to Norfolk. No one seems to know why the switch had been left open.

The train was running at the rate of 75 or 80 miles an hour when Engineer Noble spied the open switch 30 yards away. Immediately he threw on his emergency brakes reducing his speed to about 30 miles by the time the engine struck the switch. The train jumped the track, then jumped an adjourning ditch and ran headlong into neighboring woods before it stopped. The engineer was picked up 20 feet ahead of the engine. The train careened, but did not turn over and was not burned as first reported.

MANHATTAN, NEVADA, March 29.—A crew of 20 miners was today put to work sacking ore upon the Seyler-Humphrey claims—the original discovery in the Manhattan district. While extreme secrecy is being maintained by the mine superintendent and very little accurate information can be secured, it is a well established fact that some of the ore which is being hoisted and prepared for shipment runs as high as $20,000 per ton. Seyler-Humphrey has to date been the producer of the richest rock, which has come out of the ground in this camp.

While the heavy snow which has covered the mountains for the past few weeks has somewhat retarded mining operations, it is safe to say that high-grade shipping values are being hoisted to the surface from at least 100 different places. In the neighborhood of 25 properties are making regular shipments to the smelters and the list will be considerably augmented within the next 30 days.

Manhattan now contains more than 6,000 people, and it is growing richer and bigger every day. During the last 30 days every share that has been listed representing a Manhattan property has appreciated in value from 30 to several hundred per cent.

A rich strike was made this week on the property of the Manhattan Buffalo, and a crew of miners are now sacking ore which runs from $20 to $1,000. The vein is broadening out and has been proven for a considerable depth. This is one of the most important strikes in the district and when it is considered that the stock was offered for public subscription less than three weeks ago at 15 cents per share, this showing in so short a time is nothing short of phenomenal.

On the property of the Combination Company 18 men are being worked three shifts in the two shafts which have been sunk to a depth of more than 100 feet and a large body of high-grade shipping ore has been blocked out and several rich stringers have been cut. The ore on this property is today of a milling character.

One of the important developments of the week was the decision on the part of Patrick, Elliot & Camp of Goldfield, who control the Buffalo and Combination mines, to build a ten-stamp mill for the purpose of handling on the ground the ores of these two properties.

On the Manhattan Red Top Company's property milling ore has been encountered in the main working shaft and the company expects with greater depth to break into some shipping values.

DOWIE FACES ARREST THREATS

First Apostle Will Be Charged With Misappropriation of Funds.

COMING BACK TO ZION CITY

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, ILL., April 4.—John Alexander Dowie, late master and ruler of Zion City, faces threats of arrest. He will be arrested upon his arrival there next Tuesday, according to those now in charge of the city's affairs, if he makes one move toward reasserting any control over the community.

"Two charges will be made the basis of his arrest," said Deacon William Piper today. "They are misappropriation of funds and slandering persons through the medium of the United States mails."

Dr. Dowie made known his anger today in another telegram removing Financial Manager Granger from office and warning him that criminal prosecution will follow any attempt on his part to exercise the functions of that office.

With the unpleasant threat of Dowie to return to Zion as soon as he can from Ocotlan, Mexico, ringing in their ears, the councils of Zion were called to consider the latest act of the "apostle," who last night removed Deputy Overseers Voliva, Piper, Excell, Blasfield, Cantel and Speicher. The message, sent to V. V. Barnes, general counsel, ordered Voliva's power of attorney to be revoked and renewed to Deacon Fielding Wilhite.

The worst news of all, however, was the boast by Dowie that he would be in Zion City next Tuesday, when he would punish all those who had committed such "ungodly" acts as to criticise Dowie's performances. Some of the council fear that when Dowie returns he may stir some of the subjects to renewed loyalty to him.

It was decided today by Overseer Voliva of Zion City, that in view of the announced intended return of John Alexander Dowie from Mexico, and Dowie's declared intention of making a fight against the action suspending Dowie from office that the present overseer shall be appointed receiver of the church of Zion, and of all the public properties standing in the name of the church. The court will probably be asked to name Voliva as receiver within the next few days.

It was also asserted by the officers of Zion City that if Dowie returns and commences legal action against the present officers of the church, or attempts to oust them, they will cause his arrest and prosecution on the charge of misuse of funds.

Voliva, acting under the power of attorney he holds from Dowie, today filed in the office of the county recorder of Lake county an assignment to Deacon Alexander Granger of all the annuities and bequests that have been made to Dowie and are still unpaid.

CINCINNATI, O., April 4.—Soon after the return from Zion City, Ill., today of Deacon W. D. Yerger of Cincinnati, there was filed a deed for all property of the Christian Catholic church of Zion situated in Cincinnati, transfering it to Alexander Granger, financial agent. The deed was signed by J. Alexander Dowie, by his attorney, Wilbur G. Voliva. The consideration named was $1.

Deacon V. V. Barnes, Dowie's general counsel, sent Dowie a telegram refusing to act on Dowie's instructions to cancel Voliva's power of attorney and give the power to Fielding H. Wilhite. Barnes' message contained a threat that the administrative body had documentary evidence of Dowie's mismanagement. Barnes' message follows:

"Your state of health is bad for the proper protection of our rights. Everything transferred to Granger. Deeds have been duly executed and placed on record. Will not act on your instructions. Am acting in the interests of Zion. Believe it will be to your interests to confirm the agreement. There will be sufficient evidence. Have documentary evidence."

Members of the Zion church in Switzerland in a cable dispatch today indorsed Voliva and the action that has been taken against Dowie.

At a meeting in the tabernacle at Zion city tonight, Judge Barnes declared that final judgment had not been passed on Dowie, and that no man should be condemned until he had a full hearing. Barnes declared that what had been done was absolutely necessary to the interests of Zion and its people, and was for the protection of stockholders and creditors, as well as for the good name of Dowie.

"Dowie," said Barnes, "has, in my opinion, not been removed, but merely suspended, in order that he might not interfere with matters made absolutely necessary of attention by the exigencies of the case."

WILL LIKELY ARREST DURHAM AND M'NICHOL

Mayor Weaver to Take Definite Steps Toward Proceedings to Still Criticism.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—Being assured that criminal prosecutions would be commenced within a week or ten days, the executive committee of the committee of 70 today declined to take definite action on the letter of David Wallerstein, assistant district attorney, in which ex-Judge Gordon is more or less blamed for the delay in promised prosecutions. This assurance came from ex-Judge Gordon and Mayor Weaver.

"As I understand the situation," said a member of the executive committee of the committee of 70, "definite action will be taken and this will be the answer of Mayor Weaver and ex-Judge Gordon to the criticisms that have been aimed at them."

When the criminal proceedings are brought the general charge of conspiracy will be made in the warrants. Unless ex-Judge Gordon has changed his mind two of the persons to be arrested are State Senator James P. McNichol and Israel W. Durham. It is probable, however, that more persons will be included in the warrants.

CONFIDENCE IN ROOSEVELT.

Von Buelow Estimates Results of Algeciras Conference and Compliments Americans.

BERLIN, April 4.—Chancellor von Buelow, at the request of the Associated Press, today gave the following estimate of the results of the Algeciras conference: "The principle of equal privileges for all countries in Morocco has been asserted and maintained. Two guarantees only appeared adequate to the German government, namely, international control of the Bank of Morocco and international supervision of the police. These guarantees have been accepted by France and all the other participating countries.

"Throughout this long controversy the European powers have been aware that President Roosevelt was ready to assist in any proper manner in the effort for an agreement. The American government's advice and attitude were helpful, especially during the latter stages of the conference."

ENCOURAGE WORK OF NEGRO SCHOOL

Prominent Men Attend Anniversary of the Founding of Tuskegee University.

MANY ADDRESSES ARE MADE

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

TUSKEGEE, ALA., April 4.—Today was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Tuskegee university, the great school of learning for negroes, which has made such a wonderful growth under the guiding hand of Booker T. Washington, the leader of his race.

Prominent people in educational, political and industrial lines from all over the United States were present. Among these were Secretary of War Taft, President Eliot of Harvard and Andrew Carnegie.

The celebration of the anniversary will last for several days. Those who made addresses today were Judge Taft, President Eliot and Booker Washington. In part Judge Taft said:

"Personal liberty and private property have been the chief causes of our present triumph over the savagery of prehistoric men. In the elevation of the human race I should be the last to exclude the influence of religion, but even its influence was vastly greater upon a mind with the sturdy virtues of providence and industry and honesty than upon those in a barbarous state.

Compared to Primeval Man.

"With the lack of providence and with little understanding of the rights of property, we find the negro after his emancipation in much the condition with respect to self-support and self-elevation that the primeval man was.

"The people of the United States especially those in the north who had played a large part in the emancipation of the negro, were keenly conscious of his helpless conditions, and great effort was made to secure to him the rights and privileges which were thought necessary to enable him successfully to meet and overcome the obstacles to his progress.

"If Hampton school had never done anything but graduate Booker Washington, it would have justified its existence. He saw clearly the only hope of his race was economic independence and he projected in his mind the establishment of an institution in which there would be combined in proper proportion to mental education and the education of the hand. Booker Washington, with the three thousand graduates of this institution who are now spreading the lessons which they have learned here among his people in all parts of the south gloriously vindicate his marvelous foresight. He has put himself in a position where he may well preach an evangel and force the truths he utters, by the work which he has done."

Washington Takes No Credit.

Booker T. Washington, the president of the university, said in part:

"Primarily, I believe my race has found itself, so far as its permanent location is concerned. When this institution began its mission there was uncertainty, lack of faith, halting and speculation as to our permanent abiding place. As to what degree the influence of the Tuskegee institution has contributed to this I will venture no assertions except to state in so far as I can interpret the present ambitions and the activities of my people, the main body of the race has decided to remain permanently in the heart of the south in or near what is known as the black belt."

Mr. Washington referred to the growth of the school from its humble beginning, and said the school had sent out into the world 6,000 men and women who are now largely engaged in agriculture and mechanics, housekeepers and teachers of both industrial and academic branches throughout the south, as well as in Africa and one or two other foreign countries.

"The negro race in this country has entered upon a wholly new period—a period in which emphasis is being placed on a side of life not covered in any of the previous experiences of my people. I mean the era of free, independent and intelligent, economic and industrial development, accompanied with a growing sense of the worth and value of their own qualities and a desire to make the most of them."

President Eliot spoke on "What Uplifts a Race and What Holds It Down." He complimented President Washington very highly on the work accomplished by the school and showed in many ways the advantages open to educated negroes.

YOUNG OFFICER GETS BATH IN MOTOR OIL

Others of Staff Give Obnoxious Companion a Shampoo With Jam Before He Escapes.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ALDERSHOT, ENGLAND, April 4.—Four lieutenants, Hamilton, Dalerample, Jolliffe and Harford, were placed on trial today before a court of inquiry, which is making an investigation into the hazing of Second Lieutenant Clark Kennedy, who was severely maltreated by his fellow officers last month because, it is alleged, he was too poor to meet all the regimental subscriptions.

Lieut. Kennedy testified that after mess March 18, just after he had returned from sick leave, he was tried by a mock court martial on the charge that the medical officer had found him in a filthy condition and that he had told his colonel a lie. Kennedy was thereupon sentenced to be stripped and to take a bath. The sentence was carried out with force and a mixture of motor oil and other ingredients was poured over him and jam was spread over his hair.

Subsequently Kennedy escaped naked to his room. His persecutors, however, proceeded to break the door open whereupon Kennedy jumped out of a window and took refuge in a hotel.

CONFERENCE WITH MAYOR.

Market Lease Controversary Is to Be Settled by Guthrie This Morning at 10 O'clock.

Mayor Guthrie will this morning attempt to settle the controversy over the market leases which has been raised by Controller Larkin. A conference has been arranged for 10 o'clock of the parties interested in the dispute over the possession of the fish stands in the Diamond market, which are claimed by Levinson brothers under a lease granted by Director Bigelow just before retiring from office.

The conference will also be attended by Controller Larkin and his attorney, E. Y. Breck. The controller wants the Levinson brothers ousted and the old tenants installed.

SALVATION ARMY MAN IS SENTENCED TO PRISON

NEW HAVEN, CONN., April 4.—James H. Fitzgerald, formerly of the Salvation Army home here, was today sentenced to not more than 10 nor less than six years in state prison for assault upon Mrs. Daisy Wilbur. Fitzgerald, who is a young man, changed his plea four times before being sentenced.

Orphan Asylum Loses Lead Pipe.

GUTHRIE IS DOING WORK WHICH HAYS SIDE-STEPPED

New Mayor Has Task of Stamping His Name 4,000 Times a Month—He Is Breaking City Hall Record.

Mayor Guthrie got his first taste of hard manual labor in his new job yesterday. The executive was put to work stamping his signature to 4,000 warrants to pay the monthly salaries of the city employes. This work was never done by Mayor Hayes. He permitted his clerks to divide this work among themselves.

The mayor's force of clerks began making out the monthly warrants yesterday and a big batch was handed the new mayor with the information that a city ordinance required the mayor to sign them, which is permitted by the law to be done with a stamp. While the clerks of the former mayor have done this work themselves, they did not wish to take the responsibility of continuing the practice, knowing the reputation of Mr. Guthrie for strict adherence to legal form.

The mayor did not shirk the task, although somewhat surprised when told that he had to stamp his name 4,000 times. He closed the door of his private office and courageously began work.

In the matter of working hours, if in no other, the new mayor has instituted a real reform at city hall. In this respect he has broken all records. In his inaugural address he announced that for every dollar spent by the city the people would get a full dollar's worth in value. He is carrying out this pledge by earning his own salary and making his office force do the same. He arrives at the city hall early and stays late. It is close to 6 o'clock every evening before he has suspended labor for the day.

USES HER UMBRELLA ON MAN AND COMPANION

Sensational Conflict at Fifth and Wood at 1 O'Clock This Morning.

Shortly after 1 o'clock this morning considerable excitement was occasioned at Wood street and Fifth avenue, when an irate female broke the tall hat of a prominent business man and destroyed the new hat of his companion.

The business man and his companion had just alighted from a night cab, when a woman, plainly dressed, rushed at the pair swinging an umbrella. It fell first on the hat of the male escort and the next swing took off all the ostrich feather, and the plumes of the new Easter bonnet. The business man fled down Wood street, and last seen of his escort she was hastening to Allegheny.

The little woman in plain clothes took a cab and the last seen of her she was being rapidly driven to a fashionable residence street in the East End.

AID SPIRITUAL WELFARE.

Nurses Will Attend Babies While Mothers in Church Listen to Words of Minister.

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—(Special.)—A decided innovation in the Torrey-Alexander meeting will have its inception when the mission reopens next Sunday in the Second Regiment armory at Broad and Diamond streets. No longer will crying babies disturb the services or mothers be kept at home because they have little children that need to be cared for.

A nursery is to be opened, either in one of the rooms of the armory, apart from where the meetings are to be held, or in some nearby house. Trained nurses from the Philadelphia school for nurses will be supplied by the Torrey-Alexander mission and will be on hand in the nursery to relieve the mothers of their babies and children when the women attend the meeting.

He telephoned to Kent and within an hour Oliver E. Cook reached the scene and identified the body as that of his sister Eva, aged 43 years, wife of the Rev. Edward J. Smith, Methodist pastor at Andover.

She had suffered long with typhoid fever and her mind was in a weak condition. On the night of November 27 she disappeared and the search for her has attracted almost national attention.

EGYPTIAN COUNT IS BORROWER OF MONEY

Woman Accuses Him of Stealing Tapestry Which She Values at $1,500.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—(Special.)—With many tears and sobs, Miss Claire E. Page, a bright young woman living in West Fifty-sixth street, told in the West Side police court today of having given $16,000 to Aribert Sackey, who was known to her as an Egyptian count. The specific charge she made against Sackey was the larceny of tapestry valued at $1,500. He was sent to jail in default of $1,500 bail.

Miss Page said she met Sackey a year ago and was told that he was of a noble Egyptian family. She said he unfolded a plan to ship cattle to Egypt and borrowed sums of money ranging from $50 to $10,000 from her. She said she paid the living expenses of Sackey and two friends in this city, the expenses of a trip for Sackey and a friend to Egypt and a trip for Sackey to St. Louis and return. The tapestry, she said, was made in the sixteenth century. She purchased it in Seville, Spain, for $800.

Miss Page said Sackey went to St. Louis to sell the tapestry for her, but borrowed $500 on it instead. He entered a general denial of the charges.

TOO MUCH SALARY.

Act of Assembly May Make Illegal Measure Providing for Pay of Borough's Magistrate.

WASHINGTON, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—A sensation in municipal circles here has been created owing to the action of council in passing an ordinance providing a salary of $1,050 for the new burgess, when the act of assembly approved April 17, 1905, provides for the payment of salary at the rate of $50 per 1,000 inhabitants, as ascertained by the last decennial census. Burgess A. C. Marsh has approved the ordinance.

It is generally conceded that the population of Washington is between 15,000 and 16,000. Many of the members of council who voted for the ordinance have expressed themselves as opposed to its enforcement. A special meeting of council may be called to repeal the ordinance.

PREDICTS SOCIAL EQUALITY.

Jerome K. Jerome Says Feeling Against the Negroes Will Soon Be Gone.

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 4.—(Special.)—In an interview here today Jerome K. Jerome, the author, said: "I believe that three generations hence will witness social equality between the white and black races in the south. The present feeling against the negroes in the south is due to prejudice which is fast being wiped out.

"The future will no longer know the black man, as I predict that there will eventually be an amalgamation of the white and colored races, due to the low moral code of ethics that now prevails."

TO PAY THE POLICE FINES DIRECT TO THE TREASURY

Fines and forfeitures collected by police magistrates will hereafter be paid direct into the city treasury instead of being paid first to the mayor and by him turned over to the treasurer. The change was made yesterday by Mayor Guthrie. The former practice was to pay the money to the mayor, who kept a separate account with the banks and made a transfer to the city treasury every month.

Demonstration of the fact that her leap into the Hudson river early Sunday morning was complete when Magistrate Wahle in the West Side police court dismissed her and exonerated her from the charge of attempted suicide. Her real name is Kate Doyle and she lives in West Seventeenth street.

When Policeman McAuliffe of the West Thirty-seventh street station saw her disappear from the pier he followed gallantly, shouting: "I'll save you; I'll save you."

He leaped into the water and struck out bravely. When he reached her side "Harmony Kate" winked the water from her left eye and said: "Ha! April fool—April fool—gurgle—gurle—April fool!" McAuliffe brought her ashore and lodged the charge of attempted suicide against her. In court today she said:

"I didn't try to commit suicide, judge. There is too much good whiskey in the world for me to want to leave it. I was only walking on the pier at the foot of West Thirtieth street and played an April fool joke."

Magistrate Wahle at first thought he would order an examination into the woman's sanity, but when told by the police that she had been arrested over 50 times he changed his mind and allowed her to go. She laughed as she left the court room.

IRON WORKER DOES NOT CARE FOR INHERITANCE

Bernhardt Gescheidt Dreads to Receive a Large Amount of Money It Is Thought He Is to Receive.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—Informed, but not officially, that he is heir to $16,000,000, left by the will of his mother's brother in Hungary, L. Bernhardt Gescheidt, an ironworker, refuses to lift his hand to ascertain of the report be true. "I do not care much for the money, anyway," he said today. "I would dread to have so much. I am happy here and my income supports me."

Gescheidt is 41 years of age and lives in Brooklyn. He has a wife and two children and has been in this country 22 years. There are two reports about the wealth. One is that a relative had died in America leaving $16,000,000 to the Gescheidts on both sides of the Atlantic.

The other story is that Vesutitin Allomas, an uncle, and owner of nearly the entire province of Putnok, Hungary, had died, leaving the ironworker his entire estate, valued at $16,000,000. The United States consul at Buda Pest, it was said, had been asked to look for the ironworker, and many had been trying to trace him.

CATCH ALLEGED SWINDLER.

Italian Is Pursued Over Two Continents by Victims Who Invest Fortune in Bubble.

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—After a long chase over two continents, Fernando Valasia Feliso, said by the police to be a clever swindler, was arrested here tonight. He is charged with embezzling $14,000 from Baroney and Lewis Vessetti and Louis Mirabaldo of Hoboken. The prisoner, who is well educated, is under indictment in Hudson county, New Jersey, according to the police.

About nine months ago, they say, he induced the Vessettis, who are contractors, and Mirabaldo, a saloonkeeper, to organize a company for the manufacture of macaroni in Naples, securing from them $14,000 to establish the plant. Feliso was made president of the company, and with the money, it is asserted, he went to Italy. The others followed him later, but upon their arrival in Italy he had disappeared.

WILMINGTON, DEL., April 4.—Alphonse P. Schenck, aged 31 years, foreman of the automatic signal repairmen on the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington railroad, and Alexander Prodosco, an Italian track walker, were struck by a freight train at Littelville today and both instantly killed. The bodies were terribly mangled. There were no witnesses to the accident.

REARDON IS CRUSHED TO DEATH BETWEEN CARS

Street Railway Employe Meets Horrible Death During Busy Hour in Oakland.

Torn, crushed, and part of the fragments of his body strewn over the street, was the fate of Thomas Reardon, an employe of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, last night. Reardon, who lived at 404 Forty-fourth street, was employed at the Oakland car barns.

Shortly after 6 o'clock he was ordered to aid in taking a trailer from the barns to Forbes street. As the trailer swung out of Oakland avenue into Forbes street it collided with a North Highland avenue car, passing the switch at that point. Reardon was on the front of the trailer and was caught between both cars. The man was killed instantly.

Thomas C. Waddy, aged 43, a negro teamster of Oakmont, was struck and instantly killed by a fast train on the Allegheny Valley railroad at Hulton station, shortly before noon yesterday. Waddy was driving his team across the tracks. He is survived by his widow and three children.

Lucy Ford, a negress, jumped to her death from the bluff at Second avenue and Marion street at noon yesterday. She fell 75 feet, alighting on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks. Her death was instantaneous. Two colored women called at the morgue after 11 o'clock last night and identified her. They said that for the last week she had lived at Crawford and Clark streets, and had been sick. They knew little about her or what led to her act.

Patrick Mulligan, aged 50, a water tender at the Clinton furnace in West Carson street, was found dead between two gas boilers at 9 o'clock last night. It is supposed he was asphyxiated. He lived in Hazelwood.

PRIEST, WITH BROKEN NECK, STILL ELUDES DEATH

William Pieret, who broke his neck by falling off a car at Pitcairn last Friday, is still living, and as yet has experienced no pain from the injury. Doctors in the Allegheny General hospital, where the man is receiving treatment, are displaying much interest in the case, and say that he may now live for a long time.

OPEN PUBLICITY

The Truest Guaranty of Merit.

Open to everybody is the fullest information as to the properties and uses of the several ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's family medicines. Not only are all the ingredients printed in plain English on each bottle wrapper, but a little book of extracts from numerous standard authorities of all the different schools of medical practice, extolling these several ingredients and giving their properties and uses, has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, and will be mailed free by him to the address of any one sending a postal card or letter to him, at Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting a copy of the same.

In this way the afflicted, who may think favorably of using these non-secret medicines, are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence and are informed as to the properties and uses of each of the several vegetable ingredients of which they are composed.

Thus you do not have to rely upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation alone as to the marvelous curative properties possessed by his "Golden Medical Discovery" for the cure of weak stomachs, dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, impure blood and kindred ailments, nor of his "Favorite Prescription" for the cure of weak, nervous, invalid women, for you have in addition the strongest kind of endorsement of each and every ingredient entering into the composition of these world-famed medicines by numerous leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. In fact nothing which Doctor Pierce has ever said in recommendation of these medicines is quite so strong and laudatory of their merits as what has indirectly been said of them through the numerous unqualified endorsements and recommendation of each of their several ingredients by the leading writers on Materia Medica.

Of course these endorsements were written from entirely disinterested motives and are therefore the more valuable. They were written to instruct medical practitioners in the properties and uses of the several ingredients which enter into Doctor Pierce's medicines, the writers not being aware that they were extolling and endorsing ingredients which are used in these medicines. Hence the great value of these highest possible endorsements, coming, as they do, from leaders of the medical profession in the matter of Materia Medica.

Among the well-known authorities will be found Drs. Bartholow, Hare, Johnson, Wood, King, Scudder, Hale, Coe, Ellingwood and many others.

The ingredients are all indigenous, or native, medicinal roots. Dr. Pierce believes that medicine can cure disease only as it assists Nature to overcome the abnormal or diseased conditions. For thus assisting Nature in throwing off disease, Dr. Pierce believes the best and only real remedies are to be found in Nature's Laboratory. In the roots of medicinal plants found in this country, Providence has stored up most valuable, active, curative principles, which, when scientifically extracted and combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, are most effective in curing a long list of chronic or lingering and most obstinate diseases.

In chronic, bronchial, throat and lung affections, accompanied with hoarseness or loss of voice, cough, profuse expectoration and even bleeding from lungs, "Golden Medical Discovery" has proven a sovereign remedy.

In cases of weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, ulceration of stomach or bowels, torpid liver, or biliousness, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has never been excelled as a tonic and invigorator which puts the affected organs "in tune" and enables them to perform their proper functions. It purifies and enriches the blood, curing all manner of "humors," blood taints, scrofulous and skin affections.

In all irregularities and painful periods to which women are subject, also in leucorrhœa, or "female weakness," displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion of the uterus, ulceration of uterus, inflammation of ovaries, and kindred maladies, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has more real cures to its credit than any other medicine put up and sold through druggists for the cure of this class of weaknesses and diseases.

When a woman takes "Favoite Prescription," she knows just what she is using. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence. His medicines are not secret compounds, are not patent medicines, but the favorite prescriptions of a regular, graduated physician of large experience in actual practice.

You can not afford to experiment with your health by accepting and taking free "trial bottles" of Cheap John Fake Medicines, so freely given away in this country. Health is a heritage too sacred to be trifled with in that way. Take only Medicines of Known Composition—those made after formulæ so choice that the makers take you fully into their confidence and feel that they can afford to tell you just what you are using when you employ their medicines.

Dr. Pierce never believed it necessary or advisable to use alcohol in the preparation of either his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women, or his "Golden Medical Discovery," the well-known alterative tonic, which is so largely used as a remedy for indigestion, torpid liver, bad blood and kindred ailments. Over forty years ago, he discovered that chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine is a far better solvent of most of the active principles residing in our native medicinal plants when used at a proper and sustained temperature than is alcohol; and, furthermore, he found that a glyceric extract kept much better than an alcoholic one, and that the glycerine possessed intrinsic remedial value, being demulcent, nutritive and an effective, antiseptic and antiferment. Although costing somewhat more, Dr. Pierce predicts that glyceric medicinal extracts will, in the not distant future, largely replace alcoholic ones so generally prescribed by physicians and put out by proprietary or "patent medicine" manufacturers, as being more efficient and entirely free from the serious objection of making inebriates when used in lingering or chronic cases, where a somewhat protracted use of medicine is necessary no matter how good or well adapted to the case it may be in order to obtain permanent results.

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in glass vials, tightly corked, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels.

A good medical book, written in plain English, and free from technical terms is a valuable work for frequent consultation. Such a work is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It's a book of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. It is given away now, although formerly sold in cloth binding for $1.50. Send 21 cents, in one-cent stamps, to pay for cost of mailing only for paper-covered copy, addressing Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.; or 31 cents for an elegantly cloth-bound copy.

Beer is a Strengthening Food

It Refreshes and Builds Up the Body With Nourishment in Predigested Form.

As a strengthening, nutritious food, physicians and scientists now agree that there is nothing more beneficial than pure beer. Pure beer, rich in the food extractives of eight-day exclusive Pabst malt and the tonic properties of hops, nourishes the whole body, restores wasted tissues, invigorates the blood, refreshes the brain and aids greatly in the digestion of solid foods.

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, known everywhere as the Best Beer, because of the absolute purity of its ingredients and the exclusive Pabst method of brewing, is considered perfect beer and perfect food. It is rich in the food properties derived from eight-day barley malt, sugar and other carbohydrates so necessary to the health of the body, along with the proteids, potash and phosphorus, all of which nourish and build up the body and brain.

Many people unable to take solid food have been built up by Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer. And it is just as good for the well as for the sick. Pabst Blue Ribbon with meals tones up the whole system. It has a splendid helpful, up-building, strengthening effect.

Cleanliness and purity are essential for healthful beer, just as they are essential for any other healthful food. And purity and cleanliness are watchwords in the great Pabst brewery at Milwaukee. Only the finest selected barley and choicest hops are used. The whole Pabst process is a revelation of scientific progress, the result of sixty years' pursuit of all the best known methods in the science of brewing. The Pabst Blue Ribbon label is a guarantee of age, purity and strength, cleanness and the best beer brewed.

If your food doesn't taste just right, or if your digestion is a little "off," or your appetite is poor, try Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer and find for yourself that it is good food.

Head Ache Sometimes?

If so, it will interest you to know that it can be stopped with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills; and without any bad after-effects, and this without danger of forming a drug habit or having your stomach disarranged. They positively contain no opium, morphine, cocaine, chloral, ether or chloroform in any form. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain, and leave only a sense of relief. The reason for this is explained by the fact that headache comes from tired, irritable, turbulent, over-taxed brain nerves. Anti-Pain Pills soothe and strengthen these nerves, thus removing the cause. They are harmless when taken as directed.

"We use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for the cure of headache, and we think that there is nothing that will equal them. They will cure the severest spell of nervous or sick headache in a very few minutes. I am of a nervous temperament, and occasionally have spells when my nerves seem to be completely exhausted, and I tremble so I can scarcely contain myself. At these times I always take the Anti-Pain Pills, and they quiet me right away. It is remarkable what a soothing effect they have upon the nerves."
MRS. F. E. KARL, Detroit, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

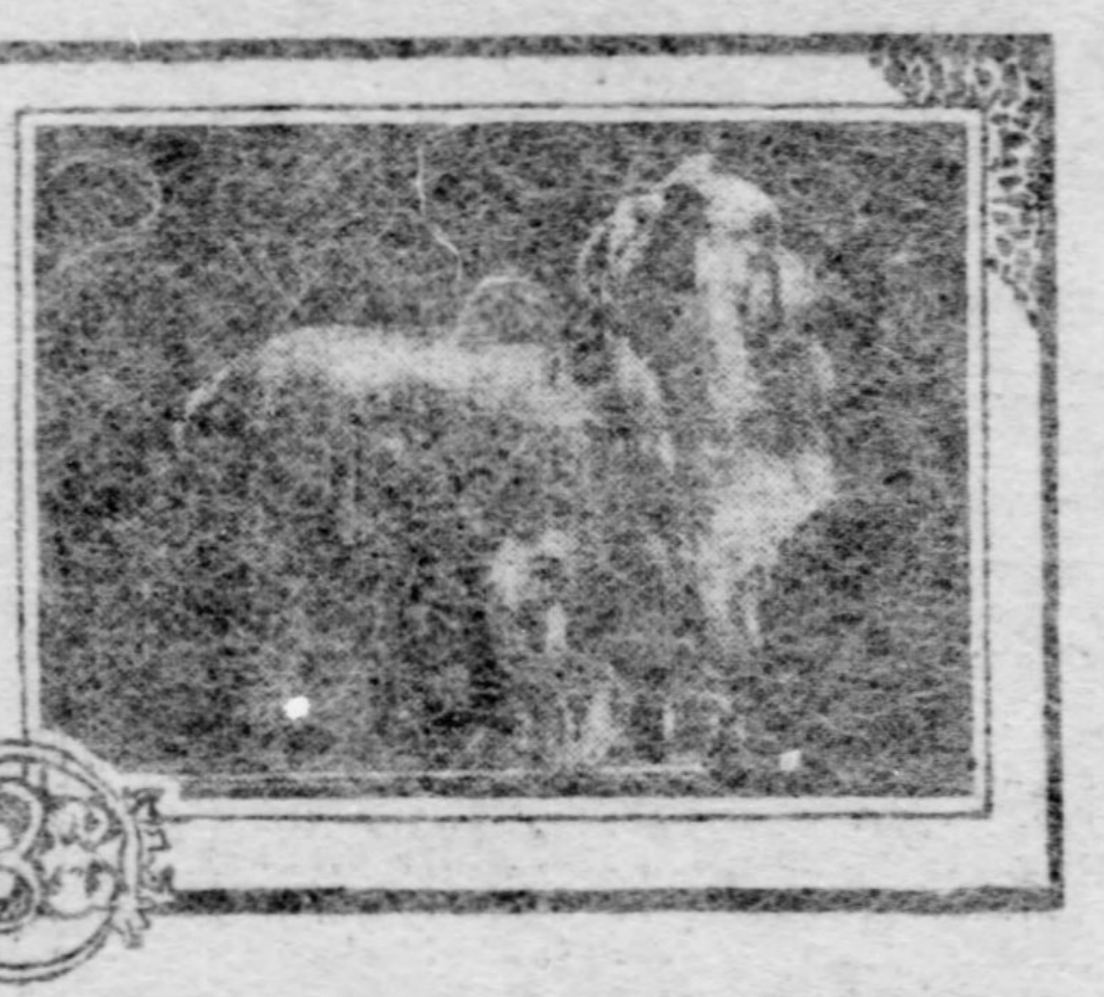
THE LOCAL DOG SHOW OPENS

Mrs. Senn's Champion Koma, Winner in Japanese Spaniel Class.

Dr. Irving R. Johnson of Buffalo. His Great Dane, Taurid Von Inn, Won Everything in His Classes.



Mrs. Senn's Champion Queen of the Fairies, Winner in Yorkshire Class.

Duquesne garden opened its doors yesterday morning to the eighth annual bench show of the Duquesne Kennel club. It was not till near the noon hour, however, that the benching was in place, owing to the car containing it being displaced in the East Liberty railroad yards. It was not till the evening, however, that the crowd arrived in its strength.

The garden, with its myriads of electric lights, is a scene of rare brilliance. Tiny pets to the great Danes proved veritable magnets and the throng lingered long over favorites.

Some of the greatest dogs in their classes appeared in the ring in the afternoon. The classes passed upon were: Great Danes, St. Bernards, Russian wolfhounds, pointers, fox terriers, bloodhounds and English setters. In the evening the toys were sent into the ring.

The competition in the afternoon which attracted the greatest of attention was the meeting of George Bleistein's Coronation and Adolph Sanders' Topsey S., in the classes for pointer bitches. The Buffalo dog, an importation from England, had never been beaten till the recent Detroit show, when the Dayton bitch Topsey S. was placed over her by the judge, W. E. Warner. The judge yesterday, Francis G. Taylor, had no hesitation in placing Coronation first. Topsey S has a grand muzzle and very racing body. Ben F. Lewis, perhaps the best handler in this country, showed Coronation.

Pittsburgh saw yesterday the greatest wire fox terriers in the world in the Rowsley kennel exhibit. Three only of the quartet are here, Rowsley Siren, Rowsley Hope and Rowsley Jester. Rowsley Siren and Rowsley Hope have never been beaten as a brace. They won at New York, Boston, Washington, Buffalo, Detroit and Haverhill. Siren weighs just 18 pounds and cost $100 a pound. This one captured in England 156 firsts, 21 championships, nine wins for best dog in the show. Siren beat everything yesterday including Hope. They are handled by George Porter.

In the pointer classes, George Bleistein of Buffalo, N. Y., quite swept the board. His Lansdowne Arizona being first in the open class for dogs, and won winners. His Landsowne Montana after winning in the limit class for dogs under 55 pounds, was placed second to his Lansdowne Arizona in both the open and winners' classes. The biggest winning, however, was done by his Coronation, which was placed first in both the open and limit classes for bitches, and then came back and won winners over Topsy S. which was placed reserve to her. Topsy S is a black and white bitch and is owned by Adolph Sanders of Dayton, O. Coronation is a white bitch with beautiful liver markings about the head.

The St. Bernards were passed upon by James Mortimer the first thing in the afternoon. Ralph Scraggs of East Liverpool, O., won with Mikado in the limit class, open class for dogs and bitches. Mikado was handled by the well-known Pittsburgher, Louis Walther. G. H. Laflin of Vincen, W. Va., was second all the time with Kroff, which after winning in the novice class, was second to Mikado throughout, and was reserve to him in the winners' class.

The fox terriers, both smooth and wire, made an interesting competition. There was nothing to it but the Rowsley kennels, handled by George Porter, in the wire division. This kennel's Rowsley Siren capturing the first award in the open class of bitches, over its kennel mate, Rowsley Hope. They were also placed this way in the winners' class, defeating A. Henry Higginson's Endcliffe Priscilla, which had won in the limit class. In the classes for wired-haired dogs, A. Henry Higgison, won with Endcliffe Pennant in the open, and with Endcliffe Prevail in the puppy class. Robert E. Strawbridge won in the limit class for wired-haired fox terriers with Radnor Criterion, which was second to Endcliffe Pennant in the open class.

In the classes for smooth fox terriers, the famous Sabine kennels of Orange, Tex., had everything practically their own way. Sabine Recruit won in the open class for dogs, and also in the winners' class. Sabine Figent won in the limit open and winners' classes for smooth fox terriers.

A noted dog that attracted a great deal of attention, in the smooth fox terrier classes, was that of A. A. MacDonald of Toronto, Can. His Aldon Tipster, won in the limit class over Sabine Raven, but had to succumb to Sabine Recruit in the open class.

It was not till last night that the show got in full swing and then it seemed that nearly everybody was there. It was estimated 4,000 persons passed the gates at night.

The judging was most interesting, as the great array of toy dogs were in the ring, being passed upon by George S. Thomas. It was stated last night that the competition in the illiputian classes is the keenest in Pittsburgh of any of the shows, not excepting New York.

A great competition was the meeting between the Canadian Pomeranian Redcroft Darky, owned by Mrs. A. A. Macdonald of Toronto, Canada, and Lady Denby, owned by the Swiss Mountain kennels of Germantown, Pa., for the special for best American-bred. It was won by Lady Denby after one of the hottest competitions ever seen on the bench. Lady Denby was bred by S. S. Lesslie, Jr. She was formerly owned and exhibited by Mrs. Walter F. Render of Pittsburgh, who sold her at the New York show to the Swiss Mountain kennels, owned by Mrs. Frank Smyth, for a very handsome figure. Lady Denby won last night in all her classes and won winners for bitches.

Redcroft Darky won in all his classes and won winners for dogs in the Pomeranian class. This is the best of his breed in Canada. He was a big winner at the recent Buffalo show. He has won five gold medals and has six points toward the championship.

It was a great day for Mrs. W. F. Render, whose Lady Newby, a Pomeranian, won in the limit, and then with her and the Bantam won the Shadyside trophy outright for the best pair of American-bred Pomeranians. This cup has been in competition for four years. Mrs. Render also won the Newton Abbot trophy outright with The Bantam. This cup has also been in competition for four years. It must be won by a different dog each time and is for the best American-bred.

Miss Mossman, another Pittsburgher, won a special with her Pomeranian Shadyside Topsey for the best American-bred west of the Alleghenies. Miss Susie Love also did well with her Pomeranian Shadyside Snowball, capturing a second prize.

Mrs. Senn made a complete sweep with her Ruby spaniel champion Madame Patti and her Yorkshire champion Queen of the Fairies, unbeatable anywhere. She also captured everything in sight with her great Japanese spaniel champion Komo.

Mrs. B. L. Succop of the South Side made a splendid showing with her English toy spaniels. Col. Patch was second in limit and third in the open class, while her Marie Louisa was third in the limit. They met in competition professional exhibitors.

Miss Mary Sands of Pittsburgh won in the Blenheim class with her good one, Tobey Beck. This is the Waldorf winner of last fall.

Mrs. L. Leon of Columbus won in the English toy spaniel class last night with Unique Ladis, being placed over Mrs. Senn's Senn Senn Reliance. Mrs. Senn was very indignant over the decision.

The representative of the Swiss Mountain kennels had her English toy spaniel Solicitor protested because its name is not in the catalogue.

Great success for the show is already assured and the experiment of trying Duquesne garden has shown itself a wise one. The crowds last night would have swamped Old City Hall. This will be a much bigger day than yesterday, and more interesting.

WEALTHY YOUNG MAN SURRENDERS TO WIFE

Gives Up Thirteen Thousand When Arrested in Company With Stenographer.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

FINDLAY, O., April 4.—John O'Day, a prominent employe of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, a branch of the Standard Oil Company, is $13,000 poorer tonight on account of an alleged escapade with a stenographer this morning. O'Day is alleged to have been found in a West End resort by the police, who were told by his wife to arrest him. The stenographer and the oil man were arrested and taken to the police station. Behind the bars O'Day was compelled to assign $13,000 of Standard Oil stock to his wife.

O'Day was a popular young man and held a good position with the Buckeye company in its offices in this city. He was the owner of $30,000 of Standard Oil stock. He and his wife moved in the best circles. It is said that O'Day has been intoxicated for the past two weeks, and that his wife has been attempting to keep him at home. It is said she knew nothing, before his arrest, of his having been with the stenographer. It is said, however, that he had been keeping company with the young woman for some time.

Mr. O'Day is a nephew of Daniel O'Day, the New York millionaire Standard Oil magnate, who was for many years at the head of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company. The uncle has assisted the young man several times, it is said, when he has been in scrapes, and has given him positions in different parts of the country. He is said by the employes of the Standard company here to be an exceptionally bright young man, who always starts at the bottom, advances rapidly and is then discharged, being unable to stand prosperity. He is said to be a distant relative of John D. Rockefeller.

The police, it is said, are now after O'Day on another charge, he having been discharged after giving his wife the stock.

GEN. MILLER EXPLAINS.

Retiring Commander of National Guard Will Go Abroad and Younger Men Advance.

FRANKLIN, PA., April 4.—(Special.)—According to Maj.-Gen. Charles Miller, there are other than business reasons for his resignation as commander of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. His desire to give more time to his business affairs is the main reason. Mr. Miller says his guard duties cause much inconvenience to him.

He is frequently compelled to cancel business engagements because of a demand upon his time by his guard position. Gen. Miller said tonight that one reason why he resigned was that young men might rise in the organization. No less than 22 changes will be made by his resignation. He also contemplates an extended European trip. He says he regrets very much to leave the guard.

PROTEST AGAINST PURCHASE.

People of Baraboo Angered Over Selling of Land to Representative of Ore Company.

BARABOO, WIS., April 4.—(Special.)—The people of Baraboo and vicinity are angered over the report that W. C. Rodgers of Pittsburgh, of the American Refractory Company of West Virginia, had purchased 57 acres of land of Mrs. C. E. Martin on the east bluff of Devil's lake, with the intention of utilizing the quartzite rocks for making cement brick.

The protest made by the citizens is on the ground that the removal of the rock will mar the scenery of the lake, and in time ruin the place as a summer resort. Mr. Rodgers, representing the Pittsburgh Steel Company, has been here for two years prospecting for iron ore.

Defined Power of Councils.

HARRISBURG, April 4.—In an opinion today, replying to a question as to the liability of a borough for payment of expenses incurred in employing a physician to vaccinate school children whose parents were too poor to pay, and for which a borough council refused to make appropriation, Attorney General Carson says the council cannot arbitrarily refuse to make an appropriation.

Got Barber's Itch From Shaving—Worse Under Doctors' Care—Tried Everything and Was Discouraged—Railroad Official Cannot Praise Cuticura Too Much

CURED BY ONE SET OF CUTICURA—COST $1

"I want to send you a word of thanks for what the wonderful Cuticura Remedies have done for me. I got shaved and got barber's itch, and doctored with my own doctor; but it got worse all the time. I spent in all about fifty dollars with doctors, but still it got worse. A friend of mine wanted me to try the Cuticura Remedies. As I had tried everything, I was discouraged. I bought one set of the Cuticura Remedies (Soap, Ointment, and Pills, cost $1.00) and they cured me entirely, so I cannot praise them too much. I would be willing to do most anything for the promotion of a cause like the Cuticura Remedies. They are wonderful, and I have recommended them to every one where occasion demanded it. I think every family should know about the Cuticura Remedies where they have children."

Get What You Ask For!

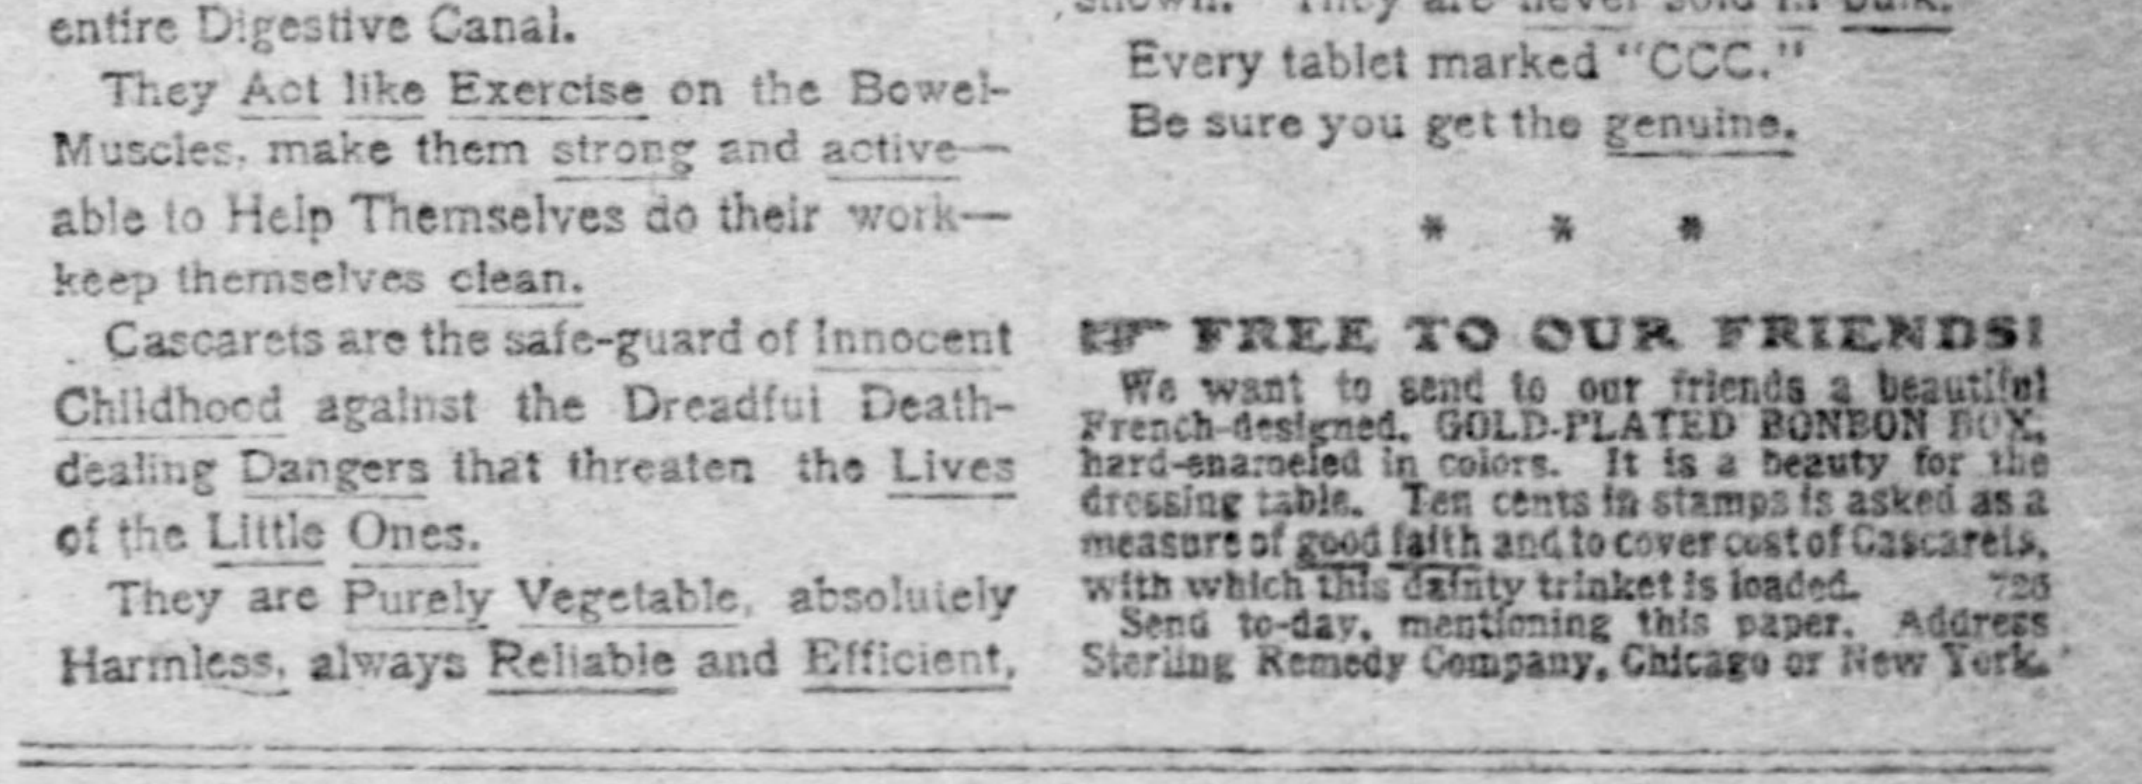
THERE is a Reason—
Why the Good People of America buy Cascarets as Fast as the Clock Ticks.

Every second some one, somewhere, is Buying a little Ten-Cent Box of Cascarets.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6—60 times to the Minute, 60 Minutes to the Hour. 3600 Boxes an Hour, 36,000 Boxes a Day of Ten Hours, 1,080,000 Boxes a Month, and then some.

Think of it—220,000 People take a Cascaret tablet each day. Millions use Cascarets when necessary.

The Judgment of Millions of Bright Americans is Infallible. They have been Buying and Taking Cascarets at that rate for over Six years.



It is not an Experiment, not an Accident or Incident, but a sound, Honest Business, based on Time-Tried-and-Tested Merit, never found wanting.

There is a Reason.

Cascarets are the implacable foe of All Disease Germs; the incomparable cleanser, purifier and strengthener of the entire Digestive Canal.

They Act like Exercise on the Bowel-Muscles, make them strong and active—able to Help Themselves do their work—keep themselves clean.

Cascarets are the safe-guard of Innocent Childhood against the Dreadful Death-dealing Dangers that threaten the Lives of the Little Ones.

They are Purely Vegetable, absolutely Harmless, always Reliable and Efficient, a true, faithful, loyal servant of Mankind.

Over Five Millions of Dollars have been Spent to make the merits of Cascarets known, and every cent of it would be lost, did not sound merit claim and hold the constant, continued friendship, Patronage and Endorsement of well-pleased people year after year.

There is also a Reason—
Why there are Parasites who attach themselves to the Healthy Body of Cascaret's success—Imitators, Counterfeiters, Substitutors.

They are Trade Thieves who would rob Cascarets of the "Good Will" of the people, and sneak unearned profits, earned and paid for by Cascarets.

IN PERIL OF HIS LIFE

BY EMILE GABORIAU

Author of "THE MYSTERY OF ORCIVAL," "FILE NO. 113," Etc.

(To Be Continued Tomorrow.)

"Indeed!"

"Yes. So we took him to the court house and I have come for orders."

"Run and say I am coming to see him!" cried M. Daubigeon. "Make haste! I am coming after you." Then turning to M. Galpin-Daveline he added excitedly, "We must know what this means at once."

"You will permit me to accompany you, I hope?" asked the investigating magistrate; who, receiving an affirmative reply, hastily donned his hat and overcoat. Then off they went, Mechinet following them as they hastened down the street, where the townsfolk, surprised by their flurried demeanor, opined that something very important must have happened. On drawing near to the court house they were forced to slacken their pace; for a dense crowd—waiting for the removal of the Count de Claudieuse's remains—occupied all the approaches. Suddenly the hubbub caused by four or five hundred excited voices was hushed; hats were raised, the crowd divided, and a passage was opened.

On the threshold of the palace appeared the priest from Brechy with two of his colleagues, behind whom came various attendants from the hospital, carrying a bier covered with black cloth. Beneath the latter the outlines of a human body could be seen. Several women in the crowd began to cry; and those who had room enough knelt down. "Poor countess!" one of them murmured. "Here is her husband dead, and they say one of her daughters is dying at home."

M. Daubigeon, the investigating magistrate and Mechinet were too pre-occupied with other matters to think of stopping here. They made their way into the building, and hastened to the clerk's office, where the gendarmes who had taken Frumence were now guarding him.

He rose as soon as he recognized the officials and respectfully took off his cap. It was really Frumence; but the vagrant did not have his usual careless appearance. He looked pale, and was evidently very excited.

"Well," said M. Daubigeon, "so you have allowed yourself to be captured?"

"I beg your pardon," replied the poor fellow. "I was not retaken. I came of my own accord."

"Involuntarily, you mean?"

"Quite by my own will! Just ask the sergeant."

The sergeant stepped forward, touched his cap, and reported. "That's the truth. Frumence came himself to the barracks and said, 'I surrender as a prisoner. I wish to speak to the public prosecutor and give important evidence.'"

The vagabond drew himself up proudly. "You see, sir," said he, "I did not lie. While these gentlemen were galloping all over the country in search of me, I was snugly ensconced in a garret at the Mouton Rouge, and did not think of coming out again till it was entirely forgotten."

"Yes; but people who lodge at the Mouton Rouge have to pay, and you have no money."

Frumence quietly drew from his pocket a handful of napoleons, together with several five-and-twenty-franc notes. "You see that I had the wherewithal to pay for my room," he said. "But I surrendered, because, after all, I am an honest man, and I would rather suffer trouble myself than see an honest gentleman go to the galleys."

"M. de Boiscoran?"

"Yes. He is innocent! I know it; I am sure of it; and I can prove it. And if he will not tell the truth, I will tell it—tell everything!"

M. Daubigeon and M. Galpin was utterly astounded. "Explain yourself," they both said in the same breath.

But the vagrant shook his head, pointing to the gendarmes; and, like one fully acquainted with all the formalities of the law, he replied: "But it is a great secret; and, when one confesses, one does not like anybody else but the priest to know what one has to say. Besides, I should like my deposition to be taken down in writing."

Upon a sign made by M. Galpin-Daveline, the gendarmes withdrew; and Mechinet took his seat at the table, with a blank sheet of paper before him.

"Now we can talk," said Frumence; "that's the way I like it. I myself did not think of running away from jail. I was pretty well off there; winter is coming, I hadn't a sou; and, besides I knew, that, if I were recaptured, I should fare rather badly. But M. Jacques de Boiscoran had a notion to spend a night in town."

"Mind what you are saying," interrupted M. Galpin-Daveline, severely. "You cannot play with the law, and get off unpunished."

"May I die if I do not tell the truth!" cried Frumence. "M. Jacques spent a whole night out of jail."

The investigating magistrate trembled. "What an invention!" he exclaimed.

"I have my proof," replied Frumence coldly, "and you shall hear. Well, as he wanted to leave, M. Jacques came to me, and, in consideration of a sum of money which he paid me, and of which you have just seen all that's left, we agreed that I should make a hole in the wall, and run off altogether, while he came back when he had finished his business."

"And the jailer?" asked M. Daubigeon.

Like a true peasant, Frumence was far too cunning to expose Blangin unnecessarily. Assuming, therefore, the whole responsibility of the escape, he replied—"The jailer knew nothing. We had no need of him. Was not I, so to say, under-jailer? Had not I been charged by you yourself, M. Galpin, to keep watch over M. Jacques? Was it not I who opened and locked his door, who took his to the parlor and brought him back again?"

This was the exact truth. "Go on!" said M. Galpin, harshly.

"Well," continued Frumence, "everything was done as agreed upon. One evening, about 9 o'clock, I made a hole in the wall, and there we were, M. Jacques and I, on the ramparts. He slipped a package of bank-notes into my hand, and told me to run for it, while he went about his business. I thought he was innocent then, though perhaps that, after all, he meant to go off altogether. I felt very curious on this point, and after hesitating a moment, I determined to find out the truth, and with that object I followed him!"

"Poor man!" murmured M. Daubigeon.

Although the public prosecutor and the investigating magistrate were accustomed by the nature of their profession, to conceal their feelings, they could hardly restrain now—one, the hope trembling withing him, and the other, the vague apprehensions which began to fill his heart. Mechinet, who already knew all that was coming, laughed in his sleeve while his pen flew rapidly over the paper.

"He was afraid he might be recognized," continued the vagrant, "and so he ran ever so fast, keeping close to the wall, and choosing the narrowest lanes. Fortunately, I have a pair of good legs. He went through Sauveterre like a racehorse; and, when he reached the Rue Mautrec, he rang the bell at a large gate!"

"At the Count de Claudieuse's house!"

"I know now what house it was; but I did not then. Well, he rings. A servant came and opened. He spoke to her, and immediately she asked him in, and that so eagerly, that she forgot to close the gate again."

At this point M. Daubigeon intervened, and filling up a blank form lying on the table, he rang the bell, and said to an usher who hastened in, "I want this to be taken immediately. Make haste; and not a word!"

Then Frumence was directed to continue. "There I was," said he, "standing in the middle of the street, feeling like a fool. I thought the only thing left was to be off. But that wretched, half-open gate attracted me. I said to myself, 'If you go in, and they catch you, they will think you have come to steal, and you'll have to pay for it.' That was true; but the temptation was too strong; so 'Come what may, I'll risk it,' I said. I pushed the huge gate just wide enough open to let me in, and there I was in a large garden. It was pitch dark; but three windows on the ground floor of the house were lighted up. I had ventured too far now to go back. So I went on, creeping as stealthily as possible until I reached a tree quite close to one of the lighted windows, which belonged to a beautiful room. Hiding behind the tree I looked and saw M. de Boiscoran in the room. As there were no curtains to the windows, I could see him as well as I now see you. His face had a terrible expression, and I was asking myself who he could be waiting for, when I saw him hide behind the open door of the room, like a man lying in wait for somebody, with evil intentions. This troubled me very much; but the next moment a lady came in. Instantly M. Jacques shut the door behind her; the lady turned round, saw him, and wanted to run, uttering at the same time a loud cry. That lady was the Countess de Claudieuse!"

Frumence looked as if he wished to pause so as to watch the effect of his revelation. But Mechinet was so impatient, that he forgot the modest character of his duty, and said hastily, "Go on; go on!"

"One of the windows was half open," continued the vagrant, "and thus I could hear almost as well as I saw. I crouched down on all fours, and kept my head on a level with the ground, so as not to lose a word. Oh, it was fearful. At the first word I understood everything; M. Jacques and the Countess de Claudieuse had been lovers."

"That's madness!" cried M. Galpin-Daveline.

"Well, I tell you I was amazed. The Countess de Claudieuse—such a pious lady! But I have ears; haven't I? M. Jacques reminded her of the night of the crime, how they had been together a few minutes before the fire broke out, having agreed some days before to meet near Valpinson that very evening. At this meeting they had burned their love-letters, and M. Jacques had blackened his fingers badly in burning them."

"Did you really hear that?" asked M. Daubigeon.

"As I hear you, sir."

"Write it down, Mechinet," said the public prosecutor with great eagerness—"write that down carefully." There was no fear of the clerk's neglecting to do so.

Frumence then continued his narrative, describing in full detail the scene he had witnessed, with which the reader is already acquainted. He was frequently interrupted by the ejaculations of the public prosecutor and the investigating magistrate, both of whom could scarcely control their excitement. When the vagrant had finished—having recounted the final episode, when M. de Claudieuse declared that with the view of making Jacques' condemnation sure he would swear he had recognized him—there followed a solemn pause. At last, in a tremulous voice, M. Daubigeon asked, "Why did you not come and tell us all that at once?"

The vagabond shook his head. "I meant to do so," he replied, "but I was afraid. You ought to understand what I mean. I was afraid I might be punished very severely for having run off."

"Your silence has led the court to commit a grievous mistake."

"I had no idea M. Jacques would be found guilty. Big people like him, who can pay great lawyers, always get out of trouble. Besides, I did not think the Count de Claudieuse would carry out his threat. To be betrayed by one's wife is hard, but to send an innocent man to the galleys——"

"Still, you see——"

"Ah, if I could have foreseen! My intentions were good, and I assure you, although I did not come at once to denounce the whole thing, I was firmly resolved to make a clean breast of it if M. Jacques should get into trouble. And the proof of it is, that instead of running off, and going far away, I very quietly lay concealed at the Mouton Rouge, waiting for the sentence to be published. As sooon as I heard what was done last night, I did not lose an hour, and surrendered at once to the gendarmes."

In the meantime M. Galpin had overcome his amazement, and now furiously cried, "This man is an impostor. The money he showed us was paid him to give false evidence. How can we credit his story?"

"We must investigate the matter," replied M. Daubigeon. He rang the bell, and when the usher came in he asked, "Have you done what I told you?"

"Yes, sir," was the reply. "M. de Boiscoran and the Count de Claudieuse's servant are here."

EDWARDS STRONG IN INDORSEMENTS

Candidate for Pittsburgh Postmastership Is Asked How Congressmen Stand.

QUESTION IS SIGNIFICANT

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM
L. W. STRAYER, Staff Correspondent.

Albert J. Edwards, who is a candidate for appointment as postmaster at Pittsburgh, today called upon the President and postmtster general to lay before him his claims to the office and his indorsements. He was escorted by Representative James F. Burke. President Roosevelt received Mr. Edwards cordially and listened to his statement.

"What attitude do your congressmen take toward your candidacy?" the President asked of Mr. Edwards.

"We have not yet arrived at any decision as to whom we will recommend," replied Mr. Burke.

The President then told Mr. Edwards he was pleased to have met him and that his claims would be given proper consideration. The question regarding the attitude of the congressmen is taken as signficant, it being construed that the President has no intention of enforcing the policy of reappointing efficient postmasters in the case of Pittsburgh. This policy is one that is enforced or ignored according to circumstances and there has been some speculation as to what the administration would do as regards Pittsburgh.

Mr. Edwards was also well received by Postmaster General Cortelyou, with whom he left his endorsements. In a letter to Mr. Burke, Mr. Edards outlines his support for the office as follows:

"I have filed in the department of the postmaster general an indorsement signed by every county official of Allegheny county, indorsements of the Fourth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, Eighteenth, Twenty-first, Twenty-third, Twenty-fifth, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-seventh ward executive committees, with letters from the chairmen of other ward committees, most of which I assure you came to me unsolicited.

"I have filed a petition handed to me without solicitation, from the Americus Repulican club, signed by the officers, trustees and more than 200 members of the club urging your support, a copy of which I inclose herewith.

"Among the men who have written letters on my behalf to the President and postmaster general are D. T. Watson, Esq., J. I. Buchanan, Esq., A. J. Logan, E. J. Lloyd, president of the M. and M. association, Hon. H. K. Porter, Hon. F. H. Collier, Hon. Marshall Brown, Hon. Elliott Rodgers, Hon. Josiah Cohen, Hon. David A. Wilbert, Hon. W. S. Woods, Hon. John P. Moore, Hon. Robert McWhinney, Hon. John J. Shenkel, Alexander M. Jenkinson, W. A. Magee, John A. Murphy, John F. Steel, Thomas G. McClure and Capt. Thomas M. Rees. Many other prominent professional and business men have written letters which are on file.

"Many letters from business firms are also on file, among which I may mention Arbuthnot Stephenson Company, W. J. Gilmore Drug Company, Kaufmann Bros., S. Ewart & Company, Dauler, Close & Johns, J. G. Weir & Son, Speck, Marshall & Company, McCann & Company, W. W. McBride Paper Company, the Lindsay Constructing Company, Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company and Pittsburgh Brewing Company.

DANIEL MAKES A PLEA FOR THE SUNNY SOUTH

Rate Bill Discussion in Senate Interrupted to Hear the Eloquent Vriginian.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—In the senate today Mr. Newlands discussed the railroad rate bill and Mr. Daniel the question of the lack of representation by the southern states in the public service. Mr. Newlands advocated amendments to the rate bill providing for the national incorporation of railroads and announced himself as favorable to the governmental ownership of those utilities.

Mr. Daniel's speech was based on a provision in the urgent deficiency appropriation bill for the representation of the United States at the next Pan-American congress to be held in Rio Janeiro next July. He said that the plans of the state department did not contemplate representation of the south or the far west, and then entered upon a general consideration of southern participation in public affairs, contending that political differences should not be permitted to prevent such participation on a broader scale.

The deficiency bill was amended so as to provide for more delegates, and as amended was passed.

RETAIL HEARINGS ARE NEARLY DISPOSED OF

May Be Completed Today, in Which Event Wholesale List Will at Once Be Started.

License court was held back to some extent yesterday owing to several long hearings, which took up the time of the court. Enough of the list was cleared up, however, to give promise that the retail applicants will all be given a hearing today.

George Wasmund of Wilmerding had a rather sensational half hour. He was asked about a man and a young girl who had been assigned a room in the house from which a case developed later in criminal court. Mrs. Wasmund said she had not seen the couple, did not know anything was wrong and told a bartender to assign them to a room. The police later arrested the man. A question concerning an alleged election fraud was also asked in this case, and after the examination was over Wasmund's attorney called Detcetive Green of the Anti-Saloon league, who testified that Wasmund kept the best house he had found in Wilmerding.

At the last February election the "wets" won in East Deer township, and there are four applicants. A fight was made on them by Attorney E. W. Arthur on the ground that the election was illegal, and other causes. Judge McClung said an election case could not be tried in license court, and refused to consider that phase of the remonstrance.

During the afternoon Judge McClung said that he had heard so many witnesses on necessity for hotel accommodations that one would believe thousands were crying for bread and shelter. He said no judge could believe it and he wanted that sort of evidence stopped.

Robert Jenkins of Jefferson township told the court a man had been shot and killed by his night watchman at his hotel, but he had been tried and acquitted for the act.

The court announced that he expected to finish the retail list today and to commence work on the wholesale list of applicants.

East End Gun Club Shoot.

The East End Gun club will open its trap shooting season on Saturday. Beginning promptly at 2 o'clock there will be practice shooting and optional sweepstakes. All shooters are invited to attend.

MAE WOOD'S SUIT AGAINST SENATOR PLATT AND OTHERS DISMISSED

MISS MAE C. WOOD.

OMAHA, NEB., April 4.—The sensational suit filed by Miss Mae C. Wood against United States Senator Thomas C. Platt, William Lobe, secretary to the president, and former Postmaster General Wynn for $150,000 damages was called in court today and dismissed by Judge Kennedy because no one appeared for the plaintiff.

RAILROAD WANTS STREET FOR FREIGHT HOUSE SITE

Pennsylvania Is After Church Avenue, and Ordinance for Vacation Is Now in Committee.

Pennsylvania railroad interests want Church avenue, Allegheny, vacated. It is understood that only that portion extending from Federal street to Anderson street is desired. This vacation is desired to give more room for the Pennsylvania's proposed new freight house for the West Penn and Eastern divisions. This building will extend from Federal to Anderson street. The old West Penn freight house site is to be a track yard for carload delivery to or from wagons.

"There has been no decision on a plan for the Allegheny freight house," said Superintendent R. T. Morrow, of the West Penn division, last evening. "Two or three plans are under consideration. It may be a few days only until a plan is decided on, or it may be a few weeks or months, but the new freight house will be built this summer."

An ordinance is now in committee in Allegheny councils for vacating Church avenue from Federal street to Anderson street. This ordinance was presented almost a year ago, it being understood then that the Pennsylvania considered the vacation of the avenue in a neutral light. Now that the company wants this vacation, it is probable the ordinance will either be called from committee or a new ordinance presented.

GETTING READY FOR THE BATTLE

Republican Congressmen Select Members of Campaign Committee to Serve This Year.

CANNON COUNSELS CARE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The Republicans of the senate and house of representatives met in joint caucus at the close of the session of the house today, and selected members of the Republican congressional campaign committee. Senator Allison called the caucus to order. In doing so he directed attention to the fact that this was the first step in a campaign which would doubtless prove very interesting and the importance of which already was apparent. He nominated Speaker Cannon as presiding officer of the meeting and the speaker was received with applause. He, too, spoke briefly of the situation, indicating that the campaign already was being made and the result in November depended on legislation now being enacted. He counselled carefulness, a strict attention to business, economy and justness in appropriations.

The committee was then named. A meeting of the committee for organization will be called either the last of this week or the first of next.

The members selected on the committee are as follows: California—J. C. Needham; Colorado, F. M. Hogg; Connecticut, George L. Lilley; Delaware, Hiram S. Burton; Idaho, Burton L. French; Illinois, J. REACHING THE MORMONS.

The Rev. John D. Nutting Tells of Work of Utah Gospel Mission.

The Rev. John D. Nutting of Cleveland, secretary of the Utah Gospel mission, gave an illustrated lecture before the students of the Western Theological seminary last night. He talked about the Mormons and the necessity of taking the gospel to them, and said it was the aim of the Utah Gospel mission to reach every Mormon home at least once a year with a gospel visit, leaving specially prepared reading matter.

The gospel workers live in wagons so constructed as to be comfortable in winter, having stoves, cooking utensils and bedding. He urged that active men enter the field for at least a short time, both for the training they would receive and the good they would do for others.

FATHER ASKS COURT TO AWARD CHILDREN

Hugh Dickson Claims His Wife Took Them Away and Refuses Access to Them.

Hugh Dickson has applied for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain possession of his two children, at present in the custody of his wife, Laoma Dickson. Dickson claims his wife deserted him last January, taking the children with her, and has refused to permit him to see them.

The jury in the divorce case of William H. Gross against Annie S. Gross gave Gross a divorce on the ground of desertion. Mrs. Gross defended the suit on the grounds of cruelty, and said her husband wished to divorce her in order to bar her from enjoying an inheritance he has lately come into.

An opinion was handed down refusing to take up the compulsory non-suit in the case of James Kifer against the Public Trust Company. Kifer sued to recover $6,000 commission for bringing about the merger of the Public Trust Company and the International Savings and Trust Company, but the case was non-suited.

Charters were granted to the Allegheny Valley General Hospital of Tarentum, and to the Manchester Young Men's Christian association.

George Kerick entered suit to recover $5,000 damages from George Maczibaba for alleged malicious prosecution.

A. S. Patterson, receiver of the Pittsburgh Concrete Company, was given permission to work on the Second ward school, Allegheny, for 30 days, when he will make another report.

L. A. Brooks of Wilmerding, Morris Forst of Pittsburgh, and Henry Muth of Allegheny, pleaded guilty to selling adulterated food and were fined.

An order was made allowing John Scott Shoupe to adopt William John Ransey, his 28-year-old step-son.

PIRATES BEAT LITTLE ROCK IN ONE INNING--GENERAL SPORTS

COLLEGE AND NON-PROFESSIONAL SPORTING BY RICHARD R. GUY

PIRATES PLAY AT LITTLE ROCK

Joe Nealon Hits for Two Bases and Drives Three Runs Over the Plate.

YOUNG PITCHERS HIT FREELY

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., April 4.—(Special.)—Before the Pirates left Hot Springs this morning on the barnstorming tour Center Fielder Beaumont denied that there is any truth in the report circulated here for two or three days that he has asked President Dreyfuss for his release. "I have made no such request of either Dreyfuss or Clarke," he said with emphasis. Beaumont is, nevertheless, dubious about getting into proper condition, but his fears are not shared by the management of the Pittsburgh club, and it is not likely that the popular center fielder will withdraw without a full and free trial.

The trip to Little Rock was without incident. All the members of the squad that will remain at the Springs assembled at the Choctaw station to say goodby to their teammates, and President Dreyfuss was mingling with the Pirate band shaking hands and giving final admonitions to some of the youngsters.

On account of the dissatisfaction given by Stuart as umpire in the series played by Little Rock at Hot Springs, it was expected that there would be some felonious home umpiring here today, but Chief Zimmer was entirely fair and the umpires selected from the opposing clubs gave complete satisfaction.

There was a big crowd for the contest and the rooting for the home club was noisy at all stages. There was all kinds of ginger on the bleachers, until the Pirates took a big lead in the fifth inning, and after that the rooters were rank quitters.

Little Rock had the advantage of the hitting, both the Pirate youngsters being touched up rather freely, but the visiting team bunched bingles, while Little Rock was assembling misplays, with the result that there was a quintette of runs. "Cy" Watt had proved very effective up to that time, but he allowed Ritchey to walk and then gave Carisch a rib-soaker. Leifield bunted and forced Ritchey at third, but Clarke's single scored Carisch and Ganley's single crowded the sacks. After Clymer had gone out on an infield fly, Wagner was swiped with the sphere, forcing a run over the plate, and Nealon brought in three more with a long two-bagger to center field.

The playing of Carisch was not as accurate as usual, but Joe Nealon and Otis Clymer played star fielding games, and the Indian Nefeau shone in similar performances for Little Rock.

Leifield officiated on the rubber for five innings, during which all the runs were made, while Moskiman did not give the home club more than one hit to the inning. In the ninth he prevented the home club from scoring after Bemis had driven the longest hit of the day out to deep center and had reached third on it.

Tonight the club will depart on a special sleeper for Nashville, where two games will be played, and on Sunday Evansville will be met. Whether the team will remain there until the opening of the championship season at St. Louis or will continue the trip, meeting Terre Haute, Decatur and Springfield, depends entirely upon the condition of the weather in the towns where exhibition games have been scheduled. Capt. Clarke declares that he will take no chance in getting any of his players out of form by playing cold weather games. Score:

EIGHTH CLUB IN THE P. O. M. LEAGUE WILL BE ADMITTED TODAY

It will be known definitely at noon today whether or not Uniontown will be a member of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Maryland league, or whether the Fairmont-Clarksburg team will be admitted in its stead. At a meeting of the league yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Henry, this city, both Uniontown and Fairmont-Clarksburg had representatives present. But Uniontown failed to show up with its check, while Tom Haymond, who represented the West Virginias had a $500 check stowed away in his wallet as an evidence of his readiness to do business.

Mr. Clark, who represented Uniontown, immediately got in communication with Uniontown people over the long distance telephone, but he failed to land the right parties. He assured the managers that if given until noon today he would have the check sent the president of the league. In the event of Uniontown not coming to the front the Fairmont-Clarksburg team will be admitted and the league will be ready for business. Haymond said he was satisfied with the arrangements.

If Uniontown enters the league again it will be managed by Jake Magie, who played middlefield for the Altoona Tri-State league club last year. Jimmy Groninger was engaged by the former regime to handle the club, but since other parties have assumed control he will not be engaged as manager at least.

The meeting yesterday was well attended, J. T. Thompson of Steubenville being the only absentee. His proxy was held by G. Y. Travis of East Liverpool. Quite a few players dropped into the hotel to confab with the managers, Harvy Hollis, Bill Glassburner, Ed Murphy, the Washington captain and others were there.

Kiski's old second baseman, Harkins, who is now interested in the East Liverpool team, accompanied Mr. Travis to the meeting.

NORTH BRADDOCK WINS TWO GAMES

Defeats the Ungers in the Second Series for the County Bowling Championship.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.	Pins.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.
Federal versus Unger, on the St. Joseph alleys.

On Seng's Braddock alleys last night the Ungers and North Braddocks met in the second series of contests for the Allegheny County league championship. An enormous crowd witnessed this important contest, and the North Braddocks won two out of three games. The second game was the best, when the Ungers chalked up the good score of 890. The last game was the most interesting, and it was nip and tuck in the last frame as to which team would be victorious. Most all the bowlers struck out in the last frame, and thereby the Ungers were unable to overcome the lead which the North Braddocks had gained from the fifth frame.

The Ungers lost two out of three games, but beat their opponents 79 on total pins. None of the boys played up to his standard, but the games were exciting all the way through.

Dunstbier was the star bowler with best average. He was closely followed by Meyers and Melfeit. Higgins was the only double century bowler in the combination. Dougherty took McCabe's place in the second game and did some fine work, being the only man who went through the contest without an error.

In the summary the North Braddocks made four more errors than the Ungers and also had three more railroads. The strike competition was almost even, but the Ungers chalked up the most spares. Following are the general results of the match:

Ungers—	St.	Sp.	R.	E.	1	2	3	T'ls.

CHIC. CARGO OBJECTS TO SOUTHERN LEAGUE

Chic. Cargo, the well-known local baseball player, who was with the York Tri-State and the Albany, New York State league teams last year, has been sold by Albany to the New Orleans, Southern league club. He objects to the transfer, and yesterday declared that unless Albany consented to rescind the sale he would jump to York or make arrangements to play with a club in the P. O. M. league. Cargo prefers playing in the P. O. M. because he would be near home.

Cargo started last season with Albany, but jumped to York and for a while was setting the league afire, fielding and batting. He holds the individual batting record for one game in the Tri-State. He, however, jumped back to Albany where he finished the season.

ALLEGHENY HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS ARE INDIGNANT

Controller Adam Hahn's Views on Their Alleged Immodesty Arouses Ire of the Maidens.

"Oh, isn't it horrid to think Mr. Hahn would say such things about us."

"And to think he said we are not modest, and would walk through the committee rooms in bloomers without bushing."

Such remarks as these were common in the Allegheny High school corridors yesterday as the young women congregated in little knots to discuss the address made by Adam Hahn before the Allegheny Board of School Controllers Tuesday night. The girls were indignant and they could hardly give their lessons proper attention. They say they do not play basketball with the boys; that they only wear the regulation gymnasium suits, and that the only time they are seen by any of the other sex is when a boy comes in to coach them in the game, and then only in the presence of the gymnastic director.

"I well know Mr. Hahn's views on the subject, and was not greatly surprised," said Supt. Morrow yesterday. "But he is mistaken in saying he saw a number of girls playing with boys. We only allow one or two boys to play with them once in a while to strengthen the game, and then in the presence of the director. The day he was there was the last day of basketball, and he saw a few of the girls in the corridor drinking at the fountain. They wear the regulation gymnastic costume worn by girls in all schools."

JAY GOULD KEEPS ON WINNING GAMES

Defeats Joshua Crane in the Semi-Final of the Tennis Championship.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Jay Gould of Lakewood, N. J., who is entered from the Tuxedo Racquet and Tennis club, gave another fine exhibition as a court tennis player in the first match of the semi-final round of the national championship tournament on the New York club's court today. His opponent was Joshua Crane, Jr., of Boston, who held the amateur court tennis championship title from 1901 to 1904.

Gould won the first set by 6 games to 4, but lost the next two by 3 to 6 each. Crane assumed a good lead in the fourth set, having the upper hand by a score of 5 to 2.

Just at this stage the pace began to tell on Crane, while Gould showed no signs of weariness. In a plucky uphill fight Gould won three straight games, making it a "vantage" set, which he won by 7 to 5. This made the score two all, and the Lakewood boy had little difficulty in winning the next set by 6-2, which gave him the match. Score: Gould beat Crane, 6-4, 3-6, 3-6, 7-5, 6-2.

RATTAN'S RAT-TAT-TAT ECHOES IN SCHOOL BOARD

Mt. Albion Directors Discuss the Bumps Which a Double Whipping Produced on a Schoolboy.

The double whipping which Miss Anna Young, teacher, administered to Ralph Longmore at the McCleary school in the Eighteenth ward, was the subject of a discussion by the Mt. Albion school board last night. Director Henry Dengler said if any teacher whipped his boy that way he would clean out the school.

"Frightful bumps stood out on the boy's body," said Dengler.

According to the unbiased statement of his parents Longmore is a model youth, who treasures highly the Bible which was given to him in Sunday school for good behavior. His teacher tells a different story, however.

Director John H. Mahoney said he saw the boy after the whipping. "He looked as if he had got pretty near all that was coming to him," said Mahoney, "but the whippings were no more severe, probably, than his behavior warranted."

Miss Young whipped the boy twice with a rattan. According to Principal William A. Proudfit, Longmore was playing about the school yard after the whipping. There being no formal charges, the matter was dropped by the board.

AN IDEAL DAY AT BENNINGS

FAST TRACKS ALL AROUND

WASHINGTON, April 4.—This was an ideal spring day for the racing at Bennings. The crowd, attracted by the beautiful weather and the promise of fine sport, was large and enthusiastic. The grandstand looked like a flower garden, the handsome toilets of the women lending a blaze of color to the somber background. The track had dried out and was fast, but dusty.

The sixth gave promise of being the event of the day, but the race was narrowed by scratches to a three-horse affair. It was a handicap at a mile, with some of the best horses at the track entered. With the scratching of Bellsnicker, Workman and Northville, the race seemed to be between Bobbie Kean and Sailor Boy. The latter was made the favorite, the idea being that Bobbie Kean could not give him 16 pounds and a beating. The two were nearly even favorites until near post time, when Sailor Boy was made the favorite by two points. The race was Bobbie Kean's all the way. He went out in front and never was in danger, finishing a winner with lengths to spare.

Hyperion, always a favorite, accounted comparatively easily for the first. Any sort of odds were offered on the remainder of the field, although Weirdsome was strongly fancied. Suffice was heavily played and managed to take the place from the Veiled Lady.

Town Topics had little difficulty in landing the second race. After Rye Boy and Lucy Strome were left at the post, Jobstown went out. He was given a very bad ride, turning into the stretch far on the outside. Mary Custis, carefully ridden by Burns, got into a good place when straightened out and beat Jobstown for the place by a narrow margin.

The Vagabond was made the favorite for the third, but was unable to make good. Jack McKeon went to the front early and held the race safe at all times. Judge White nipped the place from Dekaberer.

Al Powell, an odds-on favorite, tow-roped his field in the fourth. Orphan Lad, which ran an excellent race, closed fast in the stretch, but was only good enough to get the place from Mode.

Paeon won the fifth as he pleased. Miller took him out in front and gave the others a beating they will remember. Zany, which has been placed several times, landed second money again, with the strongly touted Kuro third. Summaries:

BECKER AND WOOD WILL CONTEST TODAY

Championship Trophy Depends on the Result of Their Meeting Today on the Links.

PINEHURST, N. C., April 4.—C. L. Becker of the Woodland club, Auburndale, and W. K. Wood of the Homewood club, Chicago, will meet in tomorrow's 36-hole final round for the championship trophy as a result of today's 36-hole semi-final round of the sixth annual championship tournament.

Mr. Becker's defeat of George T. Brokaw of Garden City was not only the surprise of the day, but of the week, for the Garden City player has generally been regarded from the first as the winner of the tournament. The Massachusetts player, however, caught him a bit off his game and put him out of the running by a score of 5 down and 4 to play on the 14th green.

Both men were going fast with medal play scores of 78 and 80 for the morning round, Mr. Becker having a lead of 2 up at noon. This he increased to 4 up at the turn, on the 12th green. Mr. Brokaw took the 14th, but lost the match with a halved hole on the 16th.

E. M. Bames of Englewood and L. W. Wardwell of Meguntitcook, Me., are survivors in the first division consolation, both having easy matches today, Mr. Bames defeating Norman Towne of Glenview, 6 and 5, and Mr. Wardwell defeating A. Havemeyer of Seabright, 10 and 9.

The material in the freshman class has not been given a try-out, owing to the poor condition of the track.

SOCIETY

Contributions to this department must bear the name and address of the writer to insure attention.

FRIDAY afternoon, April 27, Miss Gertrude Childs, who is to be one of the party of bridesmaids at the marriage of Miss Mary Park and Raymond Perry Rodgers Neilson, will entertain the entire bridal party at a luncheon to be given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Childs, Jr., in Bidwell street, Allegheny. The same evening Miss Park's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Park, of Western avenue, Allegheny, will give the rehearsal dinner.

The wedding invitations will go out in a day or two and will read for April 28 instead of 27, as was originally planned for, but the original hour and place, 12 o'clock, and Trinity Protestant Episcopal church, Pittsburgh, will remain the same. Owing to the detention of his vessel in southern waters, Mr. Neilson, who ranks as midshipman, was unable to arrive in time for the earlier date.

Carnival of Nations.

A Carnival of Nations will be given in the banquet room of the chapel of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church on Thursday and Friday evenings, April 19 and 20, under the auspices of the Semper Fidus club, composed of the young women of the church. Twelve nations will be represented, and the young women in charge of the different features will appear in the costume of the country presented. The committees planning for the carnival include the following:

Pretty East End Wedding.

An informal but prettily appointed ceremony solemnized the marriage of Miss Hattie B. Hoobler and Norman Freed Brown last evening at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Croskey, Atlantic avenue, East End. The Rev. Warren G. Partridge, pastor of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church, of which the bride is a communicant, officiated at 7:30 o'clock. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, was gowned in white messaline satin trimmed with duchess lace. Her veil of tulle was caught with orange blossoms and a bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley was carried. Miss Emma Myers, the maid of honor and only attendant, wore pink lace and carried pink sweet peas. Addison Brown of Philadelphia was groomsman and the ushers were William Brendlinger of New York and Charles Chalfant. The party stood in the parlor before an embankment of tall foliaged plants and azalias. Daffodils and other spring flowers added to the attractiveness of the dining-room, while the library was done in red. The bridal table was set in an upstairs apartment and had a centerpiece of pink and white roses. Mrs. Croskey wore lace trimmed messaline, while Mr. Brown's mother, Mrs. M. A. Brown, was in gray crepe de chine. At the conclusion of a wedding trip to Palm Beach the young couple will live in a new home in Atlantic avenue.

To Spend Easter by the Sea.

Atlantic City, as usual, seems the favorite Mecca for Pittsburghers during the Easter season. Among the recent pilgrims are Mrs. George W. Dilworth, Fifth avenue, East End, who left Tuesday night accompanied by her son-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lockhart and Miss Pauline Dilworth. They are stopping at the Chalfonte.

Mrs. James Jewett Turner of Walingford street, Shadyside, and her children, Miss Anna Churchman Turner and James Jewett Turner, Jr., who will leave today for a week's visit at the shore, will also stop at the Chalfonte, where they will be joined by Miss Rebecca Turner, who is a pupil at Miss Wright's Bryn Mawr school.

Miss Edith Florence Johnson of Ellsworth avenue and St. James street, will also go east today to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson, at the Traymore.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Larimer King of Center avenue, Shadyside, and their sons, John Millard and Gordon Coltart King, are guests at the Dennis.

To Celebrate Silver Wedding.

Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. William W. Stamm of South Twenty-second street will celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary with a reception for 200 relatives and friends. They will be assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. Henry W. Nickel and Miss Alma Nickel, Mrs. Jacob Herman, Miss Hettie Drum and Miss Belle Patterson. The Rev. Peter Brandt, pastor of the St. Paul's German Lutheran church, South Side, who performed the marriage ceremony, will be present, together with the attendants, Mrs. Charles McCarty, who was then Miss Louise Harr, Mrs. Treusch, formerly Miss Elizabeth Neu, Edward Seilken and Richard Roessler. Apropos of the occasion the decorations will be carried out in silver and pink. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Stamm was Miss Amelia S. Harr of South Twenty-fourth street, where the marriage took place.

For Two Eastern Girls.

An informal little luncheon will be given this afternoon by Miss Lois McElroy of Reynolds street, East End, to meet Miss Roberta Peck of Lock Haven, who is visiting Miss Jean Elizabeth Roberts, Howe street, and Miss May Friedman of Philadelphia, the guest of Miss Aimee Leona Weil of Howe street. In addition to the honor guests and their hostesses, covers will also be laid for Miss Minnie Agnes and Miss Lorraine Beatty, Miss May Klinefelter and Mrs. George Eberhardt.

Following the luncheon Miss Roberts will entertain informally at "500." The same game was played yesterday afternoon at a small party given by Miss Klinefelter at her home in Walnut street. The prize winners were Miss Lorraine Beatty, Miss Janet Bryce and Miss Nellie Waartz.

Bellevue Couple to Wed.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Seaman and John E. Bingham of Bellevue will take place at 6 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Seaman, Lincoln avenue. The Rev. Dr. George Shaffer, pastor of the Bellevue Methodist Protestant church, will officiate, assisted by the Rev. H. L. Smith of the Methodist Episcopal church. Miss Seaman will be attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. G. W. Seaman, as matron of honor, while Rowland Hadley of Crafton will serve as best man. After June 1 the couple will be at home in Florence avenue, Bellevue.

Colonial Ball in Thornburg.

A colonial ball will be given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thornburg of Thornburg to celebrate the one-hundredth anniversary of the acquisition of the land on which Thornburg now stands by the members of that family. "Cobblestone," a vacant house on the Thornburg property will be opened and decorated for the event. The guests will wear masks and costumes of 100 years ago. The minuet, money musk, the Virginia reel and other old-fashioned dances will form the amusements of the evening.

Engagement Is Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Clark of South Rebecca street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bessie Headrick Clark, to Robert Liddell Wickline of Sharpsburg. It is expected the engagement will terminate in an early fall wedding. Mr. Wickline is connected with the Peoples National bank and is president of the Allegheny City Epworth League Union. Miss Clark was educated at Beaver college and Washington seminary.

Hartley-Bundy.

Miss Laura M. Hartley of Quaker City, O., and Othel S. Bundy of the Pittsburgh Steel Company, were married at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Findley. After an extended southern trip the young couple will live in Harrison avenue, Allegheny.

Postpone Recital.

The recital announced to be given in the Park Place hotel, Sewickley, tonight, by Mrs. Lugi Von Kunits and Mrs. Severin O. Frank, has been postponed to a date to be announced shortly.

Personal Mention.

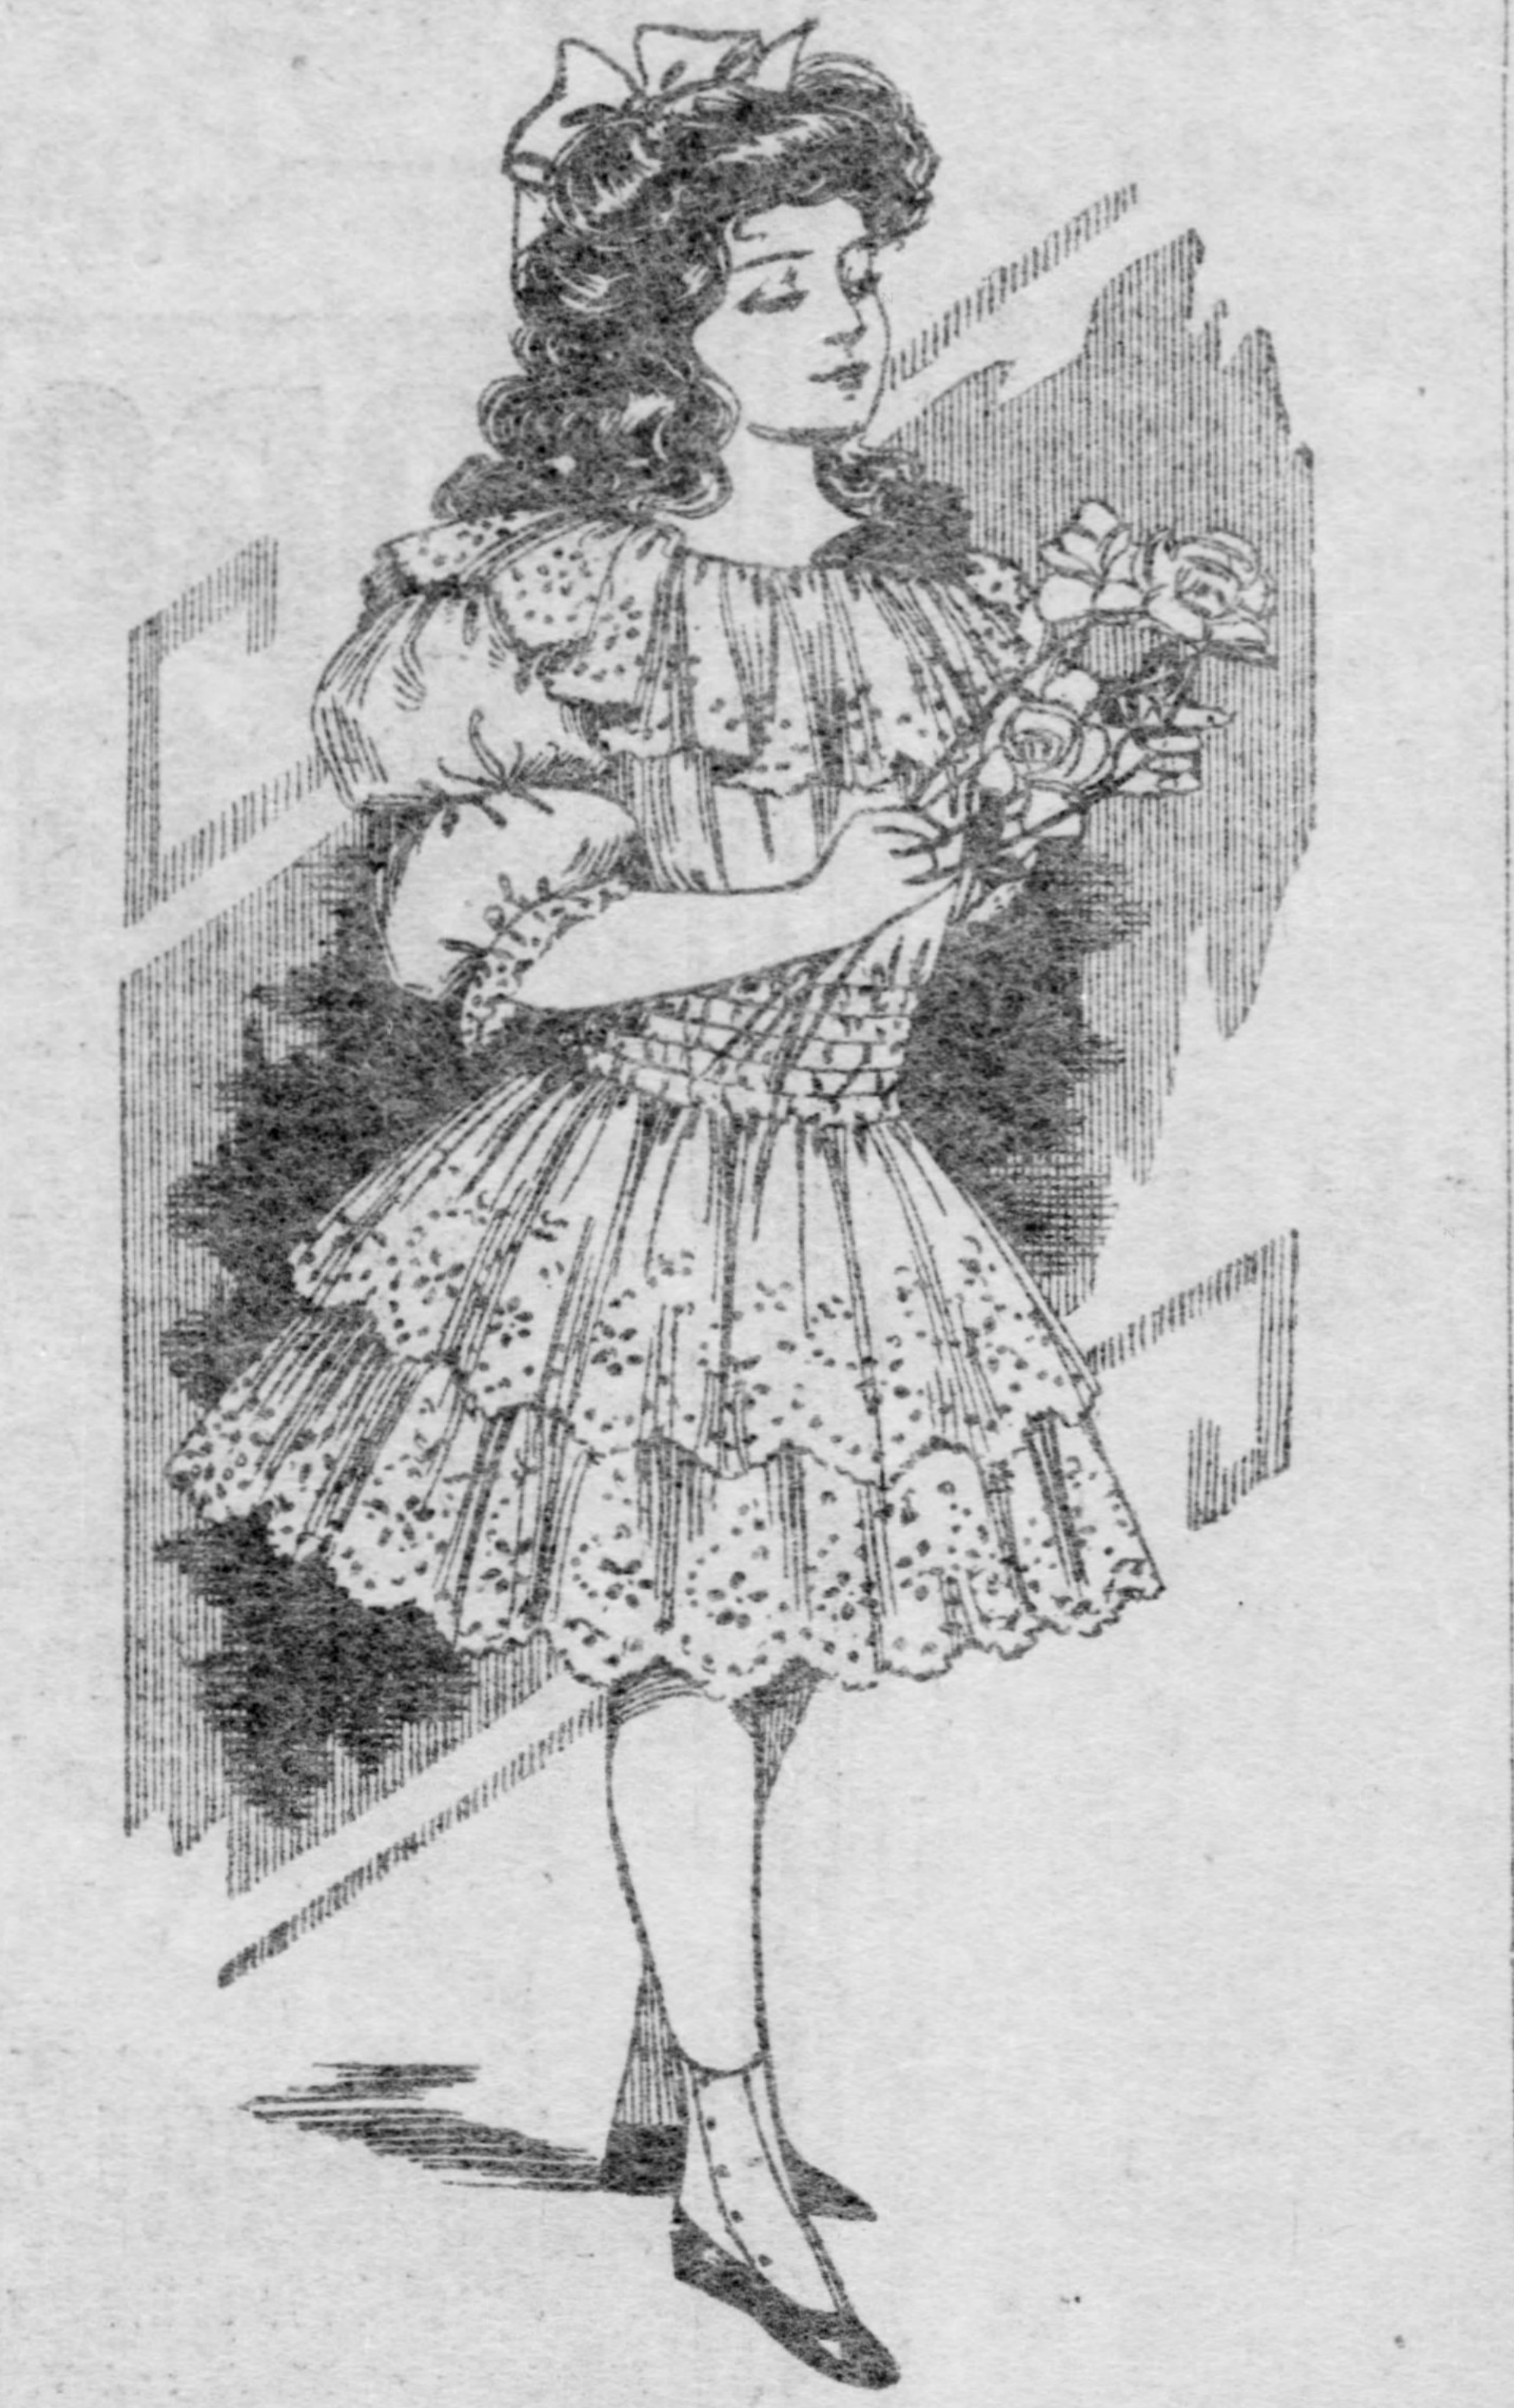
Mrs. George S. Abraham of Forbes street, Shadyside, who has been spending the winter in Porto Rico, will arrive in New York on Easter Monday. Mr. Abraham, together with Mr. and Mrs. Webster R. Balsinger (the latter a sister of Mrs. Abraham) of the Bellefield Dwellings, will leave in a few days for Atlantic City, where they will make a little visit before going on to the metropolis to meet Mrs. Abraham.

Mrs. Mary A. Brown of Atlantic avenue, East End, will leave Saturday night for Philadelphia, where she will spend two weeks at the Bellevue-Stratford before going to Lakewood, N. J., for an extended sojourn.

Mrs. Andrew Fleming of Allegheny and Western avenues, Allegheny, with her daughter, Mrs. Albert D. Fell of Philadelphia, will leave today for a month's sojourn at Mt. Clemens.

Dr. and Mrs. Cyrus B. King are again at their home in Western avenue, Allegheny, after a five-weeks' Mexican trip.

THE GAZETTE FASHION



LITTLE PRINCESSE OF EMBROIDERED LINEN.

Children's fashions this year are but miniature editions of those created for their elders. An example is shown in the marvelous little frock of white embroidered linen made en princesse. The skirt is formed of two deep ruffles, being shirred into the figure about the waistline. The bodice is only full enough for the preservation of a graceful outline, with too much of the blouse effect. A ruffle of handsome embroidery finishes the low, round neck and the puffed sleeves are separated by bands of shirring.

Broderie Anglaise, one of the most fashionable decorations in the way of handmade trimmings this season is used a great deal for little misses' dresses. This design can be made of taffeta in white, cream, pale blue, pink or rose, the embroidery carrying out the eyeletted effect. There are no children's spats, as is the case of women's footgear, but little girls' shoes have tops of soft kid in all the leading colors of the season. These usually match the color of the dress, and the one-tone effect is further carried out by stockings of silk or finest lisle corresponding with the shoe tops. The vamps, of course, are of patent leather.

Fads and Fancies Concerning Stones.

The diamond is passed, although the day for it will likely never pass altogether. Rubies also are not now considered in the best taste. These gems still remain the highest in price with emeralds a close third. This is the day of the neglected stones—the alexandrites, white and pink cat's eyes, carbuncles and pink and yellow sapphires. The alexandrite is a very beautiful stone, prominent just now in the fastidious woman's engagement ring. It possesses the remarkable quality of changing in color from a greenish yellow in daytime to a glowing red at night. When circled by diamonds it is fascinating. It is also effectively set in gypsy rings with emeralds and sapphires. The stone is said to protect its wearer from footpads and to cure insomnia if the wakeful one will but gaze steadily into its depths after it has changed color. It is considered a very lucky stone and in the east is used as a love charm. Carbuncles are being set with moonstones, but the combination, while striking, can hardly be termed artistic.

This stone has one serious defect. The superstitious say it develops black spots which are a sure sign of impending misfortune. When a black spot appears on a carbuncle worn by a Hindoo he promptly makes it a present to his dearest enemy. The cat's eye is held to be a charm against sickness. To lose a cat's eye is to invite personal calamity. There is a Chinese pebble which is sometimes sold for the cat's eye, but a veritable cat's eye when surrounded with diamonds, makes a magnificent ornament. Nizam of Hyderabad a few years ago paid $25,000 for the cat's eye which he wears on his turban of state. It is a stone as large as a pigeon's egg and develops at times a marvelous and fearsome light in its depths, at which time it is said to give the prince the power of second sight so that he is enabled to perceive and checkmate the machinations of his enemies.

Cottage China.

For the woman who has wisely decided to pass her summer in comfort with her family at the country cottage rather than crowded in limited quarters in more or less stuffy hotels, this is the time to look up decorative effects for the country home.

Chintzes, cretonnes, dimities and nets are all shown in the newest designs and shadings so that an early selection is advisable. For the dining room nothing could be more quaintly decorative in effect than the cottage china. You will not find it labeled under exactly that phaseology—if you do the prices will probably show a corresponding increase—but the woman of taste and ingenuity can fix her color scheme firmly in mind and make her selections unhampered by considerations of price and nomenclature.

In many country house dining rooms built in china sheives, racks and cabinet closets will suffice for furnishment if a proper selection of china be made. An effective Holland ware has every piece divided between a band of solid green and its rim landscape, which is painted on a deep cream colored foundation. If you will look about a little you will readily find something to harmonize with wall paper and woodwork in the varieties of pottery and china now on sale. Apart from articles of ordinary utility there are numerous pretty designs in flower vases, either stand or the hangers now in vogue, cracker jars, quaint milk bowls and pitchers, candlesticks, print placques and fruit and nut bowls.

Chicken Goulash.

Cut into dice two medium size raw potatoes. Heat in a pan two tablespoonfuls of olive oil, and when hot add the potato. Stir and cook for five minutes, then add a dash of paprika, a cupful of boiling water, a crushed bean of garlic, a cupful of cold minced chicken or a can of boned chicken. Season to taste. Cover and cook until the potatoes are done.

Stripes In Favor.

Striped shirtings are to be very popular this year, especially for morning wear. The new and pretty striped, pink and white, blue and white and pale green and white in coarse linens and cottons are to be greatly favored. They will be made up in the plain tailored fashion without trimming.

Preparing Flower Beds.

As soon as the soil is dry enough to handle with shovel or spade commence on your flower beds. Throw the soil up in the center as high as possible and allow it to stand thus for a month. This will bring you within a week or two of the time when it is safe to plant out your flowers. If you wish a very early start you can plant out the first week of May, but watch out for the frost and cover your plants with papers or light cloths every night. There is sure to be a slight frost after the 20th of May every year. All gardeners expect it and will tell you it never fails. However, that need not dismay you as the light coverings suggested will protect the plants form damage and you may have three weeks' start with your garden.

A few days before you intend to put in your plants, scatter the soil down and smooth evenly over the beds and borders. Allow it to lie until you are ready to set the plants, when it should be raked and fined as usual. This treatment will render your soil fine and mellow and it will require but one-third the usual quantity of fertilizer. The aeration given adds greatly to its store of nitrogen which is an important quality. If a garden fork is available and you can handle it, you will find it better than a spade or shovel, but few people use a fork intelligently. The proper ridging under of the top soil and ridging out of the under soil is not secured and unless this is accomplished the labor is in vain.

Soil which is composted in the spring to be used for autumn pottings should be handled in this manner. If you go through this process twice during the summer, you will have the finest possible potting soil in the autumn, and need no addition of any fertilizer the winter through. There would be less need of fertilizers if people appreciated the quantity nature has stored in the air, ready for the taking.

Your Good Health.

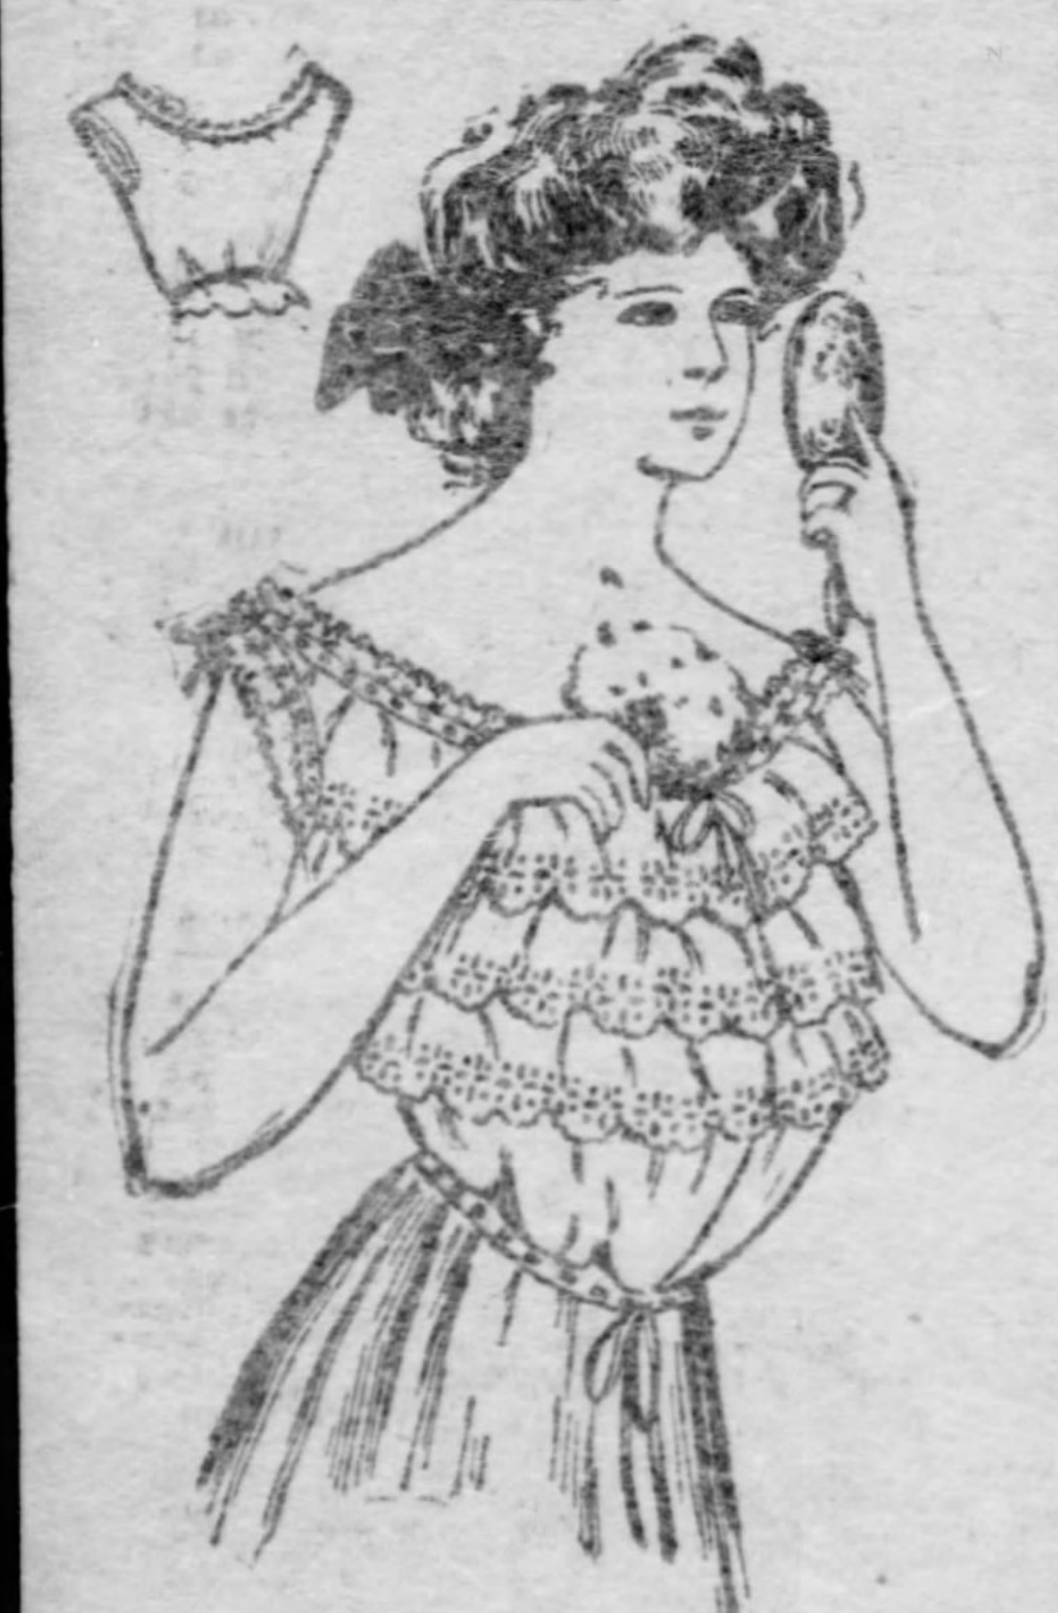
Nervous brakedown is more often due to overworking the digestive organs than to mental strain. Abstemious habits in eating, together with some attention to exercise and fresh air, make it possible for one to do a large amount of brain work without injury.

If a child bumps his head, an application of witch hazel as warm as can be borne will take out all soreness and prevent swelling. A little oil rubbed on afterward will finish the good work and prevent discoloration. Vaseline or butter will have much the same effect.

Salt is a tonic for the hair. A most excellent dry shampoo may be made from it. Sift a coarse quality of salt free from lumps and mix with powdered orris root, two ounces to the pound of salt. Sift again to mix thoroughly and then rub well into the hair and scalp. Brush out with a stiff bristle brush.

The juice of half a lemon squeezed into a half glass of water, either hot or cold, but without sugar, and taken night or morning or slowly with the meals, is said to be an excellent stimulant to a sluggish liver.

THE GAZETTE PATTERN.



(No 5251.) Ladies' One Piece Corset Cover.

Nainsook trimmed with ribbon-run beading, and hand-embroidered ruffles, was employed in making this dainty corset cover. It is very easily made, as there are no seams and the fulness in the upper part and at the waist line is adjusted by ribbons. Any preferred mode of trimming may be adapted, lace edged ruffles of the material being very pretty. Batiste, long cloth, linen, muslin and lawn are all favorite materials, with trimming of embroidery or lace. The medium size requires 1¾ yards of 36-inch material.

Ladies' one-piece corset cover No. 5251: Sizes for 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44-inch bust measure.

THE CLUBS

Miss Harding Cannot Lecture.

Because of the accident sustained by Miss Julia Morgan Harding on Tuesday afternoon, when she was injured by an automobile, she will be unable to lecture next Thursday before the Woman's club of the Sewickley valley, as announced. Miss Harding has been delivering a course of lectures on current topics before the club. At the meeting yesterday afternoon the last artist day of the season was celebrated. The honor guest was Dr. Leon Vincent, who gave an interesting lecture on "Hotel de Rambouillet" before a large audience. Tea was served following the lecture, with Mrs. Samuel G. Cooper, chairman of the social committee, in charge. Mrs. Samuel C. Scott acted as hostess, and some of those assisting were: Mrs. W. J. Tener, Mrs. Frank Dravo, Mrs. A. W. Lowrie, Mrs. Frank McCleery, Mrs. James Huston and Mrs. A. B. Harlow.

Need Clothing and Money.

The Juvenile Court association is in need of clothing to give the children who come before the court. In many cases the clothing which the children wear when brought to the rooms of detention is so filthy that it must be burned, necessitating a complete outfit for them. The association directs that clothing for these children, both girls and boys, from the ages of seven and eight upward, be sent to the office of the probation officer in the jail building, Ross street and Fifth avenue. The association is also anxious to provide an emergency fund of about $100 always on hand that when children are received late at night supper may be provided for them, and when there is special need other provision or supplies may be given them.

Speakers at Alumnae Luncheon.

Miss Patterson, who will be toast-mistress at the luncheon given by the local alumnae of Wilson college on Saturday afternoon, April 7, in the Hotel Schenley, announces the following speakers: Dr. Reaser, the president of the college, who will speak on "Education and Wilson College;" Mrs. B. M. Campbell, "From the Side Lines;" Miss Helen Martin, "Still in the Game;" Dr. Samuel H. A. Martin, former president of the Pennsylvania College for Women, "Reminiscences." It is expected that H. A. Riddle, one of the trustees, will come on for the occasion. Covers will be laid for over 50 of the former students and a few of those who are numbered among the students of today.

Formal Opening of Addition.

The board of managers of the Home for Aged Protestant Women in Wilkinsburg expects to give a reception as the formal opening of the new wing about the middle of May. It was expected that the opening would take place earlier in the year but there were delays in the building operations and some changes made at the last moment which have put off the opening. The new wing increases the capacity of the institution, accommodations being provided for about 20 more people than formerly, while new dining rooms are also secured.

VENERABLE CLUBMAN CONFESSES HIS GUILT

Indicted for Forgery by British Government—He Was in Hiding Seven Years.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—A scandal dating back to England's preparations for the Boer war was recalled today in the arraignment of George L. Jordan, who disappeared in this city seven years ago, while buying horses for the use of the British army. Jordan was arrested last night charged with forgery in the first degree, having been indicted in 1899 for the forgery of a promissary note for $20,000. He escaped arrest and the police supposed he had left this country.

During the seven years of his disappearance Jordan has been living in New York city. He concealed himself by growing a full beard, changing his name to that of Mark Denny and living ostensibly as an American business man. He went into real estate business and prospered, it is said.

It was this business, according to the district attorney's office, which led to Jordan's berayal last night, for he had confided to a customer the secret of his identity and this customer, after a quarrel with him over business matters, went to the district attorney with information which led to the arrest. The prisoner today admitted his identity as Jordan and was sent to the tombs in default of $25,000 bail.

Prior to the alleged forgery he was regularly accredited agent of the British government. Of a dashing military bearing and with good letters of introduction from England he was a guest of several of New York's best clubs. He is 60 years old.

IN THE THEATERS.

News and Gossip of What Local Theater Goers May Expect Next Week.

Considerable interest is centering in the announcement that Leo Ditrichstein will appear at the Belasco theater for one week in his latest play, "Before and After." This is a screaming, mirth-provoking play by the author of "Are You a Mason," "All on Account of Eliza," "Vivian's Papas," and several other successful plays. Mr. Ditrichstein appears in the cast as the bright particular comedian. Other Pittsburgh favorites are Fritz Williams, George C. Boniface, Jr., Georgie Lawrence and Katherine Florence.

Pre-eminently the most imposing and impressive spectacular production the stage has ever seen is given in "The Prince of India," at the Nixon theater. It is difficult to describe or appreciate the real importance of this production, which is a succession of extraordinary stage settings, dramatic pictures, tableaux, climaxes, situations and ensemble. It is a wonderful, moving love story in a tremendous historical setting. The cast interpreting this drama is an unusually strong one and contains several Pittsburgh favorites. Next week is the last week of the engagement.

A melange of mirth and melody is the musical comedy, "Me, Him and I," which is expected to play to a big business during its engagement at the Alvin, commencing Monday night. The piece is not intended to run among the high dramatic musical creations, but its mirth-provoking qualities are sufficient to keep any audience in excellent humor.

August von Biene, the eminent Berlin actor-musician, is one of the stellar attractions of next week's bill at the Grand. Herr von Biene is a 'cellist of wide renown and an actor of many parts. Miss Laura Burt, leading woman in the company of the late Sir Henry Irving, has been engaged to present a monologue and impersonations. Rice and Cady, Weber-Fieldian German comedians, who were members of the Avenue theater travesty company, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Esmonde are among others on the bill.

Miss Kathryn Purnell will remain at the Empire for another week and for the matinee Monday, Tuesday and Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday matinee, Miss Purnell will be seen as Marguerite in a splendid production of Goethe's immortal play, "Faust," and on Wednesday and Thursday evenings Miss Purnell will repeat her former triumph, "Sapho," and for the Wednesday matinee "East Lynne" will be given.

The up-to-date Harry Bryant's extravaganza company will be the next attraction at the Gayety for a week's engagement, commencing Monday, April 9. In the company will be found such favorites as the Yorke comedy four, in quartets; Darmody, the manipulator of Indian clubs and firearms; George X. Wilson, assisted by Camille de Montville, in an original comedy sketch; Terry and Elmer and their four show girls, and the Bush Devere trio in an illustrated musical novelty.

Mirth and melody will reign supreme at the Academy next week, on the appearance of T. W. Dinkins' attraction, "The Alcazar Beauties." Two burlettas are presented and a host of excellent vaudeville talent go to make up a bill of more than average quality. In the olio numbers appear the remarkably clever acrobatic marvels, Kelly and Bartlett.

Kathryn Purnell as Camille.

It is more than probable that "Camille" will be acted as long as we have a stage or there is one brick upon another in our places of dramatic amusement. Since Dumas wrote the history of this consumptive denizen of the underworld, she has proved a fascinating subject upon which the aspiring actress sought to try her budding or natural emotional powers.

At the Empire theater Miss Kathryn Purnell played the role in a repertoire that will extend through two weeks. If Miss Purnell strikes no new role and displays no remarkable emotional power, she, at least, refrains from affectations that might accentuate the drab color of Dumas' pathetic heroine. It is a popular priced Camille and pleased. Mr. Chase's Gaston is the best played male role. Mr. Mordaunt's Armand is stiff and lacking facility of expression. The production is very creditable.

WILL TALK ABOUT THE MONSTERS OF THE DEEP

DR. FREDERICK W. TRUE.

Frederick W. True, M. S., LL. D., of the New York University will lecture before the Academy of Science and Art, at the Conservatory of Music in Dithridge street, this evening, on "Whales and Whale Fisheries." Dr. True has published extensively on mammals, particularly on whales and porpoises, and the history of the tragic life of whales and the whalers, as he presents it, is extremely interesting. He will illustrate his story with a splendid set of lantern slides which will intimately acquaint his hearers with the massive inhabitants of the seas.

STOP SMOKING

Law should compel the poison symbol (skull and cross-bones) on every package of cigarettes. Nicotine is not so violent a poison as prussic acid, but it is just as deadly.

Tobacco-Specific is a harmless vegetable remedy that can be given secretly in food or drink. It cures the craving, the appetite for tobacco, brings back the bloom of health, the strength of youth and the energy and courage that is the birthright of every American. In hundreds of cases a sample has cured.

HERE'S ONE:

"After using tobacco 46 years your free sample package of Tobacco-Specific cured me entirely. I feel very thankful to you for the remedy." M. E. Smith, Rockingham, Vt.

ANOTHER:

"I have not had any desire to use tobacco since I took your free trial package of Tobacco-Specific. I had chewed and smoked for 50 years, and never found anything to take away the appetite for tobacco until I used your remedy." J. F. Wellington, Boyce, Texas.

REFORM IS SLOGAN IN ALLEGHENY

New Administration Gives Tip, and Guardians of Peace Display Unusual Alertness.

MAYOR LAYS AWAY HIS AX

Reform! Reform! This is the slogan in Allegheny since the new administration has assumed charge of the city's affairs. That Mayor Kirschler intends to carry out his promises to wipe out the dives of the city nobody doubts, and from the highest to the lowest, the city employes are displaying unusual alertness.

The first intimation of the new conditions was given yesterday morning at the Central station hearings, over which Magistrate William Hadfield presided for the first time. The way he dispensed justice to those who were before him whose reputations were known to be shady, was a foresight into what is in store for Allegheny's crooks. It was also noticeable that Supt. Glenn and Assistant Superintendent Johnson were present, and did not hesitate to assist the magistrate by identifying several of the old offenders. The tip has evidently been given the officers on the street, too, and Allegheny is beginning to realize that she has some guardians of the peace. Policemen who were formerly content to walk their beats, evading as far as possible any spots where they would meet the denizens of the lower life, are watching for even the slightest infractions of the law, and are not afraid to make arrests, since they feel there will be nobody higher up to interfere with them.

Just what action the mayor intends to take in cleaning the "red light" district is as yet a matter of conjecture. He has had several conferences with Director Grenet and the police officials, and says he desires to learn the best manner of procedure. "It is too early to talk yet," said Safety Director Grenet yesterday.

Mayor Kirschler has laid away his official ax and says there will be no more changes at present. He thinks to remove any more employes at this time would cripple the service, and when he does make any changes, it will not be for political reasons. The appointments of J. K. Hunter as chief of the bureau of fire and Peter Schatzman as assistant, and Dr. R. G. Burns as city bacteriologist, were handed out yesterday. Director Simon Kirschler says he is going to make very few changes at the city home, and they will not be announced for several days.

COUNTY ELECTIONS FAVOR CONSTITUTION

Results in St. Petersburg Have Important Effect in Other Parts of Russia.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 4.—The success of the Constitutional Democrats in St. Petersburg on Monday, was reflected today in the results of elections in all parts of the empire, where the voting is now in full swing. Almost without exception the balloting has been favorable to the Constitutional Democrats, not only in their city strongholds, but also in the country, where the peasants in a number of instances turned down their leaders and elected avowed Constitutional Democrats.

At Kieff the Progressives swept the board, and Prince Eugene Troubetskoy was successful, insuring his presence in the national parliament. At Moghileff, which is a Jewish locality, even the landowners returned a solid Constitutional Democratic delegation.

In the presence of these successes the cooler heads among the Constitutional Democrats realize the difficulty they will have of securing a clear majority.

M. Rodicheff, who was one of the counsel for Ivan Kaleiff, the assassin of Grand Duke Sergius, today tenders the olive branch to the Octoberists and proposed a coalition under the leadership of MM. Petrunkevitch and Shipoff to oppose the present government, which he fears may attempt to disperse the parliament. M. Roditcheff warns the government that such a design may be fatal to it, as the peasants are fanatically attached to the idea of a parliament, and the attempt would precipitate a revolution.

TO PROTECT NIAGARA.

Associations Consider the Plan of Commission Inadequate for the Purpose Intended.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—A remonstrance against the recommendations of the international waterways commission regarding the diversion of the water of Niagara river at the falls of Niagara, was filed with President Roosevelt today by J. Horace McFarland, president, and William B. Howland, treasurer of the American Civic association, and Frederick B. DeBerard of the Merchants' association of New York.

The commission recommended that legislation be enacted authorizing the diversion 65,000 cubic feet of water a second. The remonstrance urges that the diversion of that amount of water would have a disastrous effect on the falls. It would, it is claimed, divert 48 per cent of the water going over the American falls, and would materially diminish the beauty of the cataract. Although the President had approved the recommendations of the commission in a message to congress, he regarded the remonstrance as important, and promised his callers to refer the subject to Secretary Taft and to members of the commission.

MONKEY DRIVES MOTOR CAR.

Interesting Special Feature With Hagenbeck's Circus Which Comes Next Week.

One of the many interesting novelties with the Carl Hagenbeck circus is "Moto," the motoring monk. This clever animal has been taught to drive a big motor car, and will be seen in a race around the hippodrome track against a horse ridden by another monkey.

"Moto" is said to have developed great skill in handling the machine, and they say it did not take him very long to learn to handle the speed gears, turn the steering wheel or put on the brakes. The latter, however, "Moto" seriously objects to. He likes to run at full speed, and when he is dressed in a heavy leather jacket, wearing a big motor cap and automobile goggles, he presents a most ludicrous spectacle.

On account of "Moto's" strong desire to speed he will not drive his machine in the street parade, which will be given on Thursday, April 12, as it is feared that he might be arrested for breaking the speed ordinance.

TOBACCO CONSUMERS MUST BEAR THE WAR BURDENS

ST. PETERSBURG, April 4.—The extra financial burden caused by the war with Japan will be borne in part by tobacco consumers. A project to increase the internal revenue tax on an average of 30 per cent has been approved for submission to the approaching national parliament. The increase falls heaviest on the choicer grades of tobacco, but even the cheap "Mahorka," smoked by the peasants, will be raised over 11 points.

Royalty Entertains Americans.

CAIRO, April 4.—The khedive today entertained Rear Admiral Sigsbee and the officers of the second squadron of the United States Atlantic fleet, and leading Americans now in Cairo, at dinner in the Abden palace. The cruiser Brooklyn, with Rear Admiral Sigsbee, will remain at Alexandria until the arrival of the prince of Wales. The other ships of the squadron will leave April 26.

WILL BE ONE OF THE "DAISY" GIRLS

MISS MARIAN F. SCHIMMELFENG.

This young woman is one of the three Pennsylvania girls selected to help carry the Daisy chain at Vassar college next June. Miss Schimmelfeng is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schimmelfeng of Warren, Pa.

SEVERED SPINAL CORD KNITS AFTER FIVE YEARS

With Patience Young Physician Is Confident of Disproving Canon of Medical Science and Patient Responds to Treatment.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 4.—The mooted question whether or not the spinal chord, once severed, can be regenerated, seems to have been solved by a young physician of this city. Five years ago Miss Clara Nichols of 1513 South Forty-ninth street was shot in the back. A diagnosis at the time resulted in announcement that the spinal chord had been severed by the bullet. There was total paralysis below the wound.

Dr. Francis Stewart, then just out of college, decided to test his theory that the severing of the spinal chord is not necessarily fatal. He sutured the broken cord and with three stitches of catgut, united the severed parts. For three or four months the patient lay on her back in the hospital and her death was daily awaited. Those parts of her body, below where the shot had entered, had been completely paralyzed. She did not even experience any sensation when taking food or water. Dr. Stewart, however, insisted that in time his patient would regain sensation and that in the course of years she would recover full motor power.

For two years she was kept in the hospital, where daily massage was given her, and where, little by little, her powers of sensation returned. At first she could merely tell when she was touched.

In the last month she has been made happy by the fact that she can walk with the aid of her crutches about her home. Dr. Stewart assures her that she will be able to discard the crutches and walk as she did years ago.

ASKS FOR FORECLOSURE OF GIGANTIC MORTGAGE

Trust Company Alleged Default of Interest on Bonds and Proceeds Against Railroad.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, April 4.—The foreclosing of a mortgage for $50,000,000, covering all the properties held by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway, was asked by Thomas W. Paxton, attorney for the Central Trust Company of New York, in a suit filed in the United States circuit court today. The suit is brought by the trust company in the interest of bondholders.

In January, 1905, the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad authorized an issue of $50,000,000 bonds, and of that amount $17,500,000 were issued. The interest was not paid in July nor in January.

The Central Trust Company was the trustee. A sale of the road is asked by the trust company. Mr. Paxton said the mortgage covers all the main lines and subsidiary lines and all other properties owned by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway.

JUDGE DEMANDS PLEDGE.

Youth Indicted for False Pretense Is Not Punished on Promise to Give Up Cigarets.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 4.—Judge Charles B. Staples of Monroe county, who is sitting in the criminal court in this city to relieve the Philadelphia judges of the accumulated business, today imposed a peculiar sentence upon Charles Hollister, Jr., of Belmont, N. Y.

Hollister pleaded guilty to three bills of indictment charging false pretense and Judge Staples suspended sentence on condition that Hollister make oath before the clerk of the court that he would abstain from the use of cigarets for the period of one year. He is also required to report once a month by letter to Judge Staples.

PROPOSED ARCHWAY WITH A GREEK EFFECT

Spelling Reform Idea Might Be Given Expression in Connection With Schenley Park Institutions.

"Karnagy Tex Skule."

This inscription, emblazoned in big letters, is to appear on an arch that is soon to be erected across the driveway in front of the big buildings which adorn Schenley park—maybe.

At least such is the rumor that comes from a source that is sometimes reliable. The idea has been advanced since the founder of the "Skule" has come into the limelight as financial backer for the spelling reformers. There's a sort of original Greek effect in the proposed combination, and even if visitors don't at first grasp the meaning of the symbols, they will doubtless soon come to a full realization of what it all amounts to.

Although Director Hamerschlag hasn't given his official approval of this new idea, it is probable that he will not stand in the way of it, especially since the man whose millions have brought the institution into being is so deeply interested in seeing the English langwidge writ as it ot to be rote.

So it might be well to keep a lookout for the archway bearing the inscription, "Karnagy Tex Skule."

Magistrate England Takes Lesson.

George H. England, the newly-appointed police magistrate at the Woods Run station, Allegheny, sat with Magistrate F. B. Harkins yesterday to take a lesson in dispensing justice. He will assume charge of the hearings this morning.

Coal Troubles in France.

MONS, BELGIUM, April 4.—An unsuccesswul attempt was made today to blow up the railroad bridge over the river Honnelle, at the France-Belgian frontier. It is alleged the outrage was the work of French miners, who are endeavoring to prevent the entrance of Belgian coal into their country.

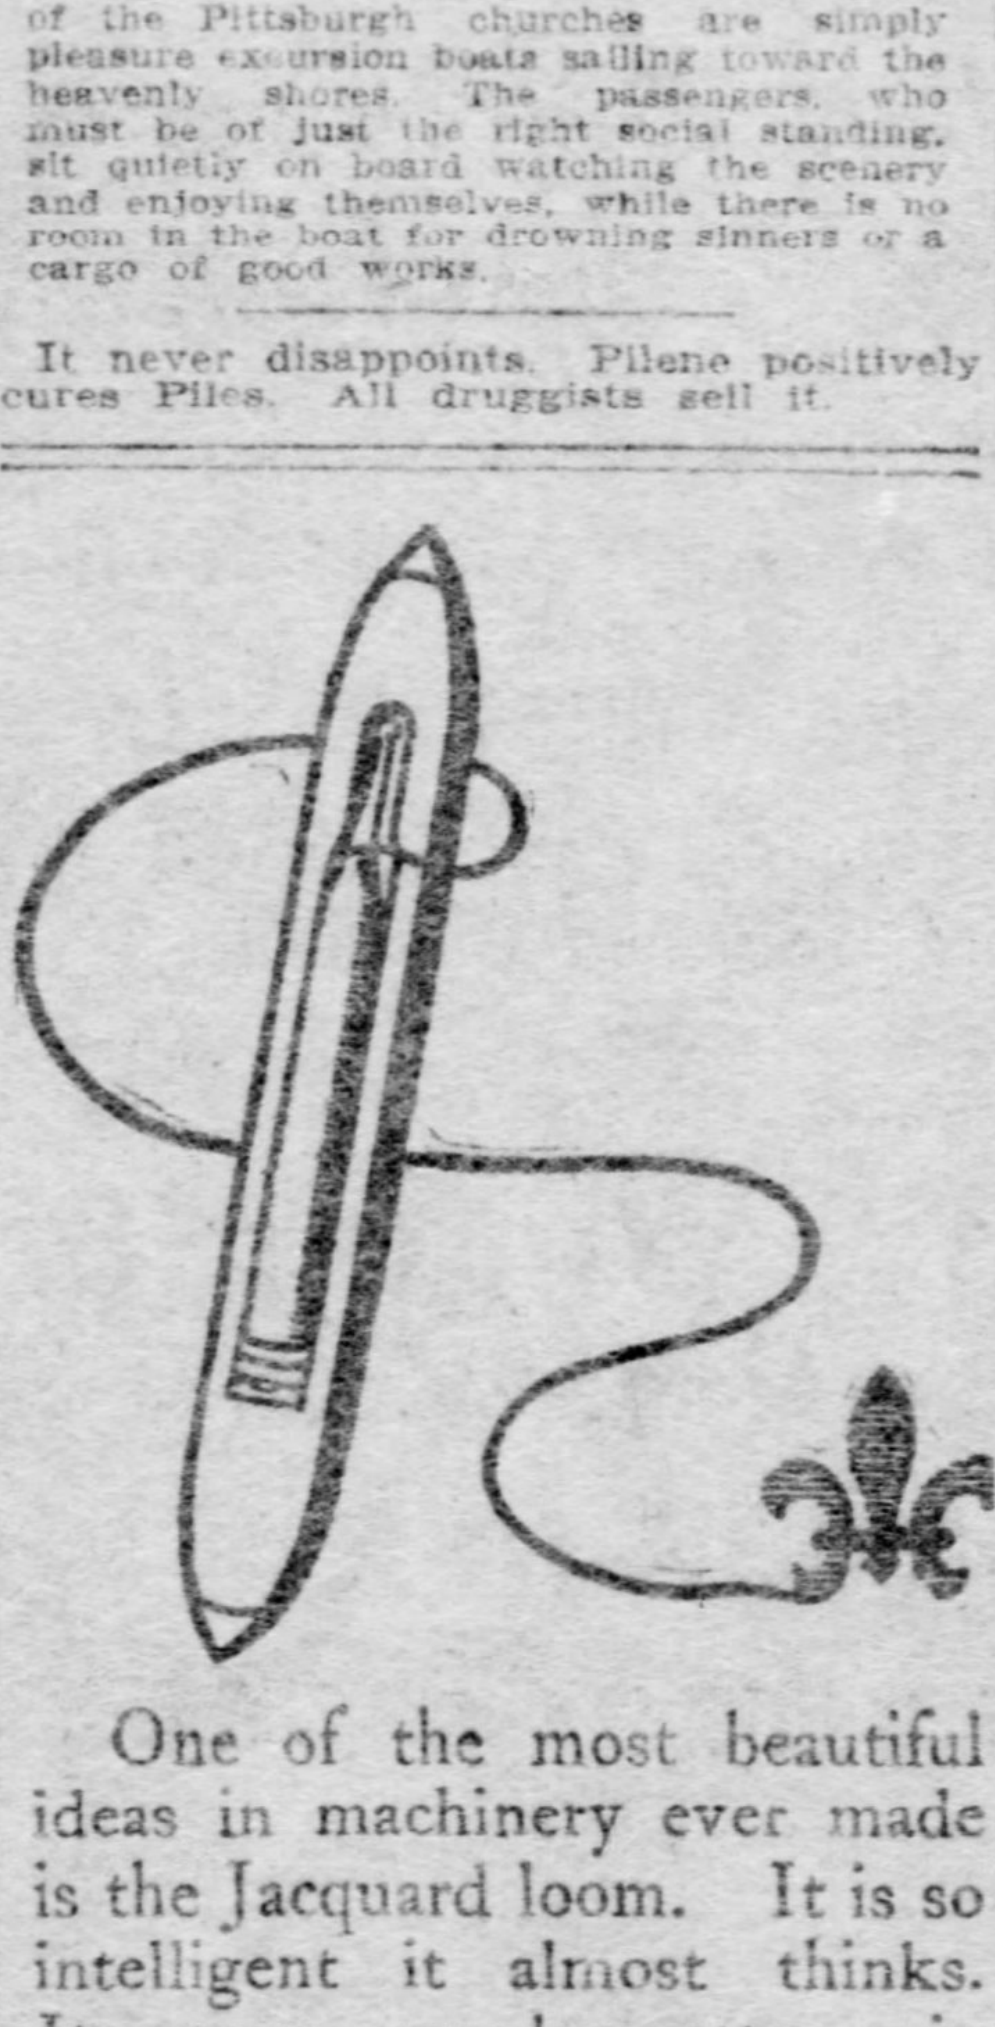
CHURCH IS TOO SLOW; A CLOSE CORPORATION

Christians Think They Are Sailing to Heaven in Excursion Boats, Says Dr. Stanton.

"The Church and Social Ideals" was the subject of a lecture delivered last evening at the Trinity church, Sixth avenue, by the Rev. Dr. W. A. Stanton, pastor of the Shadyside Baptist church, in which he uttered the following sharp criticisms:

> The church is slow, exceedingly slow. It took it 300 years to learn who Christ is, 400 to learn the nature of sin, and even now it has not learned the right method of saving souls. The world regards the church not so much as a soul and society saving institution, but as a close corporation, a limited partnership, a self-centered aggregation of saints seeking their own personal wealth, and their own solitary postmortem mansions in the skies. If the church does not give us a sociological religion that will teach Christians to mingle with the people of the world and influence them rightly, God will destroy the church and give us something better. Too many of the Pittsburgh churches are simply pleasure excursion boats sailing toward the heavenly shores. The passengers, who must be of just the right social standing, sit quietly on board watching the scenery and enjoying themselves, while there is no room in the boat for drowning sinners or a cargo of good works.



One of the most beautiful ideas in machinery ever made is the Jacquard loom. It is so intelligent it almost thinks. It weaves regular patterns in silks and other fabrics, because it has been constructed to do automatically the sort of things that one would think could only be done by the close attention of a human mind.

A great advertising medium like THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL works like a Jacquard loom. It gives automatically the sort of discriminating salesmanship that only a highly intelligent, human salesman could give. It presents to the buyers of the home food products and dress-goods, household utensils and toilet articles, in close association with intelligent instruction on how to keep house, how to cater to the table and the other vital questions of the housewife's life.

The operation of presenting your goods to the women in these millions of homes is repeated in every home in such a way that the desire to buy is met by the willingness to buy and the ability to pay the price asked.

N. Y. STOCKS DECLINED ON HIGH CALL MONEY

The Rate Reached 19 Per Cent and Closed at 15. Reading and Union Pacific Active—Cable Con. Broke on the Local Board.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market yesterday fluctuated with the rates for call loans. The money question received more attention than the possibilities of an anthracite coal strike, and commission houses were advising that traders restrict their operations until the outlook is clearer. This advice was apparently heeded, for the sales for the day fell below a million shares, and the dealings were congested in a few stocks. The market closed rather heavy, at or near the lowest of the day. Except in a few of the industrials, however, the net losses were not large.

Call loans were nominally quoted at 6@7 per cent at the opening, but the first loans were made at 6½. The rate immediately advanced to 10 per cent, and there was considerable calling of loans. In the early part of the afternoon there was a recession to 8½ per cent, and the stock market rallied under the lead of Reading, but during the last hour call loans advanced to 19 per cent, the highest since last January, and the final loan was at 15 per cent. There was no appreciable change in time loan rates, and for this reason the state of the money market had practically no effect upon sterling exchange. Wall street, therefore, took a rather pessimistic view of the outlook for any immediate change in the money situation. This view may be changed today, however, if the governors of the Bank of England should reduce the minimum rate of discount. The buying of American securities early in the day was said to be based upon expectations of a reduction in the bank rate.

The most active stocks were Union Pacific and Reading. The former made its highest price at the opening at 159¼ to 159½. It subsequently sold off to 158⅛ and closed at 158½, a net loss of only ⅝ per cent. Reading opened at 137½ to 137⅝, the latter the low point of the day, and later rallied to 140, closing at 138¾, a net gain of ¾ per cent. While the rise was in progress a rumor gained currency that the anthracite coal dispute had been settled, and a jump of 4½ per cent in Delaware & Hudson gave color to the rumor, which, however, proved unfounded. Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio closed fractionally higher.

In the remainder of the railroad list the net changes ranged from small fractions to 1 per cent, the latter Atchison, which declined when the directors announced the usual semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent. There had been some talk of the probability of an increase in the rate, due to the extremely fine earnings for February.

There was some irregularity in the industrials, and with few exceptions they were heavy in the final dealings. Amalgamated Copper sold off right at the opening, and closed at 111¾, the low price of the day. Anaconda closed at a loss of 2⅝ per cent. American Smelting closed 1½ per cent lower.

The steel stocks were all lower. United States Steel common and preferred each closed at a decline of ½ per cent. Colorado Fuel and Iron closed 2¾ per cent lower on the announcement that the directors had authorized the sale of additional stock. American Locomotive closed 1¼ lower and American Car and Foundry ¾ lower.

The retirement from the board of directors of Southern Pacific of a number of prominent financiers was apparently in line with the policy announced by a New York banking firm last month, and had no significance marketwise.

Out of a total of a little more than 29,000 shares handled on the local exchange, nearly 27,000 shares consisted of Cable Consolidated. The latter opened around 81c a share, and on heavy liquidation sold off to 67c, the previous low point. There was a recovery in the final dealings and the stock closed at 75c, a loss for the day of 5 cents a share. There was no news on the stock, and a large part of the dealings appeared to be manipulated by traders. With 2,500,000 shares of the stock outstanding, there is little danger of it becoming oversold, and in a dull market brokers take a chance of making a little turn by selling a few thousand short and covering at a few cents a share profit. It is a cheap sort of speculation involving a minimum of risk. The other mining stocks were neglected, the only change of note being a decline in Tonopah Extension to 10½. The dealings in the coal stocks were confined to 30 shares Pittsburgh preferred at 59¼ to 59½, the close showing a net loss of ¼ per cent. Crucible Steel preferred and Pittsburgh Plate Glass were a fraction higher and firm. National Fire Proofing common rallied to 7½, while the preferred remained unchanged at 26. There was no trading in any of the Westinghouse stocks, and most of them were without quotations all day. River Coal 6s sold at 109¼, a decline of 3 per cent, representing the semi-annual coupon which came off this month.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

So far this week the New York banks have lost $3,644,000 through the sub-treasury operations, as compared with a loss of less than $2,000,000 in the corresponding period of last week. It was asserted also shipments were being made to various interior points by express. The foreign market was little affected in spite of the high call loan rate. The discount rate was easier, both in London and Berlin, and authorized intimations were given that an additional gold engagement for import this week was a possibility. The discount rate at Paris, however, hardened and there was a sharp drop in sterling exchange at that point. Not only the Russian loan but bond issues of French, German Imperial and Prussian securities are overhanging the foreign market.

Regarding the future of the money market and the probable effect on the stock market, the Wall street correspondent sent this message: "Our best information on the money market is that for the next 10 days at least we are likely to have money rates that will average at least 6 per cent, and it is possible that money may average considerably higher. It is fatuous to suppose that the stock market can completely disregard the money market and gossip to that end, which has been current of late, is distinctly foolish. Let us not be misunderstood in regard to our belief concerning the money market or the stock market. We do not feel that any serious setback is impending, but we think that a curtailment of the daily commitments, or in other words, a period of dullness, would mitigate the serious influence of high rates for call money. Whatever may be the present condition of the stock market we think that conservatism is necessary if we are to avoid monetary complications. The strength and activity of the stock market has conduced materially to the stringency of money and the logical cure would seem to be a let-up in manipulation and extraordinary activity."

The special and postponed annual meeting of the stockholders of the National Fire Proofing Company will be held today. So far as known there will be no opposition to the authorization of $2,500,000 bonds, the proceeds of $2,000,000 of which will be used for liquidating floating debt and increasing working capital. There was very little trading in the stock yesterday, but prices were steady.

Most of the traders took part in the dealings in Cable Consolidated. Masten & Co. were probably the heaviest sellers and Hill & Co. the largest buyers on the decline. R. C. Hall and A. J. Lawrence & Co. were also large buyers and Scully, Painter & Beech and Hooker were large sellers.

Transactions on the Pittsburgh stock exchange in the month of March, as officially reported, were 1,777,104 shares, the largest for any month in the history of the exchange. The increase was due to the activity in low-priced mining shares.

The Chartiers Valley railway has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent.

Consolidated Gas preferred advanced to and closed at 39½ bid, 39⅞ asked. Crawford & Eberman have been the principal buyers of the stock and bid up the price yesterday.

"The bond market during March was one of the poorest for years," remarked a local dealer, "but from the character of the inquiries this week it looks as though April would be fairly active."

The governors of Philadelphia stock exchange, it is reported, have increased the death benefit rate of the members from $5,000 to $7,000.

Pittsburgh bank exchanges yesterday were $3,600,000 larger than for the same day last year.

Municipal bond sales in March foot up $38,915,496, the largest for any corresponding month on record.

A private sale of 25 shares Bank of Pittsburgh was reported at 170.

The Chicago Union Traction stocks, which were rushed up in the closing dealings on Monday, fell back sharply yesterday on the mixed results in the municipal election in Chicago.

The announcement of additional stock and bond issues by the Colorado Fuel Company, although involving subscription rights of some value at prevailing market prices for the societies concerned, was not relished by Wall street.

A special meeting of stockholders of the John Dunlap Company will be held in Carnegie, Pa., April 17 to vote on a proposition to increase the capital stock from $200,000 to $500,000.

The Atchison Railway Company declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on its common stock, payable June 1 to stock of record May 11.

The H. B. Claflin Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent on the common stock, payable April 15.

At the annual meeting of the Westmoreland Coal Company yesterday the retiring directors were re-elected.

The Pacific Coast Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on its first preferred stock and 1¼ per cent each on its second preferred and common stocks, payable May 1.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Pacific Company yesterday George J. Gould, J. H. Hyde, A. H. Kahn, W. S. Pierce, James Speyer, Jacob H. Schiff and C. H. Tweed were not re-elected. The men who were selected to succeed them were H. W. De Forest, Maxwell Evarts, Robert Goelet, Ogden Mills, W. C. S. Thorne and A. K. Van Deventer. A New York dispatch said: "In some circles considerable significance is attached to the changes made in the board of directors of the Southern Pacific company. The retirement of Jacob H. Schiff, Otto H. Kahn and George J. Gould did not occasion any surprise, but the retirement of James Speyer and Charles H. Tweed as directors of the Southern Pacific is regarded as highly significant. The Speyer interests have been connected with the Southern Pacific interests for some time, and they have not indicated in any way that they proposed retiring from the railroad directorates, as the members of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. have done."

Gross earnings of Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh for March increased $267,952.

Gross earnings of Canadian Pacific for March increased $958,000.

Gross earnings of Denver & Rio Grande for March increased $165,400.

Chicago dispatch: Traction stocks are very strong, but have remained dull. North Chicago sold at a rise of 5 points over Monday's close. There has been a trifle more trading in West Chicago, which by similar comparison, is up 2½ per cent. Nobody seems to have a fixed opinion, but there is unanimous feeling that the city is tied hand and foot, and delay that will ensue in buying the lines will prove favorable to the companies.

The New York market for investment bonds is still decidedly flat. Bonds that looked the most attractive are not infrequently in poor demand. The Pennsylvania railroad convertibles are still quite depressed. Somewhat over 1 per cent interest has accrued on them and at the price they yield to maturity rather over 4 per cent. They are convertible into stock at 150 and the stock is around 140, being probably 5 points behind the average of the market.

The syndicate which underwrote $25,000,000 of the 4 per cent collateral trust bonds of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company has been dissolved by limitation of time. The syndicate was somewhat slow in getting rid of its bonds, as was evidenced by the fact that delivery of the last $5,000,000 of them was made to it since January 1 of the present year. The syndicate which has underwritten the first $100,000,000 of the new convertible bonds of the company has not as yet placed its holdings on the street. The delay, however, in putting the new bonds before the public was probably influenced very slightly if at all by the fact that the old syndicate of last year had not disposed of all its holdings. The underwriters are waiting for lower money rates and a better bond market before they bring out the new American Telephone and Telegraph convertibles.

The earnings of the Republic Iron and Steel Company for the quarter ended March 31 broke all previous quarterly records, aggregating more than $1,100,000. This is at the rate of $4,400,000 a year. The best showing in earnings the company ever made was in the fiscal year 1900, when they reached $3,643,728. At no time since have they exceeded $3,000,000 a year. The earnings last month were in the neighborhood of $400,000. The earnings for the year ended June 30 last were $1,373,607, and in the preceding year there was a deficit of $254,188, which, after the payment of $357,295 on the preferred stock, left a deficit of $611,484.

MONEY MARKET IS THE DOMINATING FACTOR

Wall Street Takes Notice of the Increasing Monetary Stringency.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Herald this (Thursday) morning says:

Wall street paid some passing attention to the money market yesterday after about a week of manipulation, in which the steadily increasing monetary stringency has been ignored. Logically, at least, according to the recent professional logic, the market should have yesterday for call money advanced to 19 per cent. For instance, the market has recently been advancing, going higher and higher, as call loans moved up from 5 to 6, from 7 to 10 and from 10 to 12 per cent.

Then, too, professionals have pointed with much pride to their achievement in December, when stocks advanced, as money advanced, from 60 to 100 per cent, becoming quite buoyant upon the development of 125 per cent for call loans. Yesterday, however, there was a reversal of the process, and instead of becoming a bull argument the advance of call loans to 19 per cent occasioned some disquietude and prices declined. The rate, by the way, was the highest attained in any April for about 20 years.

There was very little that was novel in the way of news during the day. The money market stringency became more acute and in the end was the dominating factor of the day. No surprise was expressed as to this in banking circles, where, in fact, that surprise has rather been, that with the sub-treasury and the interior drawing funds, 26 banks below their reserves, and the weakest bank position at this time in 16 years, acute stringency had not developed earlier.

As to the coal strike situation, there was practically nothing new, but the impression strengthened as to the probability of a strike in the anthracite field. Exchange declined as money advanced, indicating that if money goes high enough nominal gold imports will result. Railway earnings were excellent, as usual, and crop conditions continued favorable. The further demand for capital by Colorado Fuel and Iron was naturally disliked, but its effect was limited to the stock directly concerned. The result of the Chicago election was an adverse factor.

Banks and the Treasury.

NEW YORK, April 4.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the Seattle assay office today's official records show that the sub-treasury paid out yesterday $173. Total thus paid since Friday, $11,129, against $27,110 for the same period a week ago. Total payment by government to New York banks for the day, $3,716,000. Payment by banks to government, $5,556,000. Balance on the day's transactions, $1,840,000 paid by banks to government. Total net payment by banks to government since Friday, $3,644,000, against $1,904,000 similarly paid for the corresponding period a week ago, and $168,000 paid by banks to government a year ago. Included in the foregoing summary is $910,000 deposited by banks with the sub-treasury for payment at other interior points, $560,000 at San Francisco and $350,000 at New Orleans.

GALLIPOLIS—Thirty-five feet and falling. Cloudy, warm.

OIL CITY—Four feet 6 inches and falling. Cool and rainy.

GREENSBORO—Nine feet 1 inch and falling. Clear and warmer.

PT. PLEASANT—Thirty-one feet and falling. Cloudy and warm.

PARKERSBURG—Twenty-two feet and falling. Warm and cloudy. The Greenland left for Pittsburgh.

MORGANTOWN—Eight feet 10 inches and falling. Cloudy.

STEUBENVILLE—Fifteen feet 3 inches and falling. Cloudy and cool.

MARIETTA—Twenty feet and falling. Cloudy and warm.

RIVERS ARE FALLING.

Unless a Rise Comes Soon the Towboat Stage Will Have Passed.

The stage of water at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 10 feet and the river was falling.

The rivers are still falling and unless there is a rise in the next few days there will be too little water for a towboat stage, and shipments of coal to the south will be at a standstill. The Henry Lourey left yesterday with 16 barges, sent out by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company. The Raymond Horner and Boaz arrived last night with empties, but it is doubtful whether they will again go out on account of the falling water which will prevent another shipment.

The Rose Hite, sunk at Brownsville and afterwards raised and beached two miles above that point, may be floated today. If the attempt is successful she will be taken to Elizabeth and repaired.

The Queen City arrived yesterday with a good cargo, and left last night for Cincinnati.

The stage of water is ideal for packets, and the warm weather of the past few days has stimulated business until the arriving and departing boats are loaded to the gunwales.

IRON AND STEEL OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Confidence Is Restored and the Market Is Becoming Very Much Stronger.

WITHDRAW COKE QUOTATIONS

While conditions in the iron and steel market during the past week showed no material change over the previous week, a marked tendency toward another large buying movement has been noted during the past few days. Inquiry is becoming more general, and confidence, which had been checked by the uncertainties of the coal situation, seems restored.

Local steel men predict that the volume of building construction during the present year will equal that of last year, when $447,000,000 was expended, while so many sound projects are under way by the large railroad interests, notably the proposed expenditure of $100,000,000 by the New York Central, that steel interests look for a great deal of new business after July 1 for rail mills, car shops and other industries dependent upon the railroads. One Pittsburgh car building interest has outstanding contracts with more than 50 independent founders at this time.

Further encouragement is found in the fact that during the past week orders have begun to come in freely to makers of foundry and Bessemer iron. Electrical apparatus manufacturers have been especially heavy buyers of iron conditioned for delivery during the second and third quarter, and the prediction is made that prices on iron will advance sharply before summer.

Manufacturers of high-grade coke, who have been quoting at $3.50 a ton, are refusing to make quotations at present, and have turned down large contracts offered at $3.50 during the past few days. This stand has been taken because of the current quotations in the east on anthracite pea coal, which has advanced from $2.75 to $4.50 a ton, which is considered equal to an advance of $1.50 a ton on run-of-the-mine, main line Pennsylvania railroad bituminous coal. It is pointed out that this advance on coal will necessarily affect the price of coke, as operators will be disinclined to convert coal into coke when they can double prices on coal by marketing it in the east. The large stock of anthracite coal, alleged to be 9,000,000 tons, is screened standard sizes, principally for domestic purposes, and the east must look to the west for its supply of steam coal until strike conditions are alleviated.

The Hardware Market.

The hardware business continues to move along much the same as at the last report, the trade keeping its lines in good shape for business, which will come as soon as the good weather is here. The demand for goods extends practically to all lines—builders' hardware, housefurnishing goods, tools and general supplies of this kind, together with heavy hardware. The bicycle business is moving actively, the demand for bicycles and sundries keeping up remarkably well, when it would be supposed that most of the trade would have had their stocks in shape some time ago. The window glass business continues to move along well, the trade buying for their requirements and keeping their stocks in good condition.

The Bindley Hardware Company furnished the following quotations: Columbia pocket knives, discount 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 40 and 10 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $6 50 a dozen; Great Western files, discount 70, 10 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base, No. 26, $2 35 the 100 pounds; galvanized sheet iron, discount, 70 and 10 per cent; sash weights, the ton, $24 00; window glass, first three brackets, 90 and 30 per cent; above, 90 and 30 per cent; Albion sewing machines, discount 25 per cent; blue and white enameled ware, 40 per cent; Albion lanterns, 40 per cent; hay forks, 60 per cent.

SEVERAL BAR IRON MILLS WILL PROBABLY CLOSE

Effect of a Coal Strike Will Not Be Felt Unless It Is Long Continued.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, April 4.—The Iron Trade Review tomorrow will say:

"Reports indicate that nearly all manufacturers are well supplied with coal, and the miners' strike will probably not cause much inconvenience unless long continued. There are, however, some exceptions, along which are a number of bar iron mills, which will not be able to continue operations more than a few weeks.

"The pig iron market is a little more lively. Inquiry for 12,000 tons from Westinghouse interests is pending, and is likely to develop strong competition. The principal recent sale of pig iron was 10,000 tons of basic taken by the Inland Steel Company of Chicago. Inquiries from malleable interests in the Chicago district have been withdrawn on account of prices not being satisfactory.

"Steel bar manufacturers have reaffirmed prices and very little business is appearing. Implement manufacturers are inclined to await developments, as most of their contracts for the year ending July 1 are $4 per ton below present quotations.

"The rail market continues active and the principal producer cannot guarantee delivery earlier than the last quarter of the year. During the past week about 30,000 tons have been sold, including 10,000 tons to the Pere Marquette.

"The new business of the American Bridge Company for March has been slightly in excess of 60,000 tons. Railroads are buying extensively for track elevation and bridges, the demand for elimination of grade crossings in many cities being shown in the orders. Active preparations are being made throughout the country for building operations, and it is expected that the showing for the year will make a new record."

The Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The drygoods market today was steady, with more trade reported in print cloth yarn goods and a firmer tone shown on the more common grades of bleached goods. Buyers of knitted goods attempted to hasten deliveries, but were hampered by the well-sold conditions of the mills. The fine goods trade in white and woven cottons was good.

The Whisky Market.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—Whisky, $1 28.

EGGS ADVANCE IN PRICE WITH WARM WEATHER

Potatoes Which Have Been Stiff for Some Time Decline About Five Cents.

The few changes in the markets yesterday showed an upward trend. This is due entirely to the weather, which has been good for shipping produce the last few days and which has also given local produce a start toward development.

Radishes fell off a few points, as did rhubarb, but the biggest change was made in new cabbage, which fell from a maximum price of $3.50 to $3, due entirely to the oncoming heavy shipments from the south.

Potatoes were easier yesterday for the first time in the past three weeks. They fell off, both in yard and in jobbers' prices, about 5 cents a bushel. This is due to the ability of farmers to market their products after a very bad stretch of weather. They were quoted yesterday at 80 and 85 cents a bushel.

Eggs, which have threatened to go up, took the turn yesterday and the Liberty street merchants are asking 1 cent more a dozen for fresh varieties than they did a week or so ago. They are now quoted at 17 and 18 cents. This is probably due to the very small local supply and that western eggs are already being stored for the coming winter, as they will at that time bring a better price than they are now quoted on the market.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts bulletined yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 22 cars oats, 22 hay, 17 corn, 3 feed, 1 rye; Baltimore & Ohio, 6 cars hay; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 2 cars rye, 2 oats, 1 hay.

The market continues active. While receipts were heavier, they were no heavier than needed to supply the demand. A firm market is expected.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of five points on steady European cables, and the decreased world's visible supply for the month of March of 576,665 bags against a decrease of only 305,000 bags for the same month last year. The world's visible supply April 1 was 10,747,916 bags, against 12,967,170 bags for the same date last season. Fear of May liquidation checked fresh buying, however, and the market sagged off to about the closing figures of yesterday during the middle session, but rallied later on covering, and a little demand from Europe. Most of the business was in the way of switching from near to late months, about 120,000 bags of the total sales of 152,750 bags being exchanges. The market closed steady, net unchanged to 5 points higher. Sales included May at 6 55@6 60c; September, 6 95@7 00c; October, 7 05c; December, 7 20c; March, 7 40c. Molasses—Firm. Tomko May Get Medal.

The Carnegie hero fund commission is investigating the heroic act of John M. Tomko, an employe of the 28-inch mill of the Homestead plant of the Carnegie Steel Company, who at the risk of his own life rescued a fellow-workman, Joseph Morris, who was about to be crushed beneath the wheels of a rapidly approaching train loaded with steel.

Foreign Financial.

LONDON, April 4.—Money was much wanted in the market today in connection with the consols settlement. Discounts were weak. Prices on the stock exchange were steady and trading was quiet. Consols were upheld, being stimulated by the sinking fund prospects. Bar silver quiet at 30 11-16d per ounce. Money, 2¾@3½ per cent. MAKE SHARP ADVANCE IN THE WHEAT MARKET

Strong Market All Day Despite Favorable Weather Throughout the Country.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, April 4.—Higher prices for wheat in foreign markets was largely responsible for a sharp advance here today. At the close wheat for May delivery was up ⅞c. Corn and oats were each up ⅜c. Provisions were a shade to 12½c lower.

The market was strong all day despite favorable weather conditions in the United States. An advance of ⅜@⅞c in the price of Liverpool, together with higher prices in nearly all other European exchanges, induced active buying by shorts, which continued all day. There was also a good demand from commission houses. Advices from Winnipeg claiming that wheat was being shipped from there for export further encouraged the bulls. Another factor which strengthened the market was that Bradstreets reported a decrease in the world's visible supply for the week of 2,744,000 bushels, against a decrease of 1,569,000 bushels for the corresponding time one year ago.

The market closed strong, with prices slightly below the highest point. The May option opened ⅛@⅜c to ⅝@¾c higher at 77¾@78c, advanced to 78⅝c and closed at 78⅜@78½c. July ranged between 77¼c and 78¼c and closed with a net gain of one cent at 77⅞@78c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 428,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 749,000 bushels, against 628,000 bushels one year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 277 cars, against 362 cars last week and 168 cars one year ago.

There was an active general demand for corn, but the offerings were light all day. The market manifested considerable strength, but chiefly because of the scarcity of offerings. Local receipts were small, cables were firm, cash corn was higher and the weather for the movement of the crop was unfavorable. All these things tended to higher prices. The market closed strong at about the highest point. May opened ⅛@¼c higher at 44½@44⅝c, advanced to 45⅛c and closed at 45c. Local receipts were 323 cars, with eight of contract grade.

Oats were strengthened somewhat by the firmness of other grain and also by wet weather, which it is believed will hinder seeding operations. Shorts were the principal buyers, while offerings came from local longs. At the close prices were at the top notch. May opened ⅛c higher at 31c, sold off to 30⅞@31c, and advanced to 31½c, where it closed. Local receipts were 203 cars.

Provisions were weak early in the day because of the selling of pork and ribs by a local packer. The selling was induced by a decline of 5@10c in the price of live hogs. Later the early loss was regained on covering by shorts. At the close May pork was off 12½c at $16 20. Lard was a shade lower at $8 40@8 42½. Ribs were 2½@5c lower at $8 62½@8 65.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow—Wheat, 5 cars; corn, 324 cars; oats, 251 cars; hogs, 35,000 head.

The leading futures, as reported by Messrs. Armstrong & Co., Farmers Bank building, Pittsburgh, members of the Chicago board of trade, ranged as follows:

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The Gold Bullion Mining and Milling Company, whose property is located in the state of Sonora, Mexico, has, after an examination by H. D. Gamble, who is in Mexico, let a contract for sinking the shaft on the property 350 additional feet. The sinking will probably occupy four months. The company is largely owned in Pittsburgh.

In its own little way Manhattan, Nevada, is enjoying a "forty-nine" fever. "From a picturesque point of view Manhattan today stands without a parallel in the history of western mining camps since the days of the Comstock," writes Patrick, Elliott & Co. of Goldfield. "Six thousand people, recruited from the four corners of the earth, are burrowing in the hills, all catching the infection of the search for gold. Investors from all sections may be seen in the crowd which jams the streets of the camp, and adventurers from the world's El Dorados have gone to Manhatten. They are all there for the same things."

Mail advices from Encampment, Wyo., state that the smelting, concentrating and electric and steam power plants of the Penn-Wyoming Copper Company were practically wiped out by fire last week, entailing a loss estimated at $800,000, partially covered by insurance. Only the smelter building was saved, and that by the hardest kind of fighting. The origin of the fire is a mystery. The tramway terminals were also saved. It is said the plant will be rebuilt. The company owns valuable mining property there.

Upwards of 1,000,000 shares of the Dominion Copper Company stock have been turned into the company for exchange into new shares of $10 par value. The certificates for the new shares are now being delivered. Of the new stock there will be but 500,000 shares, against 5,000,000 at present of $1 par value.

At the request of the Amalgamated attorneys against the contempt proceedings against F. A. Heinze for running an alleged secret crosscut into the Michael Davitt mine in violation of the long standing injunction was yesterday dismissed in the federal court at Butte.

The Guggenheims interests have secured practical control of the Nevada Consolidated Company. A smelter with an annual capacity of 1,500,000 tons is contemplated. It is estimated the earnings of Nevada Consolidated will then run between $4,000,000 and $8,000,000 a year according to the price of copper. Production is figured at 30,000,000 pounds a year.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, April 5.—There was a strong advance in the London tin market, with spot closing at £173 5s and futures at £169. Locally no change was reported. Lake is quoted at $18 50@18 75; electrolytic, $18 25@18 50; casting, $18 00@18 25. Lead was unchanged at $5 35@5 45 in the local market, but declined 2s 6d to £15 10s in London. Spelter was unchanged at £25 2s 6d in London and at $6 10@6 20 in the local market. Iron closed at 48s 4d for both standard foundry and Cleveland warrants in the English market. Locally the market was steady and unchanged; No. 1 foundry, northern, is quoted at $18 25@19 35; No. 2 foundry, northern, $17 75@18 85; No. 1 foundry, southern, $18 25@18 85; No. 2 foundry, southern, $17 75@18 50.

LONDON, April 4.—Copper was strong in the market today, the price reaching £84 15s, but closed quiet at £84 10s, about 400 tons was sold. Tin was active and advanced 5c, reacted and closed at £173 6s; 800 tons were sold.

BOSTON, April 4.—Tight money was the cause of heavy liquidation in the New York market today. The local copper stocks, however, merely became dull and failed to show any loss, although bids for stocks were scarce. The buying of Quincy, Tamarack and Calumet still continues good. If money gets easier within the next few days we shall see a revival of strength in coppers.

VETERAN RANK LOSES 22 MEN

Old P. R. R. Employes Will Meet at Altoona in May—Chinese Visitors and Others.

GLENWOOD TAKES NEW STEP

Veterans of the Pennsylvania's Pittsburgh division will gather at Altoona on Thursday, May 17, for their annual meeting and banquet. This decision was reached yesterday at a meeting of the executive committee of the Veteran Employes' association at the Union station. The date for this annual gathering of Pennsylvania gray-haired men is always the third Thursday of May, but the place of meeting is left to the executive committee. Col. Thomas E. Watt, district passenger agent, is chairman of this committee and presided at its meeting yesterday. Supt. Long was elected a member of the committee to succeed the late George M. Alexander. The banquet will be held at the Logan house, Altoona. Inasmuch as Robert Pitcairn, who was founder of the veterans' association and who has been president since it was formed, will retire from active service with the company within two weeks after this meeting, it is probable it will be more notable than former gatherings. Interest among the veterans now indicates that there will be a large number present.

Veterans are rapidly being taken from the division by death, there having been 22 deaths since last year's meeting, on May 18. At each gathering there is also a large list of new names presented for membership, eligibility being dependent upon 25 years of continuous service with the company. Retirement on pension enhances rather than decreases the value of membership.

Among Officers on the Go.

General Superintendent Noonan, Chief Engineer Floesch and General Freight Agent Davis of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railway, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh in conference with Division Freight Agent Watson and Division Passenger Agent Pascault of that road, and with Baltimore & Ohio officers. It was reported that the Rochester officers were here to confer with Vice President Worthington of the Wabash regarding arrangements for a freight terminal for the two roads in Allegheny, but this could not be confirmed.

General Superintendent O'Donnel of the Buffalo and Allegheny Valley division and other officers spent yesterday inspecting the latter division. This division was formed on April 1 from the River and Low Grade divisions. The only change will be in the accounting, as both divisions had been operated under one superintendent from the time of their formation several years ago.

Assistant Chief Engineer Raymer of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie was in New York yesterday attending a meeting of the New York Central lines' signal committee, of which he is a member.

Supt. Ohliger of the Indianapolis division of the Panhandle, was here from Columbus conferring with H. L. H. Blair, assistant to the general manager, and other officers of the Pennsylvania lines west. It is expected that on Mr. Ohliger's division there will be more second-track extension and other improvements this year than on any other division of the lines west.

Assistant General Freight Agent Coolidge of Cleveland and General Agent Lawrence of Wheeling were here conferring with General Freight Agent Booth of the Wabash yesterday on company business.

Chinese Officers Visit Local Roads.

Two Chinese officers, appointed to visit America and inspect American railroads and their methods, are spending a few days in Pittsburgh. They were taken in a special train to the Pennsylvania Company's big yard at Conway yesterday afternoon, being escorted by General Superintendent Schoyer, Chief Engineer Maintenance of Way Trimble and Supt. Whiter of the Ft. Wayne route. They spent Tuesday in an inspection of office and terminal methods of the Pennsylvania at the Union station, and will make a further investigation before proceeding on their tour of the country. T. C. Hu, one member of the party, is chief engineer of the Hankow & Szechurn railway. Hu Tsing is president of the Szechurn college and was appointed by the Szechurn viceroy to examine American railroads. Mr. Tsing is accompanied by his secretary. Another member of the party is L. Yin, a Chinese government student at one of the American universities.

Will Discuss Glenwood Y. M. C. A.

Officers of the Baltimore & Ohio will meet this evening to discuss the proposition of a branch of the Young Men's Christian association. Since the subject was first brought to public attention by The Gazette, a couple of weeks ago, there has been a very strong feeling aroused among the officers and men in favor of such an organization for Glenwood, several hundred employes having expressed themselves as desirous of becoming members and helping to support the branch. General Manager Fitzgerald, Superintendent Duer and other officers have announced themselves as favorable to it. At the meeting this evening the operating department will be represented by Trainmaster Gorsuch, Road Foreman of Engines Newman, Division Operator Day and Chief Clerk Castle. Master Mechanic Prendergast will consider the project from the shopmen's standpoint, and the division engineer will represent the maintenance forces.

P. R. R. Mechanics Are Promoted.

Following the advancement of R. K. Reading to superintendent of motive power of the Buffalo and Allegheny Valley division at Buffalo; D. M. Perine to a similar position on the Philadelphia & Erie and Northern Central roads, and J. T. Wallis to master mechanic of the West Philadelphia shops, several other changes have been announced in the Pennsylvania's mechanical department. J. C. Mengel becomes master mechanic at Baltimore, as successor to Mr. Wallis. J. M. Henry succeeds Mr. Mengel as master mechanic at Sunbury. C. K. Shelby succeeds Mr. Henry as master mechanic at Elmira. J. L. Cunningham, formerly foreman of the Columbia shops, has been appointed assistant engineer of motive power of the Philadelphia & Erie and Northern Central to succeed Mr. Shelby.

Railroad Notes.

Persifor F. Smith, president of the Ohio River & Northern railroad, accompanied by W. P. DeArmit and J. L. Francis, two other men who are interested in this projected line, has spent a couple of days at East Liverpool endeavoring to interest big pottery shippers in the proposition. They maintain that the line will be built, and they desire co-operation with shipping interests.

The limestone committee of the Central Freight association will hold a meeting in the Pittsburgh freight committee rooms today to discuss rates. A large number of traffic men from Eastern Ohio will attend.

John E. Sautter, chief clerk to Supt. Morrow of the West Penn division, spent yesterday in Harrisburg on business.

J. L. Fouts has been appointed Panhandle agent at Raccoon to succeed F. L. Andrews, resigned.

G. A. Emery, Pennsylvania passenger conductor, is in New York on business.

Fred W. Boltz, who is well known to Pittsburgh traffic men from his representing the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Illinois Central roads at Cleveland, has been appointed traffic manager of the National Petroleum association at Cleveland.

General Agent Hitchcock has opened a new station ticket office on the Ferry street side of the Wabash terminal.

Agent S. C. Lovis and Traveling Agent Alfred of the Red and West Shore lines at Cleveland, were here conferring with General Agent Hurd of the Lake Shore.

George S. Afterburk, traveling freight agent of the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern railroad, was here from Chicago conferring with traffic men and shippers.

The Pennsylvania and the New York Central are starting a fight on import business that is expected to attain large proportions. Elimination of the differential on Philadelphia and Baltimore ports and placing them on an equality with Boston is said to be the cause of this fight.

CATERING PLANT FOR THE EAST END

W. R. Kuhn Options Emory Church Lot at $195,000 for $250,000 Building.

DOWNTOWN SALE OF $85,000

W. R. Kuhn, of W. R. Kuhn & Co., East End caterers, proposes to establish the finest catering plant in Pennsylvania on the old Emory Methodist church lot at North Highland avenue and Broad street. To this end he has secured an option on the property from Oswald Werner, the owner, the price being $195,000. Mr. Kuhn is now in New York arranging the details of the deal, and it is expected it will be closed in a few days. No broker is interested in the transaction, as all negotiations have so far been direct between the owner and prospective buyer. If the sale is effected about $250,000 will be expended for a catering establishment, for which plans have already been considered. The site has a frontage of 140 feet in North Highland avenue, 130 feet in Broad street and 118 feet in Kirkwood street, making it an ideal lot for such a purpose, where rear and side entrances and room for a power plant are important considerations. It was first intended to erect a three or four-story brick building to cover one-half the lot, and cost about $150,000. At present the plans of Mr. Kuhn indicate that a building will be erected to cover the entire lot, and will be equipped with every improvement known to the catering trade. The business of the Kuhn company has outgrown its present quarters in Penn avenue, East Liberty, two squares east of Highland avenue, and this project will give them both plenty of room and a location only one square from Penn avenue. Mr. Werner bought the property from the Emory Methodist Episcopal church last November for $145,000, so that he nets $50,000 by this transaction. One condition of his purchase was that the congregation should remain in the church for one year, by which time the plans for the big catering plant will have been fully worked out.

Women's Association Makes Big Deal.

The Women's Christian association has sold its property at 956 Penn avenue, adjoining the Pickering holdings, for $85,000. The reputed buyer is Samuel Hamilton, who lately sold his other Penn avenue holdings for $240,000. The association lot is 22x110 feet extending back to Exchange alley, and is improved with an old three-story brick house. About six months ago the association bought the old O'Hara homestead in Stockton avenue, near Union avenue, Allegheny, for $23,500. This is a very desirable property and the residence is large enough to serve its purposes much better than the Penn avenue house, so that it is said the entire work of the association will be transferred to it shortly. Several good offers have recently been made for the Penn avenue lot, the last one being $80,000, which was refused. At $85,000 the property figures at $3,864 a front foot, or $35 12 a square foot.

Through the Kelly-Wood Real Estate Company and J. A. Young & Co. the J. S. Brown property on the south side of Penn avenue, between St. Clair street and Euclid avenue, East End, has been sold for $87,000. It consists of 60x200 feet, extending back to Mignonette street, and is improved with two brick houses which are rented for about $120 a month. W. L. Curry is the present buyer and it is rumored that his purchase may result in a large building being erected on the lot in the near future. The property is in the heart of the new Penn avenue district and is regarded as reasonable in price at this figure, $1,450 a front foot, or $7 25 a square foot.

Through the Commonwealth Real Estate Company a local investor has bought from the estate of James Hunter, 1828-1834 Center avenue, just east of Overhill street, Eleventh ward, for $22,750. It is directly opposite the Bethany home and consists of 60x94 feet, running back to Clark street. Four brick houses on the site are rented for about $1,500 a year. The purchase is for investment, and at $379 a front foot the property is considered cheap in comparison with other properties in the locality recently sold.

It develops that Max Friedman is the buyer of the T. J. Quinn lot in Second avenue, between Market and Ferry street, the sale of which was noted in The Gazette yesterday. The exact price paid was $25,000. The buyer of the Bell lot adjoining has not been announced.

The Aronson Realty Company reports the sale for Catherine Manning to M. J. Constantine of the property at the southwest corner of Elm street and Webster avenue, Seventh ward, for $10,500. The lot is 39x40 feet and is improved with an old brick building which will be torn down to make room for a four-story store building to cost $13,000. The property has been in the Manning family for more than 50 years.

New Building in East End.

Casper Reimer, who owns the property at 6021 Penn avenue, near Sheridan avenue, East Liberty, has awarded the contract to William O. Wright for the erection of a two-story brick store building. The work of razing the old structure on the lot was started yesterday. This is one of several new store blocks built or projected for that part of Penn avenue, and that they are appreciated by business men of East Liberty is shown by the fact that Mr. Reimer has had a bona fide offer of $4,000 a year for his new building.

The Vet L. Brown & Starrett Company announces the sale of a 100-acre farm at Sheanansville, Crawford county, Pa., for Frederick Attenhof to John H. Watts for $6,500. In part payment there was tendered a house and 50-foot lot in Schley avenue, Ingram, valued at $4,500. Mr. Watt secured the farm for a summer home and will make extensive improvements. The same brokers report the sale for M. C. Raffneran to Frank A. Weinheuer of 101 Beitzhoozer avenue for $6,500 and to a local investor a farm of 75 acres in Lake county, Ohio, for $12,000.

Hastings street: John A. Sharp sold for Attorney Gibson D. Parker to John C. Mertz, a small house with an irregular-shaped lot, 84 feet wide in front, in Hastings street, near Elysian avenue, for $2,500.

Center avenue: W. J. White sold for Harry Kalson to Isaac Swerloff for $6,500 an irregular-shaped plot facing 17 feet in Center avenue, 87 feet in Dinwiddie street and 107 feet in Devilliers street.

Minor Sales Reported.

Craig street: George C. Norris & Co. sold for D. I. Parkinson to W. B. Williams of Wheeling, W. Va., 352 North Craig street, an 11-room brick house on 30x140 feet, for $10,000, for a home.

Belmar place: Michael Byrnes sold to William Davis an improved lot, 25x93 feet, on the south side of Mt. Vernon street, Twenty-first ward, for $4,350.

Mellon street: Samuel Dunseuth sold to David Diener an improved lot, 35x144 feet, on the west side of Mellon street, Nineteenth ward, for $7,000.

Kentucky avenue: Wilson A. Shaw sold to Mary C. Dysart an improved lot, 24x100 feet, on the north side of Kentucky avenue, Twentieth ward, for $6,869.

Webster avenue: Samuel Kaufmann sold to Abraham Lisfemus, 18x61 feet in Webster avenue, near Granville street, Eleventh ward, for $4,075.

Elm street: R. Kalish sold to D. Tiozzo an improved lot, 20x45 feet, at Elm street and Wylie avenue, for $8,000.

Hermitage street: Alfred Barbour sold to C. A. Kretz an improved lot, 23x80 feet in Hermitage street, Twenty-first ward, for $3,300.

Building permits were issued yesterday to the Pittsburgh Brewing Company for a two-story brick storage house at Smallman and Twenty-fourth streets, to cost $37,000; W. H. Stevenson, addition to brick building at Second avenue and Ferry street, to cost $25,000; J. H. Lockhart, to alter a brick dwelling at Fifth avenue and Ivy street, to cost $25,000; S. J. Purkiss seven two-story brick veneered dwellings in Lloyd street, Twenty-second ward, to cost $26,600; Fred Mugele, five two-story brick dwellings in Lawson street, Thirteenth ward, to cost $7,400; Herman Gunta, one-story frame greenhouse in Lemington avenue, Twenty-first ward, to cost $1,200; Taylor & Kauffeld, two-story frame dwelling in Evaline street, Nineteenth ward, to cost $2,000.

Most Healthful Food In the World

Whole Wheat, Cooked and Steamed, Mixed With Pure Malt Extract, Baked Crisp and Brown.

Careless eating leads to a lot of troubles that are hard to cure but easy to prevent. You are sure to suffer if you eat much food which you cannot digest easily. Headaches, dyspepsia, "biliousness," and even more serious ailments follow with certainty. Your vital energy and muscular power become sluggish.

If you will prevent you won't have to cure. Prevention is easy. Just remember this—easily digested, nutritious food makes health and vitality. It must be nutritious food that the human system can readily assimilate. The mere fact that a food is nutritious is not enough. If you cannot get the nutrition out of the food it does you no good.

We know of no other food that so richly endows the human body with health and vitality as does Malta-Vita, the perfect whole-wheat food. This is because Malta-Vita is not only so nutritious, but so easily digested that every one of its life-giving elements is taken up by the blood. It builds muscles, refreshes the brain, makes rich red blood and charges the whole body with energy.

Malta-Vita is the whole of the best white wheat, cooked and steamed, freely mixed with pure barley malt extract, then rolled into wafer flakes and baked crisp and brown. The malt extract, a powerful digestic agent, converts the starch of the wheat into maltose or malt sugar, a most valuable food and so easily digested that it does not distress even the weakest stomach.

Malta-Vita is the most healthful food in the world, and there is no other so good to eat. It's good whenever you are hungry. All grocers sell Malta-Vita. Now 10 cents.

Development Work in New Keener Sand Pool Grows Interesting

In the lower southwest fields development work in the new Keener sand pool, on Point Pleasant creek, Tyler county, is growing interesting. The Fisher Oil Company has drilled in its No. 2 on the W. F. Clark farm and has a show for a 36-barrel producer in the Keener. This location is almost due west of the producer on the R. A. Workman farm. Southeast of the Workman farm, Urquhart & Company have drilled in their second test on the Clendenning farm and have a producer good for 100 barrels a day. The first test on this farm has now been drilled through the Keener sand and is a duster. This well is the first drilled in the pool to get into the duster list. In the same district the Southern Oil Company has given its No. 1 on the R. A. Workman farm its second shot and increased its production to 400 barrels a day. No. 2 on the same farm is holding up at 345 barrels a day. The Lincoln Oil Company's No. 1 on the W. L. Workman farm is holding up at 175 barrels and Trees & Benedum's No. 1 on the T. J. Martin farm is producing 90 barrels and the Melroe Oil & Gas Company's tests on the Leaer farms at 70 and 50 barrels, respectively. The seven wells in the pool have now a combined production of more than 1,000 barrels a day.

Development work in the pool is increasing, even though the conditions are not favorable for active work. The next well due will be the Fisher Oil Company's No. 1 on the W. F. Clark farm. This well is long past due but was delayed on account of a fishing job that necessitated moving the rig.

On State run, Mannington district, Marion county, the Pittsburgh & West Virginia Oil Company's No. 3 on the A. M. Rownd farm is holding up at 105 barrels. In the Salem district, Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 22 on the L. Hamond farm through the Gordon and the hole has filled up 200 feet with fluid. When shot it will make a 5-barrel pumper. In the same district Randolph & Company have completed and shot their test on the D. Ellis farm and have a 5-barrel pumper. In the Wallace district, same county, the South Penn Company has drilled its No. 4 on the Mary S. Moore farm through all sands and will give it a short in the Gordon. It will make a small pumper. In the Bealls Mills district, Lewis county, the South Penn Company has drilled its No. 6 on the T. R. Reynolds farms to the top of the fifth sand. In the same district, the same company has given its No. 2 on E. G. Rogers' farm a shot and the hole has filled up 200 feet with fluid.

In the Calcutta district, Pleasant county, James Henaghan & Company have drilled their No. 55 on the J. B. Reynolds farm through the Big Injun and have a show for a 10-barrel pumper. In the same district Gale & Glenn have drilled their No. 7 on the T. W. Marple farm through the Cow Run sand and have a duster in that formation. Near Petroleum, Ritchie county, McBride & Shaffner have completed their second test on the J. M. Snyder farm and have a show for a 12 or 15-barrel pumper in the second Cow Run sand. This test is located one mile east of Walker station and is in new territory. In the Yellow Creek district, Calhoun county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its No. 3 on the M. A. Silcott farm and has a show for a 25-barrel producer in the Berea grit.

Near Harriettsville, on the Ohio side, in Noble county, N. J. Birnier & Company have drilled their test on the Jacob Ullman farm through the Buell Run sand and have a show for a 25-barrel producer. Near Pomeroy, Meigs county, the Ohio Fuel Supply Company's two producers on the Edwards farm are holding up at 15 and 18 barrels a day, respectively. They will have a third well on this farm due in the sand next Saturday.

Near Butler, in the white oil producing district, the Ohio Oil Company is reported to have drilled a test on the Russell farm, below the point where the sand should have been encountered, and failed to find the formation in which the Mengert and Remey farm wells got their production. The location of this test is about 600 feet northeast of the Mengert farm well, the first producer completed in the field. The Ohio Oil Company paid a bonus of $7,000 for this lease of 40 acres. There are still a number of wells drilling and starting in that locality. The pool has three producing wells, but as yet there has been nothing determined as to the probable size of the pool.

South of the old Fonner pool, Greene county, the Dunn Station Oil & Gas Company's test on the Carey heirs' farm is producing 50 barrels a day and has not been drilled any deeper. In the Nineveh district, same county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed No. 6 on the James McVey farm and has a duster. The same company's No. 5 on the Blair Mitchell farm is good for 20 or 25 barrels a day.

IS TOLD OF FORTUNE WHILE YET A PRISONER

Girl Under Arrest Receives Notification of Being Heir to Considerable Property.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 4.—Just before she was arraigned before Magistrate Pool in the Yorkville police court this afternoon on a charge of stealing $150 worth of clothing from her employer, Elsie Eldridge, a servant, only 17 years old, was handed a letter from her aunt which informed the girl that her father was dead and had left her the only heir to a fortune of $100,000.

The girl was employed by Miss Ella Marsh, a wealthy spinster, of East Forty-ninth street. Miss Marsh missed the clothing several days ago and detectives found it in the girl's room, they allege.

The young woman retained a lawyer, who gave her the letter containing the surprising news while the girl prisoner was standing in line waiting to go before the court. The letter was from Mrs. Agnes Coleman, the girl's aunt, and was dated Chesterfield, Mass.

The young woman ran away from home about three months ago and joined the Salvation Army in this city. Miss Marsh wanted to withdraw the complaint, but Magistrate Pool insisted upon holding the girl until her aunt could be sent for. She was locked in the court prison.
